

SOUTHERN PINES.

J. F. Morris and Hiram Wesbrook have returned with their families from an enjoyable Northern motor trip.

Cecil Dyer, of Portland, Me., who was connected with the Sandhills Citizen last year, has entered the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

George Richardson, who represents the Investors' Syndicate of Minneapolis in this section, has returned from a motor trip to Maine, where he visited relatives.

A. S. Newcomb, returning early in the week from his vacation spent at Biddeford Pool, Maine, reports an interesting experience. While in the wilds of the Maine woods he passed a car with "Southern Pines, N. C.," across the radiator, pursued it for some distance, but was unable to discover the owner.

Frank Tobin, genial totter of travelers' trunks, is back in town after a busy summer North.

Roy A. Pushee and family have returned from a summer spent at South Harwich, on Cape Cod, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Pushee fell in love with the place as a summer resort and purchased a summer home to which they plan to return next year.

James Silver has departed for Peabody Institute at Nashville, Tenn., where he will pursue his studies.

Postmaster Mooney, of Washington, D. C., visited the Southern Pines post-office last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson H. Boyd and family open their house for the season today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rountree, of Winston-Salem, have leased "Blue Shutters," the Ramsey homestead at the corner of Indiana avenue and Valley road on Weymouth Heights, from October 15 to June 1st. The contract was closed by S. B. Richardson on Wednesday. This will be the first season for Mr. and Mrs. Rountree and their son and daughter in the Sandhills.

Jeff Causey has left for Raleigh where he is employed in the State Highway department.

Dante Montesanti is in receipt of a congratulatory letter from John L. Corley, editor of "Cleaning & Dyeing World," a national publication of the industry, upon his graduation with honors from the National Institute of Dyeing & Cleaning. Dante has returned to Southern Pines to assume charge of the cleaning and dyeing in his father's plant.

Mrs. E. O. Schaefer, nee Miss Sarah Wiley, spent a few days with her mother last week.

Mrs. John Powell and Miss Mary Powell have returned home after a stay of a week or ten days in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Eddy and family arrived from the North Friday evening, where they have spent the summer at their summer cottage at Weirs, N. H. Miss Doris Eddy was Councillor at "Sea Pines," a girls' camp at Brewster, Mass., for two months and says it was a most enjoyable as well as profitable experience.

Miss Jacqueline Pushee is remaining North until the first of October when she will go to Washington to attend Miss Summers' School.

WILSON-McGILL.

An early fall wedding of social interest in both North and South Carolina was that of Miss Annie McGill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan C. McGill, and Paul Arnold Wilson. The marriage was solemnized Saturday at high noon at the Vass Presbyterian church, where quantities of golden rod in tall wicker baskets against a back ground of pines, ferns and lighted candles, gave a beautiful setting to the altar.

The bridal party entered the church from two aisles to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, led by the ushers, Messrs. Cecil Scott, of Charlotte, and Billie McGill, brother of the bride, who, crossing took their places on the sides of the altar. Next came the bridesmaids, Miss Jennie Holbrook, of Huntersville, and Miss Martha Davis, of Harrisburg, both wearing costumes of georgette and chiffon velvet in midnight blue, and carrying lovely bouquets of gladiolas.

The bride entered with the maid of honor, Miss Muse, and they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Bruce Roberts, of Columbia.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dugald Monroe, pastor of the Presbyterian church. During the ceremony McDowell's "To A Wild Rose," was rendered very softly and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as a recessional.

The bride was very attractively attired in a suit of blue and beige crepe with beige accessories and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Wilson is an honor graduate of Mitchell College, Statesville, and the University of South Carolina, having received her A. B. degree from the later with the class of '26. While there she took an active part in student activities, having been House President of the Woman's Building. She also received honorary scholarship from both institutions. For the past two years she has taught in the high school of Ridge Springs, S. C.
