

SEASONS GREETINGS

Grey's

Southern Pines

Overcoats
Suits
Tuxedo's
Knickers
Hats
Caps
Sweaters

Announce the Autumn and Winter showing of Men's apparel and Furnishings in their remodeled store. An attractive display at Moderate Prices awaits your inspection.

Shoes
Golf Hose
Half Hose
Ties
Shirts
Underwear
Luggage

FEATURING THE "FRIENDLY FIVE" SHOES

The Week in Southern Pines

Social

Mrs. L. W. Bredbeck entertained at four tables of bridge Thursday at her home on Ashe street. High score honors were won by Mrs. E. C. Eddy, Mrs. J. V. McDaniels and Mrs. Alfred Grover. Guests included Mrs. Tom Vann, Mrs. Raymond Semon, Mrs. Bernard Leavitt, Mrs. J. V. McDaniels, Mrs. Wade Stevick, Mrs. E. C. Eddy, Mrs. Walter Spaeth, Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Mrs. Charles Grey, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. McGarigar, Miss Ethel Jones, Mrs. R. A. Johnson and Miss Mary Cameron.

Mrs. D. G. Stutz entertained the Past Matrons and Patrons of Magnolia chapter of the Eastern Star on Tuesday evening at her home on Ashe street.

The Day Club was entertained by Mrs. Reid Page on Thursday afternoon in Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, October 26, at their home on Indiana avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Maze were dinner guests. In the afternoon they were given an informal surprise reception by friends of the Eastern Star and presented with a large cake and sum of gold.

Mrs. Bettie Schroeder entertained at bridge on Wednesday afternoon in the Orange Room at Jack's Grill.

A get-together supper will be held in the Parish House of the Episcopal church on Friday evening, Nov. 7. Bishop Penick plans to be here and all interested in the church are invited to attend.

Miss Helena Kelly has issued novel invitations for a Hallowe'en party to be given at her home in Weymouth Heights Saturday night.

A Hallowe'en party was given by the Junior Sunday school class of the Baptist church Thursday night in Mr. Richardson's barn which was appropriately decorated, the rafters hung with jack-o-lanterns, black cats and apples. After the Hallowe'en games were played the party went to the house to listen to the ghost stories told by P. P. Pelton, and for the refreshments.

Personals

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bronson of Philadelphia, have arrived in Southern Pines for the season.

Carl Thompson returned from Philadelphia Monday where he attended the invitation Archery Tournament at Huntington Valley Country Club, winning the first honors.

Mrs. Eugene Shaffer and small daughter returned to Asheboro on Friday after being the guest of Mrs. Shaffer's mother, Mrs. R. E. Wiley at her home on Massachusetts avenue for sometime.

Mrs. David Sloane of Millbrook, N. Y., has leased the Lachine cottage on Arbutus road and expects to arrive within the next few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill B. King of Kalamazoo, Mich., have taken a cottage on Country Club drive for the season.

The Parish Guild of Emanuel Church will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. John Jordan at her home on Country Club Drive.

Among those who will attend the U. N. C.—Georgia Tech game Saturday at Chapel Hill are Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Perkinson, Everest, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Page, Dr. and Mrs. George Herr, Dr. and Mrs. James Milliken, Miss Dorothy Case and Miss Dorothy Stutz.

Mrs. Clara Pushee and Mrs. George Orcutt left Thursday for New York where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Jamie Dickie and son are visiting in Woodland, N. C., this week. Mrs. John Powell and Mrs. Tom Black and daughter returned Sunday from Durham where they have been spending a few days.

Bill Fisher of Hopewell, Va., spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. Park Fisher.

Garland Pierce has returned to Southern Pines for the winter.

Rev. Lyner Wheeler went to Washington to meet Mrs. Wheeler, returning to Southern Pines with her Tuesday night. They will spend the winter at the Ottawa apartments.

Miss Alice Stutz will arrive Saturday to spend the week end with her parents. She will be accompanied by two of her classmates, Miss Ann Rogers of Asheville and Miss Alice Pickett of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peden of Pittsboro have returned home after passing a few days in Southern Pines.

Miss Margaret Gifford, a student at N. C. C. W., Greensboro was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gifford over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saper who have been spending a few days at their cottage on Ashe street will return to Washington Friday.

Mrs. John Chilcott has returned to Southern Pines from Brookville, Pa. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Mrs. Pete Freeman, who will spend a short time with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. William Pone and Mrs. George Shaffer motored to Greensboro Monday.

William H. Hutt is very much improved after a recent illness at his home on May street.

George Chatfield and Maurice Eadie, students at State College, spent the week-end here with their parents.

Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee returned to Southern Pines Friday and has opened her home on Orchard road. Miss Hasson of Washington, D. C., is her house guest.

Paul Shyde and Mr. and Mrs. Beam of Norristown, Pa., are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett French.

The Girls Hockey team of Southern Pines will play the Winston-Salem team Friday afternoon here. Following the game they will be entertained at supper at the home of Ruth Travis. The game scheduled for Wednesday afternoon with High Point was postponed on account of rain.

The first meeting of the Parish Guild was held at the home of Mrs. Alaric Drew at her home on Indiana avenue Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hugh Betterley was elected president. Mrs. James Swett, secretary and Mrs. W. E. McCord, treasurer, were re-elected. After the meeting a salad course was served.

Mayor Stutz and Vance Sykes, division engineer of the Seaboard, were busy inspecting the various avenue crossings last Friday. As a result the sidewalk crossings have been put in much better condition and there is a prospect that we may obtain steel rails to replace the present plank crossings of the driveways.

Roy Grennell returned Friday morning from the Sakonnet Golf Club, Little Compton, R. I., and will resume his duties with the Southern Pines Club Saturday morning.

John Ruggles, whose marriage is announced in this issue of The Pilot, has rented an apartment from Mrs. Goodwin, 10 North May street.

Mrs. F. M. Gardner and Miss Dunbar, who were expected to arrive from their summer home in Winthrop Beach, Mass., were detained by the sudden illness of Miss Dunbar.

John Ramsbottom is employed in the Simonds store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Creamer are expected to arrive Friday from Damiscotta, Me., where they have been since the closing of the Inn at Charlevoix.

John F. Stevens is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stevens.

David Hoskins has purchased the McCullom house on Bennett street near Wisconsin avenue.

Walter Lambeth of Thomasville, and Hinton James, Democratic candidates for the late Congressman Hammer's seat, were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Struthers Burt returned Saturday from a summer spent in Wyoming and have opened their winter home, Hibernia Lodge, Weymouth Heights.

George Nevin, Jr., is now with the Highland Hardware House.

Services will be held in the auditorium of The Church of Wide Fellowship Sunday morning, Nov. 2nd, at 10:30. The Rev. Elmer Willis Serl will deliver his first sermon of this season. The vested choir will render the special music.

A harvest Hallowe'en supper will be served at The Church of Wide Fellowship Friday evening, October 31, at six o'clock. The price will be 50c. Mesdames Turner and Austin are chairman of the group serving the supper.

Miss Lena Cameron returned from Charlevoix Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Vetterlein of Atlantic City, is the guest of her son, H. E. Vetterlein, Niagara.

Grey's have completed the extensive changes inaugurated for the greater comfort of their patrons and their store is now up to the minute and fully in keeping with modernized Broad street.

MRS RYALS MEETS CLASS

Mrs. W. L. Ryals met with her Home Demonstration Club in Vass on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was ipresided over by the vice-president, Mrs. A. K. Thompson and was opened with prayer and the reading of the club collect. Mrs. Ryals gave a report of the council meeting which was held in Carthage last week and then conducted a very interesting study on the subject of cereals, telling something of the food values and comparative cost of the cooked and uncooked cereals.

Following this, a cereal advertisement contest was enjoyed, in which Mrs. S. R. Smith was winner of the first prize and Mrs. G. W. Brooks and Mrs. John Gaddy of the second.

THE NEW Camel's Hair Topcoat

Light in Weight
Warm and Comfortable
$25.00

THE TOG SHOP

Broad Street and New Hampshire Ave., Southern Pines

and WELL CLEANED

Now Open for the Season

ELITE CLEANERS

Telephone 6301
Elberta Hotel
Southern Pines

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO VISIT

The Tulip Garden Greenhouses

Bennett Street Southern Pines

FALL FLOWERS NOW IN BLOOM

MRS. I. F. CHANDLER

SOUTHERN PINES FISH MARKET

Broad Street and Connecticut Avenue

Clams—Oysters—Scallops
Cod—Haddock—Mackerel
Shrimp—Southern Mullet

SEA FOOD IN EVERY VARIETY

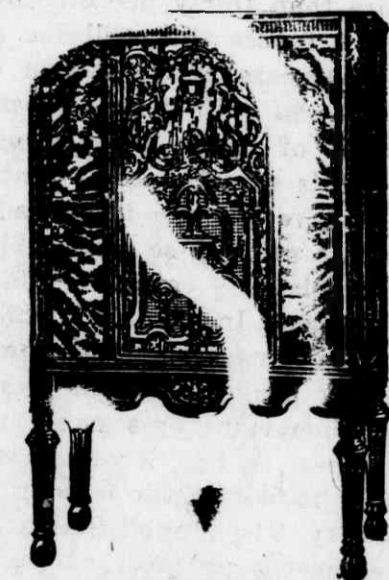

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY AND MONDAY ONLY

Close Fitting Felt Hats
98c

Better Values for Less Money

HOSKINS

Bennett Street and Wisconsin Avenue
Southern Pines

Bosch Radio

$144.50
to $250.00
(Less tubes)

SEE THE BOSCH RADIO TODAY

DAY & BRADIN ELECTRIC SHOP

Southern Pines

Phone 7111

Phone 5651

for

"Cleaners and Pressers to the Sandhills".
Burgess Block N. Hampshire Ave. Southern Pines

The Recreation

East Broad St.

Southern Pines

THE PARKVIEW

Modern—Fireproof—Excellent Table

Attractive location—Opposite Park—Convenient to stores

One block from Highway and Depot

Open all year

Sunny

Warm

Comfortable

K. FLASCHLAENDER

Southern Pines,

North Carolina

THE WOODWORTH

Corner of Bennett Street and New Hampshire Ave.

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.

Now open for the season of 1930-1931

A. S. RUGGLES

HIGHLAND LODGE

A Quiet Home-Like Family Hotel

Pleasantly Located on Vermont Avenue Near the Pines

SEASON OCTOBER 1ST TO JUNE 1ST

MRS. W. N. GREARSON

6933

Southern Pines, N. C.

DODGE SERVICE STATION

Featuring

SINCLAIR GAS

and MOBILINE MOTOR OIL

Eugene A. Bariteau

East Broad street — Telephone 5311 — Southern Pines