Weymouth Heights
SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.

Folks are coming into the Sandhills freely for the winter, and it takes no prophet to foretell that by the time spring rolls around a number of new home-makers will have secured locations in the Weymouth ridges.

The new houses that have been built in that area during the departing year have given further illustration of the favor in which Weymouth is held by particular people, and each new home adds to the interest and the permanent attraction of the section.

From the Almet Jenks home clear around to the Callery project this influence extends, and at every point the development is of the highest character.

Steadily the available lands are going into the hands of buyers.
Get yours while you have the chance.

$2,000 Rewards Paid To Captors of Dietz

Southern Pines Settles Claims of $1,550 Arising from Kelly Murder Arrest

The Town of Southern Pines has settled its claims arising from the capture of Granville A. Dietz, the slayer of Chief of Police Kelly for whom liberal rewards were offered at the time, and whose arrest was made in Maine through efforts of local police, police officials of West Virginia and Maine officers. A check for $1,550 was sent to H. F. Seawell, Jr., attorney for claimants, and the money paid by him to the following:

A. D. Woodford, West Virginia, $350; Fred M. Gates, Maine, $100; C. F. Wilson, West Virginia, $200; John Stevick Jr., West Virginia, $600; Lloyd Rideout, Maine, $100 and C. F. Schroeder, Jr., West Virginia, $200. The state has paid $200 to A. F. Hight, another West Virginia officer, and the County has given A. D. Woodford $250 in addition to the amount paid him by Southern Pines, making a total of $2,000 paid out by State, County and Town.

Dietz is now a fugitive from justice, having escaped from the State Farm at Caledonia after serving but a few months of the long term given him after the trial at Carthage. The present reward for his recapture is said to be $25, offered by the State.

THISTLE CLUB PLANS FOR ACTIVE SEASON

The second executive committee meeting of the Thistle Club for this season was held last Tuesday at the Southern Pines Country Club, when plans were completed for the first event of the club, and other activities of the winter discussed.

Officers of the club for this season include Mrs. E. Ellsworth Giles, president; Mrs. M. G. Nichols, vice-president; Mrs. Jamie Dickie, recording secretary; Mrs. Hunter Eckert, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Robert A. Olmstead, treasurer.

Mrs. W. C. Mudgett will be chairman of entertainment for the Thanksgiving party, Mrs. George C. Moore in charge of refreshments and Mrs. E. V. Perkinson heads the decorating committee.

TWO-DAY TOURNAMENT AT SOUTHERN PINES CLUB

The usual Saturday golf sweepstakes for men at the Southern Pines Country Club will be omitted this week, on account of the two-day tournament scheduled for Friday and Saturday which is open to golfers of North Carolina.

The women's events will take place as usual. An approaching contest will be held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and a nine-hole handicap event for women, which can be played at any time during the day.

CHILDREN ENJOY TREAT AS GUESTS OF C. W. PICQUET

Last week the children of the county were guests of the Southern Pines Theatre, when C. W. Picquet made it possible for them to see a most remarkable picture. Indians are an ever-popular subject with children. The story as it unfolded in the "Silent Enemy" was a delight to all the youthful spectators. And if applause counted for anything, a high mark of appreciation was reached. It was another one of the educational features Mr. Picquet had made an effort to show, and through him the county is getting an unusual selection of pictures that are worth while. He has done much to bring to the patrons of the theatre a higher and cleaner type of pictures and a form of entertainment that reaches every one for a modest sum.

The movie, like the automobile, radio and kindred other things about us, has come a long way, but compare with the future ahead the distance travelled isn't very far as the recent rapid advances show.
