

Dr. Dickie Addresses Parent-Teachers Ass'n.

Discusses Dread of Tuberculosis at Interesting Meeting at Aberdeen School

The October meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was held in the auditorium of the Aberdeen grammar school on Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, but on account of so many of its members going to the County Fair there was not a large attendance.

The meeting was called to order by its president, Mrs. J. Falbot Johnson. The secretary and treasurer were called on for reports, and committees made their reports. The Ways and Means committee brought up the matter of a card party, the proceeds of which will go towards liquidating indebtedness of the P. T. A., which matter will be decided later. James Smith, manager of the Dixie Theatre, offers to go "fifty-fifty" with the P. T. A. on another show, which offer will probably be taken up in the near future.

The Grade Mothers are asked to visit the children for whom they are Grade Mothers during the next month, and make reports at the next meeting. The president was authorized to appoint delegates to the convention to be held in High Point on November 11th, 12th and 13th, and hopes that as many members as possible can go. As this week will be the time for the next meeting for the association, it was decided to put the November meeting off another week in order that there will be no conflict. The November meeting will be announced in The Pilot as to its date. Mrs. H. L. Boggs will be glad to take subscriptions to "Child Life" within the next week, at which time all subscriptions will be mailed in. Miss Effie Butler, teacher of the Commercial course in High School made a plea for a Grade Mother for that course, which matter will be attended to soon.

W. G. Smith generously offered a free round on his Miniature Golf Course to the grade having the largest percentage of mothers present, to be announced later.

Rebecca Doub gave a very interesting report on the meeting of the Junior Red Cross held at Chapel Hill last week, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. H. E. Bowman gave an interesting report on the Federated Women's Club held in Lillington on October 13th, for which meeting Mrs.

W. A. Blue was the Book Club's delegate, and stressed several points brought up at this meeting as work which the association could do profitably, especially the beautifying of our highways, and the canning of soup mixture for the hot lunch work.

The special feature of the afternoon was the splendid talk given the association by Dr. J. W. Dickie of the Southern Pines Sanatorium on "Fear of Tuberculosis," which was especially enjoyed. Seldom has the association had such a treat, and we hope we can have him talk to us again.

A delightful social hour followed the meeting during which the hostesses served refreshments. The hostesses for this meeting were Mesdames J. F. Deaton, Roy Harrington, Jones Macon, W. G. Smith, A. L. Burney, J. K. Melvin and J. Vance Rowe.

FRANK PAGE TO PRESIDE AT EDUCATIONAL MEETING

The discussion will be led by General R. I. Rees of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Mr. Cator Woolford, of Atlanta. Mr. Woodford will discuss the value to Georgia industries of the Georgia College Placement Bureau which he helped to found. Willard Dunlop Speaks to Kiwanis Members

Resolutions on Death of Kiwanian J. F. Morris Passed at Weekly Meeting

Willard Dunlop was the principal speaker at this week's Kiwanis luncheon, giving the members his ideas of developing further interest in the weekly meetings and of making the club of further value to the community. Dr. J. W. Dickie also spoke of the value of Kiwanis to the individual.

The following resolutions on the death of Joseph F. Morris, late member of the club, were passed:

WHEREAS, An all wise Providence has removed from among us our friend and co-builder, J. F. Morris, and

WHEREAS, His death marked the end of a life of usefulness and unselfish, friendly and capable service, and

WHEREAS, While mourning his loss we realize that we have been enriched by his having lived and served among us:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That in the passing of Kiwanian Morris (or Uncle Joe, as his friends were wont to call him) this Kiwanis Club has lost a beloved member, faithful and true, and the community and section has lost an honorable, upright and public spirited citizen.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That we, the members of the Kiwanis Club of Aberdeen, in commemoration of him and as evidence of the deep loss we feel, inscribe a page in our minute book in his memory.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the sincere sympathy of each and every member of this organization is tendered to his bereaved widow.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That a copy of these Resolutions, suitably inscribed, be furnished to Mrs. Morris and a copy likewise to each of the newspapers in this section.

DAVID DRAGE, MRS. CONVERSE KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

they said, as it turned into the sharp curve at high speed. The machine left the road at the beginning of the turn, they said, and careened violently with two wheels in the ditch on the right-hand side. The woman, they declared, stood up in the car as she wrestled with the steering wheel, but was unable to pull the car out of the ditch.

The machine struck the pole, situated in front of the Old Falls Church, with a crash that awaked residents of the town many blocks away.

Woman Dead When Found

The man and woman were thrown 25 feet through the air by the force of the impact, and Mrs. Converse was dead when the onlookers reached the scene. She sustained a broken neck, fractured skull, broken right arm, a fracture of the left leg and a crushed chest and shoulder.

Drage died of a fractured skull at Emergency Hospital, where he was taken in a taxicab, which drove up shortly after the accident. He was 26 years old and a member of a socially prominent family in Kansas City.

The car struck the pole with such force that the upholstery in the rear seat was torn loose. The pole, set in a heavy concrete base, was driven backward 18 inches.

Identified by License

Mrs. Converse was identified by a driver's license found in her handbag, the license having been issued to her mother, Mrs. Emma J. Walter of 10 Kirke street, Chevy, Md.

Drage was reported to be an old friend of the Walter family and was staying at the home as the guest of Beverly Walter, the dead woman's brother. Another brother of Mrs. Converse, Donald M. Walter, was killed in an automobile accident on November 28, 1927, near Rockville.

Mrs. Converse was the wife of James Vail Converse, banker and sportsman of New York City. Her first husband was F. Addison Brastow of the 2,000 block of N. street, a local advertising man. Mrs. Converse was married to Brastow soon after she made her debut in 1923 and was given custody of their two children when the divorce was granted several years ago. The children are Frank Addison Brastow, 3d, and Jerome Durean Brastow.

Married Again in 1928

She married Mr. Converse September 18, 1928, in the First Presbyterian Church, New York City. He had been married twice before.

Besides her mother and brother she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. Roland A. Waddill, both of Washington.

Drage was a son of Col. and Mrs. Frank Drage of Kansas City. Col. Drage came to this country from England several years ago.

FRANK PAGE CHAIRMAN

Frank Page was named chairman of the important budget committee of the Community Chest Drive in Raleigh when leaders in the annual movement for civic donations met on Wednesday and framed plans for the 1930 Chest Week, November 17 to 22.
