Schools Closed

The Aberdeen Schools closed for the Thanksgiving holidays and will not reopen until Monday, December 2nd. Taking advantage of the holiday the teachers will go to their respective homes.

Book Club Meeting

The Aberdeen Book Club was delightfully entertained last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jones Macon acting as hostess at her home on Rush street.

Following the regular business hour an interesting programme was given with "The Autobiography of a Business Woman" serving as its subject, and papers were read by Mrs. G. E. Pleasants, Jr., on "Small Beginnings," followed by Mrs. H. W. Doub on "Progress and Success."

The special guests of the afternoon were Mesdames James McColeman, Frank Mizell and A. K. Pennington, and Mrs. Frank Fagan of Rocky Mount.

McFarland-Kirk

The many friends of Miss Evelyn Kirk and Marvin C. McFarland will be interested to learn of their marriage which took place on last Friday afternoon at Carthage.

Miss Kirk, an attractive blonde, is a daughter of Mrs. Cora Kirk of Roseland, and well known in Aberdeen, while Mr. McFarland holds a responsible position with the Allred Chevrolet Corporation.

After a short motor trip Mr. and Mrs. McFarland will make their home for the present at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McFarland.

Bible Class Meets

The Young Woman's Bible Class of the Baptist Church held its November meeting with Mrs. Holt. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Claude Johnson, presided. After the devotional, reading of minutes and roll call, a general discussion of business was held and plans for Thanksgiving and Christmas and packages for the proteges of the class arranged.

Mrs. Holt, assisted by her guest, Mrs. Cameron, served refreshments.

Missionary Notes

The December Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society will be held at the Methodist Church next Monday Afternoon, December 2nd, at 3:00 o'clock. Since this is the last meeting of the year members are urged to bring remainder of dues or pledges, and also their "Rainy Day" bags, which will be opened at this time. The last chapter of the Study Book, "Seven" will be taken up.

Circle Meetings

The Circles of the Woman's Auxiliary of Bethesda Presbyterian Church will meet on Monday afternoon, December 2nd, as follows:

Circle No. 1, Mrs. H. A. Keith, chairman, with Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson at 3 o'clock.

Circle No. 2, Mrs. Malcolm Pleasants, chairman, with Mrs. Dan McKeithen at 3 o'clock.

Circle No. 3, Mrs. Mary Campbell, chairman, with Mrs. J. R. Page and Mrs. Frank Shamburger, at the home of Mrs. Page at 1:15 and have luncheon with meeting afterwards.

Circle No. 4, Mrs. Fred Blue, chairman, will meet with Mrs. Blue at 3 o'clock.
