

The Week In Vass

Attend Health and Welfare Meeting
Mrs. D. A. McLaughlin, president of the Woman's Club, Mrs. W. H. Keith, head of the Welfare Department, Mrs. H. A. Borst, Mrs. C. J. Temple and Mrs. Royal Cox went to Pinehurst Tuesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the Moore County Health and Welfare Association.

Mr. Gilliland Ill

Friends of Ab Gilliland will regret to learn that he is quite ill. Mr. Gilliland was at his home in the Priest neighborhood until the first of the week when his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Oldham, brought him to her home here to care for him. If good attention will speed recovery, Mr. Gilliland should be better soon, for Mrs. Oldham is an excellent nurse.

Auxiliary Meets with Mrs. Keith

A very interesting meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Auxiliary was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Keith, with Mrs. N. N. McLean as leader. At the conclusion of the program the hostess served delicious cake and coffee. Methodist Missionary Society Notes
During the year 1929 the topic to have consideration in the Methodist Auxiliaries is "Homes Around the World." At last Sunday's meeting, a very interesting and helpful program was given, dealing principally with our own homes and their problems.

Circle meetings will be held on Wednesday evening of next week at seven thirty o'clock, number one meeting with Mrs. Royal Cox at the home of Mrs. Bertie Matthews and number two, with Mrs. S. R. Smith.

Personals

O. D. Park of The Pilot spent last week end with his family, in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Temple went to Bonlee Sunday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paschal.

(Scuse us, please, while we move away from these windows. It's impossible to look at news notes while the snow flakes are falling just outside.)

Miss Minerva Thompson, of Cameron route, was the guest of Mrs. Bertie L. Matthews the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leslie, with their son, Robert, of Rockingham, motored to Buie's Creek Sunday afternoon to see their daughters, Louise and Marjorie, students at Campbell's College. Marjorie had been sick about a week, but was much better.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Johnson had as their guests Sunday, their sister, Mrs. Roxie Sasser, and Fred Laws, of Durham.

S. J. Cameron, of Raeford, and Mrs. J. W. Hewett, of Raeford and Vass, spent a day of last week at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tillman spent last week end in Laurinburg.

Mrs. Bob Stewart and Miss Mary Cameron, both of Cameron route, are spending sometime with their aunt, Mrs. Ibbie McNeill, who is critically ill.

Oh, yes! Times are hard, 'tis true, and has his share of woe, but if all you men readers of The Pilot who pity yourselves will go to see "A Poor Married Man" who will be in Vass soon, you'll thank your lucky stars that all is as well with you as it is. The exact date of his arrival will be made known later.

Misses Vera and Betty Newton visited relatives in McCall, S. C., last week-end. Their sister who was injured in an automobile accident near here a couple of weeks ago getting along nicely, but still suffers some from her wounds.

Mrs. G. W. Griffin and son, Ray, spent last week end in Hamlet with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffin.

Miss Mary Davis Westcott, who has been critically ill in a Greenville hospital, is much improved and it was thought that she would be able to go to her home in Manteo this week. Miss Westcott is a sister of Mrs. Dan Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Armstrong and baby, Hazel Virginia, of Mt. Gilead, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCraney, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Tyson has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wallace, of Carthage.

Misses Lillian Oldham, Agnes Smith and Mildred Gunter and Redga Thomas went to Southern Pines Sunday evening to hear the Rev. Ira Landrith, D. D., noted preacher and writer, who spoke at the Church of Good Fellowship.

L. L. Johnson and son, Leroy, spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

J. W. Smith and W. D. Johnson, of route 2, went to Fayetteville Monday to see Mr. Johnson's father, John B. Johnson, who is very ill. Mr. Johnson is eighty six years of age. Rev. Mr. Monroe preached a very forceful sermon on "Foreign Missions" at the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. A pleasing feature of the service was a quartet, "The Church by the Side of the Road," sung by Mrs. H. A. Borst, Miss Alberta Monroe, J. M. Tyson and S. R. Smith.

Basket Ball

The Vass Independent Basket Ball team failed to interfere with the winning habit of the fast stepping Fuquay Springs team here in Vass on last Monday night, but the Vass boys gave them a good time as the score of 18-14 will indicate. Farabow, for scoring honors with eight points of Fuquay and Auman, of Vass tied each. The outstanding feature of the game was the close guarding done by both teams, especially the "five man" defensive game played by the Vass team.

On Tuesday night the boys and girls of the Vass-Lakeview high school played the Aberdeen highs and divided a double-header. The V. L. H. S. girls won by the decisive score of 70-5, while the boys lost their game by the score of 14-16. The feature of the girls' game was the team work displayed by the V. L. H. S. girls which enabled Evelyn Gardner and Grace McNeill to shoot a total of 60 points, evenly divided between the two.

Hard Luck

It was quite unfortunate for Mr. O'possum that on last Monday night three gentlemen left Vass with the good intention of attending a Masonic meeting in Southern Pines, or it might have been Mr. O'possum's misfortune to have had business just across the highway as the gentlemen were passing along. Anyway, he was cited by the gentlemen, Mr. Dwight, Mr. McCrummen and Mr. Wood to be exact, and then the chase was soon heard from far and near. Mr. McCrummen and Mr. Wood soon "treed" the poor helpless creature in a near by peach tree. Mr. Dwight played the role of the successful hunter because it was none other than he who captured the marsupial by his tail and pulled him from his place of refuge. The three gentlemen are planning to have an o'possum stew in the near future, and they wish all their friends to be present for the occasion.

MISS COLLETT SHOOT'S 84 ON RETURN TO GAME.

Miss Glenna Collett, Providence, R. I., national golf champion, was out on the links of Pine Needles Country Club Wednesday, playing for the first time since her recent illness, which two weeks ago forced her out of the Mid-South open tournament for women.

That her lay-off from golf has not greatly affected her form was proved by the good round of 84 she shot in a friendly foursome. Playing with Miss Collett were J. F. Knight, of Akron, O., who shot a 79; Edward Vane, of Philadelphia, who also had a 79, and C. A. Chandler, of Atlanta, who scored an 86.

JACK BOWKER SCORES AN EAGLE ON 443-YD. HOLE.

John R. Bowker, of Detroit, captured a prized eagle in a golf match at the Pinehurst Country Club in a friendly foursome. Mr. Bowker holed out his third shot, at 75 yards distance, on No. 12 hole of No. 3 course. The hole is 443 yards long, and is a par 5.

CAMERON

The Y. W. A. and G. A. societies of Cameron Baptist church, entertained the Ladies' Missionary society on Friday evening, at the pretty country home of Mrs. Laura Rogers. About forty ladies of different ages were present. Games of various kinds were played, and everyone had a jolly time. Chicken salad, saltines, pickles and tea were served.

Mrs. J. D. McLean Hostess

The Woman's Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. D. McLean Thursday afternoon. Circle No. 2 had charge of the meeting and were hostesses. The large reception room and dining room were charmingly decorated with hearts and other suggestions of St. Valentine Day. After the reading of the club's rules and business of the club was dispensed with, a social hour followed. Every member was given a slip of paper, on which to write what she thought would be best for the club to do during this year, these suggestions were read by Mrs. Jewell Hemphill, in this Mrs. Guthrie was winner of the prize offered, a beautiful bowl. In a Valentine contest, a large box of candy was won by Mrs. T. A. Hendrix. In answering the roll call, each one answered with a little Valentine rhyme. After the social hour, delicious refreshments of fruit salad, heart-shaped sandwiches, saltines and hot coffee were served.

PEACH GROWERS TO WORK FOR SANDHILLS TEST FARM

Moses A. McDonald, County Commissioner, presided at the Sandhills Peach conference held February 7th and 8th at West End. The meeting was a most successful one, and much good to the peach industry in this section is expected to come out of the discussions and talks during the two-day session. Among other projects launched was the appointment of a committee, with one member from each of the towns in the peach belt, to work for the settlement of the proposed State test farm in the section.

Prominent speakers from State College and other educational institutions, prominent men in the peach industry and government agriculturalists spoke at the meeting, touching on every phase of the industry.

Modernize Your Old Home

It is surprising what a little work and some new material can do to an old home. A new roof, a sleeping porch on the rear and a patio on the side, a window here and a set of French doors over there—and you wouldn't know it was the same place.

We have the necessary materials on hand for all sorts of building and we will gladly estimate your needs. There is, of course, no obligation on your part.
