How many will respond R. S. V. P. to the Hon. Charles W. Tillet's eightieth birthday party? By the time that rolls around the "Charleston" and "Black Bottom" will be a back number. However, the "Virginia Reel" being a classic, will still be in vogue for refined dancers.

Miss Beulah Thomas, who teaches at Broadway, spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. J. R. Loving, of Sanford, spent the week-end with Mrs. Laura Rogers.

As to the statue of Virginia Dare being a work of art, or an atrocity, as to the statue in itself, it may be a wonderful work of art by a master hand. But to the conception of North Carolina people, it is an atrocity.

North Carolina's conception of Virginia Dare is a charming and demure little maiden. But it is said Miss Lauder's gift is a memorial and not intended even as an imaginary likeness. Then why not a tablet or marker of some kind? North Carolina folk like originality.

Mrs. Mollie Graham and daughter, Miss Eva, Mrs. Mag Cameron and daughters, Misses Sallie and Bess, on Route One, were visitors last week of Mrs. Janie Muse and family.

Be sure to buy a ticket as soon as the debate is over.

At the close of the comedy the decision of the judges will be announced. The judges are to decide, not on the individual winner, but on the society making the highest number of points as a whole.

At this time the prize offered by the Woman's Club to the grade selling the greatest number of Red Cross Christmas seals will be presented.

Members of the commercial class of Farm Life school presented the comedy-drama, "The Eyes of Love," in a very pleasing manner in the Vass-Lakeview school auditorium on Wednesday evening. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the crowd was not as large as had been expected, but those present were delighted with the performance.

Get Somebody Else

The Lord had a job for me; but I had so much to do
I said: "You get somebody else, or wait till I get through."

I don't know how the Lord came out; no doubt he got along;
But I felt kind o' sneakin' like!
I knew I'd done God wrong.

One day I needed the Lord, needed Him right away;
But He never answered me at all, and I could hear Him say

Down in my accusin' heart: "Child, I've got too much to do;
You get somebody else, or wait till I get through."

Now when the Lord has a job for me, I never try to shirk;
I drop what I have on hand and do the Lord's good work.

And my affairs can run along, or wait till I get through;
Nobody else can do the work that God has marked out for you.
