The Sandspur

Vol. 1

November 7, 1930.

No. 1

Published in the interest of Better Dry cleaning in the Sandhills by The Valet, Inc.

Announcement
We suppose everybody sometime has wanted to run a newspaper of their own.

We plead guilty, not only on that score but also to wanting to be an editor.

Nelson Hyde of The Pilot says running a newspaper is full of grief, but if we insist he'll rent us this little corner every other week, and it'll be up to us to make good. So we'll be here every other Friday with The Sandspur in which we will talk about.

You people, Our Community, Its Improvements. And maybe a little bit about the Dry Cleaning business.

Now with election over we have hopes of hearing some music on the radio.

Sure, we can give you one day service; we are equipped for it.

Cleaners & Pressers to the Sandhills. Opposite the Fire House, Southern Pines, Phone 5651.

Read The Sandspur Here Every Other Week.

JUST ONE KIND OF ROOFING

An intelligent woman, who looks after her affairs, recently asked a man who knows pretty much what there is to know,

“What kind of a roof is the most satisfactory to put on my house?”

And the man who knows, said: “Just one kind, Johns-Manville Asphalt Shingles and you get them at the Pinehurst Warehouses.”

THAT'S THE STORY.

ANOTHER CAR OF THE GENUINE JOHNS-MANVILLE ASPHALT SHINGLES—

Midlands Farms Acreage Sites

You many have noticed the steady and high class development along the Midlands road from Pinehurst to Knollwood Village and Pine Needles and Mid-Pines.

Have you ever thought that this Sandhills neighborhood is doubling faster than at the rate of once in ten years?

Have you ever figured what the next ten years will see, or what the number of homes in the Midlands Farms region will be, or the quality of the new homes established in that territory?

Look over the past twenty years and the past ten years, and remember what has transpired, and then think of the next ten years.

Those same influences that have brought about the wonderful progress here in the recent past are steadily multiplying. More folks bring more folks. More fine homes bring more fine homes.

There on the Ridges east and west from the Midland Road are fine home sites, in acreage sizes, selected with proper regard for delightful home construction.

Drive around some of the roads leading from the Midland road and see what will greet you.
