Quite a number of ladies prominent in clubs of the State were present. These were Mrs. Palmer German, of Raleigh, Mrs. Reilly and Mrs. Platt, of Charlotte, Mrs. O'Berry, of Goldsboro, president of the State Federation, and Mrs. Charles R. Whitaker and Miss Mary Schwarburg, of Southern Pines.

The meeting was held in the beautiful new court house and lunch was served in the Woman's Club room.

Altogether, the day was a very great success in every way.

COMEDY WEEK AT THE CAROLINA THEATRES.

The management of the Carolina Theatres takes personal pride in the next three attractions offered for the entertainment of its Sandhill patrons. Their personal guarantee is also behind the statement that the week which they have designated as "comedy week" will unfold three of the best comedies of the year.

On Friday and Saturday, October 14 and 15th, the greatest comedy team in the world, Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, will offer their new laugh production, "Now We're in the Ar," and to those patrons who were so fortunate as to see their two previous war comedies, "Behind the Front," and "We're in the Navy Now," nothing more need be said. Those who missed these two pictures will certainly not allow themselves to miss this one, no matter how many other previous engagements they have to break.

On Monday and Tuesday, October 17 and 18, another comedy team, William Boyd and Louis Wolheim, new to the screen at present, but popular the instant their new picture, "Two Arabian Knights," is seen, will keep Sandhillers in convulsions from the time they are taken prisoners in a German camp until they carry off the Turkish maid, played by Mary Aastor, back to America with them. The management has had the pleasure of screening this laugh special and would like to proclaim for the house tops its wonderful entertainment qualities.

THE PINEHURST LUMBER YARDS
Pinehurst, N. C.

One thing you can always figure on when you want lumber or building supplies. The Pinehurst Lumber Yards will make an effort to meet your needs. This week we have brought in a car of kiln dried pine boards.

Of this material we will make Siding, Inside Finishing work, Flooring, and those various things you frequently need, but which you cannot always get in kiln dried stock.

Interior and Exterior Trim stuff, and as we make this stuff at our own planing mill from the kiln dried stock you get what you want of the pattern that suits you. Four and five-quarter sizes from this car load. It will all be high class stuff.

In providing these high-class specialties we have also included a shipment of CYPRESS IN THE ROUGH

To work out in orders of various kinds as builders may need cypress finishing material. Any thing for special orders of cypress wood, any sizes and any shape.

We have the equipment to handle lumber of any type, and we procure the stock from which to cut whatever is wanted. That's the whole story at
