

The Week in Southern Pines

Last Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. W. Halliwell gave a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., who were stopping at the Carolina on their way to Florida. Among the other out-of-town guests were Clyde Hornaday, of Raleigh, and Captain and Mrs. Crawford, of Fort Bragg. After a roast duck dinner, bridge was played, Mrs. N. F. Wilson and Dr. G. G. Herr winning first prize.

Also on Saturday night, Mrs. Helen Buckingham entertained a number of friends at bridge at her home on Massachusetts avenue.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead were hosts to a number of friends at evening bridge.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge club will begin meetings again this week at the home of Mrs. Verdie Wiley.

At the Highland Pines

Mr. and Mrs. T. Preston, Jr., of Princeton and Baltimore, are at the Highland Pines Inn for a rest of several days. Mrs. Preston is the former Mrs. Grover Cleveland, wife of the late President.

Percy Rockefeller of New York, gave a dinner Tuesday evening at the Highland Pines Inn in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas and others of his guests at Overhills, the Rockefeller estate. Mrs. David Sloane later entertained the party at her Weymouth Heights home. The trip to Southern Pines was made by motor.

Former visitors registering at the Highland Pines Inn this week were: Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacPherson and Col. Albert E. Pierce and Lloyd Washington, of Chicago; Major and Mrs. Duncan Robinson of Toronto; Mr. & Mrs. H.S. Burr of Fairfield, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacReynolds of Mesimee, Wis.; Frank Gould of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Gawthrop of Norristown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Haines, of Philadelphia, have joined Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Stokes, of Moorestown, N. J. The Donald MacPhersons of the Highland Pines Inn bungalow colony, have as a guest Mrs. Dudley Cates, of Chicago.

Personals

Miss Louise Way left last Friday for a Philadelphia Hospital where she will remain some time for treatment. Mrs. Way went with her and returned Thursday morning.

Mrs. P. T. Barnum is still confined to her bed with pleurisy.

Mrs. Stork, bride of Lieut. Stork, of Fort Bragg, visited over the week-end Col. and Mrs. Hawes at their home on Midland Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Reid, who have been visiting Mrs. Reids aunt, Mrs. Frank Welch, Jr., for the past week returned Saturday night to their home, Roanoke, Va.

George Richardson, who is in business in Washington, was home this week to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Hines.

Mrs. Emilie May Wilson is confined to her home with influenza.

Mrs. V. T. Wiley and Miss Katherine spent last week end in Asheville with Mrs. Wiley's daughter, Mrs. Eugene Schafer.

C. T. Patch and Mrs. Lillian Miles have returned from New York City where they have been buying for the Patch store.

We are sorry to hear that William Kohring is seriously ill.

Mrs. Ambrose Seate who is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. J. Welch is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

The Annual Bazaar of the Ladies Aid of the Church of Wide Fellowship will be held February 20th.

Miss Isabel Wicker is still confined to her bed, but is much improved in health.

The many friends of Mrs. Helen Morris and Harry Greene were surprised to hear of their marriage which took place last Saturday morning in Southe Carolina.

The Rev. Mr. E. W. Tuck is still confined to his bed.

Sunday night, January 27th at the Church of Wide Fellowship, Knowles Cooper, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Washington will speak on the subject, "Contact with Washington Officials."

Mrs. Lillian Judd of Raleigh, was in town to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Dr. Judd.

Samuel A. Smith left Tuesday for a trip to southern California.

Mrs. S. J. Miller, of Wilkesburg, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Irene Miller.

Mrs. C. L. Hayes and daughter, Mary Dell have returned from New York City, where they have been buying a new line of goods for Mrs. Hayes' Shoppe.

The corner stone of the Christian Science Church was laid last Tuesday at 2:30. The first service of the new church will be held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Calvert Wilson is expected to arrive in New York City today after a trip around the world. He started his journey last July.

Moore County Scouts of the Walter Hines Page Council held their second Quarterly Field Day at Pinehurst on Wednesday afternoon, January 16. There were over one hundred and twenty five scouts in attendance at the rally, all troops in Moore County being represented except Vass.

Troop 3, of Southern Pines, Max G. Backer, Scoutmaster, won the meet scoring a total of twenty eight points. Pine Bluff, Troop 1, W. D. Shannon, Scoutmaster, was second with a total of twenty three points. Troop 2, Aberdeen, C. B. Thomas, Scoutmaster, came in third, scoring eighteen points. Carthage, Troop 1, F. Y. Blanton, Scoutmaster, was fourth with 15 points and Pinehurst, Troop 2, Ralph Wallace, Scoutmaster, was in last place with ten points. All of the troops exhibited splendid sportsmanship and reflected credit on their leaders. The first quarterly meet ended in a triple tie between Pinehurst, Aberdeen and Pine Bluff. The Southern Pines Troop will represent the Moore County District in the Council Jamboree to be held in Sanford during the week of February 8-14, as a part of the celebration of the Nineteenth Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Becker Plays Seven Courses Here in 509 to Win Sweepstakes

Charlton L. Becker, of Philadelphia, N. Y., with a net score of 509, won the seven-course sweep event of Pinehurst Country Club. Mr. Becker, who is captain of the Tin Whistle golfers, played very consistently in the tournament, which included in its scope all the courses of Pinehurst, Pine Needles, Mid-Pines and Southern Pines.

The last round was played yesterday over Pine Needles, Jack Jolly, of Southern Pines, having low gross of 82, and H. A. Lovett, of Montreal, low net with 71.

Shumate Brothers to Give Concert Here

The Shumate Brothers who are coming to Pinehurst High School Wednesday evening, January 30th, at 8 o'clock have been rehearsing together since the youngest reached his fourth birthday. Contrary to many companies of "brothers" or "sisters," these boys really are brothers and have practiced their music together from babyhood.

Like most boys, they were fascinated by the saxophone, but these boys were the exception, and turned their boyhood interest into good hard work which has made them masters of the instrument.

POULTRY CAR TO BE SHIPPED FROM VASS

Mr. Seagroves, of the Vass-Lakeview school, has received notice that the division of markets will load a car of poultry at Vass on January 30. This presents an opportunity for farmers of this section of the county to dispose of their surplus stock and cull hens.

The prices, which follow, appear to be very good for this season of the year:

|                                  |    |
|----------------------------------|----|
| Colored hens and chicks, lb..... | 23 |
| Leghorn hens and chicks, lb..... | 21 |
| Broilers, lb.....                | 28 |
| Cocks, lb.....                   | 13 |
| Ducks, lb.....                   | 20 |
| Geese, lb.....                   | 15 |
| Stags, lb.....                   | 20 |
| Capons, lb.....                  | 28 |
| Turkeys, lb.....                 | 25 |
| Guineas, each.....               | 30 |

HIGHLAND PINES INN AND COTTAGES

(Weymouth Heights) Southern Pines.

A select resort hotel among the long leaf pines, Seaboard Air Line Railroad and Federal Highway No. 1. Serving all out of doors Amusements, Music, Best of everything.

State Charities Left Millions by B. N. Duke

Many Philanthropic Institutions Receive Bequests from Tobacco King

More than a million dollars are bequeathed to charitable institutions of North Carolina under the will of the late Benjamin N. Duke, tobacco manufacturer and philanthropist, whose death occurred in North Carolina on January 8th. After disposition of the major part of the huge estate, estimated at between $50,000,000 and $200,000,000, to relatives, the philanthropic bequests of interest to North Carolinians, include the following:

$50,000 North Carolina College for Negroes, of Durham, N. C., for its endowment building fund; $25,000 to the North Carolina Orthopedic Hospital at Gastonia, N. C., for its Negro ward; $10,000 to the Stonewall Jackson Training and Industrial School for Boys at Concord, N. C.; $20,000 to Kirtrell College at Kirtrell, N. C., for its endowment fund; $50,000 to the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Nashville, Tenn.; $50,000 to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Wilson, N. C., for an endowment fund, the income to be paid to superannuated and worn out preachers and their widows and orphans; $50,000 to the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, of Charlotte, N. C. for the same purpose; $20,000 to Watts Hospital at Durham, N. C., for its endowment fund; $100,000 to the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh, N. C., for its endowment or building fund; $50,000 to the Children's Home at Winston-Salem, N. C., for its endowment or building fund; $40,000 to the Oxford Asylum for white children at Oxford, N. C.; $15,000 to the colored orphan asylum at Oxford, N. C.; $15,000 to the Christian Orphanage, Elon College, N. C.

Other public bequests were $30,000 to the Baptist Orphanage, Kennedy Home, at Thomasville, N. C.; $5,000 to the Baptist Orphanage for colored children at Winston-Salem; $5,000 to the Methodist Protestant Children's Home at High Point, N. C.; $5,000 to the Odd Fellows Home, Goldsboro, N. C.; $25,000 to the Presbyterian Orphanage Home, Barium Springs, N. C.; $5,000 to the Pythian Home, Clayton, N. C.; $10,000 to the Thompson Orphanage, Charlotte, N. C.; a $15,000 trust fund for the Memorial Methodist Church, Durham, N. C.

SALE OF GAME LICENSES PASSES $170,000 MARK

With the last hunting seasons having about a month and ten days to run, collections from licenses for the current season had passed $170,000, according to figures made public by Wade H. Phillips, director of the Department of Conservation and Development.

CARTHAGE

Monthly Auxiliary Meeting

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church held its regular monthly meeting Monday, in the ladies parlour. There was one of the best attendance of the year.

Mrs. Frank Blue, president, being absent, Mrs. H. F. Seawell, presided. The routine business was taken up. The reports from the different circles were very interesting and encouraging.

The Auxiliary had the pleasure of having Dr. Golden with them, and he gave a short talk, with regard to the work of the church the help that we as an Auxiliary could be to him, and of course Dr. Golden can be of great help to the Auxiliary.

Epworth League Meeting

The meeting of the Epworth league Sunday was led by Miss Rozell Williams. There was a song by the league, Bible reading by Rudolph Womack, prayer by Aylma Muse. Talks were given by the following: B. F. Whitlock, Bill Buffalo, Jane Gibbs, Howard Muse, Monroe Way, Robert Sheffield, Ala Gibbs. A piano solo, by George Wells, was enjoyed by the league.

The offering was then taken, after which the league was dismissed with the League Benediction

Missionary Society of M. E. Church

The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Bryan. All the new officers were presiding. The usual business of the month was taken up and dispensed with. The yearly pledges are usually taken at this time, but it was decided to postpone this until the next meet. The society will meet next month with Mrs. Downing.

Christian Endeavor Society Meeting

The meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society Sunday evening was interesting, and well attended. The program was led by Jimmie Cooper, with most all members taking part. The society is trying to sell religious calendars, and are making pretty good progress. Dr. Golden met with the young people and they always enjoy having him.

Mrs. H. F. Seawell Attend League Women Voters

Mrs. H. F. Seawell attended the meeting of the League of Women Voters which met in Raleigh this week. There were several very prominent speakers at the meeting. Miss Elizabeth J. Hauser, fourth vice-president of the National League of Women Voters who spoke at the banquet, and Mrs. R. L. Turman, who gave an address at the luncheon.

Personals

Miss Meade Seawell left Sunday night for Huntingdon, Penn., where she will resume her duties in Juniata College.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Picquet, of Pinehurst, were in town Monday.

Judge Shaw of Greensboro is holding court in Carthage this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas' new house will soon be completed, and they will move shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Williams were in Sanford Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Golden, two daughters, Ann and Francis, accompanied by Annie Lee Cooper were in Sanford Saturday.

Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Muse, Mrs. Walton Sugg were in Sanford one afternoon recently.

Miss Glass of Asheville, sister of Mrs. Lee McDonald visited here Sunday.

Colin Spencer is doing nicely after an attack of influenza.

Mrs. Camp was in Carthage Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDonald were in Sanford Tuesday.

Mr. Morris, of the Sandhill Citizens, Southern Pines, was in Carthage Tuesday.

W. P. Morton of Pinehurst, principal of the Pinehurst school was a visitor to Carthage Tuesday.

Jessie Page, of Eagle Springs was in Carthage Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Graham, of Aberdeen were visitors in Carthage Tuesday.

Harold Williamson, of New York City, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williamson.

Mrs. Mitchel W. Page, of Asheville, and little son, Henry, are visiting Mrs. J. E. Waddill.

CAMERON

Miss Mamie Arnold and Mrs. Mack David McIver motored to Hemp Sunday to hear Rev. A. R. McQueen preach and also the splendid singing lead by Mr. Burr, who so many of the Cameron people will remember as being here during a series of services conducted by the late Dr. William Black.

The many friends of R. C. Thomas are glad to see him out again.

Mrs. Culberson, of Sanford and Mrs. Hattie Walker, of Concord, spent some days this week with Mrs. W. M. Wooten.

Haywood Snipes, of Duke University spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Snipes here.

Carl Loving came over from Pinehurst to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Loving.

Rev. A. R. McQueen, of Dunn, was the visitor of M. D. and Vera McLean Monday.

Isabel, Murdoch and Leighton Black McKeithen were the little supper guests of G. S. Cole and family Friday.

Mrs. Frank Ruth and children, of Raleigh, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Swett on Route 2.

Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill, Mrs. D. S. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKeithen and children enjoyed a "turkey dinner" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen a day recently. This was the 3rd "wild turkey" killed by L. B. McKeithen this season, and was a fine gobbler weighing 18 pounds. So we figure Leighton must "hit where he aims."

Rev. O. A. Kellar filled his regular appointment here at the Baptist church Sunday morning. He was accompanied by Mrs. Kellar and the children. They were all the dinner guests of Mrs. Tom Goodman Sunday.

Mrs. Lula Muse is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Brown in Chadbourn.

Mrs. J. W. Harrington of Route 2, is spending some time visiting relatives in Portsmouth, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McNeill, Misses

Mary and Ada McNeill attended services at Union Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Muse came over from Sanford Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Janie Muse and family.

Miss Lucile Loving, Messrs. Ira Thomas and Flint Loving were the supper guests of the Misses Rogers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKeithen and children spent Sunday in Clarkton with Mrs. McKeithen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie.

Miss Margaret McLean of Route 2, was the visitor of Vera McLean Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten and children, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rogers in Sanford.

Rev. M. D. McNeill filled his regular appointment at Cypress church Sunday morning. He was accompanied by Mrs. McNeill and they were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McGill.

Mrs. Paul Joyner and children, of Fayetteville, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. McIver, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thomas, of Sanford and Broadway, were visitors of Mrs. Laura Rogers Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Harper spent Saturday in Raleigh.

G. S. Cole made a business trip to Sanford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewett, of Raeford, were recent visitors of Mrs. E. M. Borst.

Mrs. J. C. Muse and Miss Jacksie Muse spent Friday in Hamlet.

Mrs. C. P. Rogers and daughter, Miss Anna, of Sanford, were Saturday visitors of Mrs. W. M. Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gaddy and children, of Sanford, spent Sunday with T. C. Gaddy and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Boaz.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Southern Pines, spent Sunday with Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunter.

Mrs. Ida Buie and daughter, Miss Vara, of Cypress community, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cameron.

C. C. Jones and son, Edwin, made a trip to Hamlet Monday.

Miss Marjorie Black came over from Broadway, to spend the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Tom Goodman.

Yes, not only the "people" in Cameron are "on the move" but also the houses." Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Guthrie have moved their house to the opposite of the street.

Cameron basket ball team is doing some fine playing this season, with Miss Mary Hendrix for captain. On last Wednesday they played Jonesboro. The score was 26-6, and Friday played Sanford, score 40-31 and Monday played Vass, score 41-29.

Mr. and Mrs. Thagard West of High Point and Mrs. Yates, of Carthage, were visitors of Mrs. M. D. McNeill Monday.

SPRING GOODS ARRIVING

- Fast Color Plaza print, per yd. ....25c
- Sun Tub Suiting, all colors, per yd. ....40c
- Silk and Cotton Crepes, per yd. ....75c and $1.00
- Silk Pongee, variety of colors, ped yd. ....$1.00
- Crettonnes of varied patterns, per yd. 25c, 30c and 50c

RAIN COATS and SLICKERS

for Men and Women

Overshoes and Rubber Boots

TOBACCO CLOTH

It will soon be time to cover that plant bed. If you don't have enough to cover your bed let us furnish you. Our prices for a good quality—

3 3-4c Ped Yd.

VASS MERCANTILE COMPANY

VASS, NORTH CAROLINA

