Circle Two Holds Final Meeting of Year

Circle Two of the Methodist Auxiliary held its last meeting for the conference year on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. A. M. Cameron as hostess. As this was the time for the election of officers, the regular program was dispensed with. Mrs. C. J. Temple was elected to succeed Mrs. W. C. Leslie, as chairman, and Mrs. C. L. Tyson was reelected secretary-treasurer. The Circle has had a most successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Leslie, and while the members regret to see her go out of office, they feel that their new choice is a good one as Mrs. Temple has been unusually zealous in the missionary society work. The financial report for the year was made by the secretary-treasurer, and several important issues discussed.

The social hour was one of the most enjoyable for the year. Mrs. Cameron was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Martha McKay, and the contests, some of which were of real educational value with enthusiasm. Dainty prizes were given to the winners. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her little daughter, Marian, who afterwards entertained the guests with several piano selections.

The Circle was delighted to accept Mrs. G. Poole's invitation to meet at her home in Lakeview in November.
