Campaign Open to Ambitious People of this Section for Spare Time Efforts; Read Double Page Announcement In This Issue; Costs You Nothing To Compete.

A number of valuable prizes headed by a new model Ford Tudor Sedan are offered free of all cost to the energetic people of Moore County in a big $1,600 Christmas Club Campaign to be conducted by The Pilot, the details of which are given in the double Ad of this issue.

The Pilot warns you before you go further that the value and splendor in awards will surprise you, and the simplicity under which they are to be given away is going to tax your credulity.

"Why," you will say, "this sounds like a Fairy tale—seems too good to be true" but there is nothing of fiction in the offer. There is a latest model Ford Tudor Sedan fully equipped, value $599. A $200 cash prize, that will be just like seeing Santa Claus himself. A $143.50 Majestic radio that offers hours of pleasurable entertainment. A beautiful diamond ring, a beautiful fifteen jewel sport model wrist watch, a Cedar Chest and a six months pass to the Carolina Theatre in Southern Pines. In addition to these regular prizes we are offering two cash prizes of $50 and $25 respectively, to the Conof Governor Williams testants who live outside of Aberdeen, Southern Pines or Pinehurst that Carthage Book Reviewers Choose poll the highest number of votes and fail to win as much as fourth prize. H Historical Setting For Any of these prizes may be yours Study of County without one cent of cost on your part -and in addition, all active Contes-The Book Beviewers entertained tents who are not prize winners will the Carthage School faculty Thursday receive a cash commission for their afternoon at a most delightful meetefforts. BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Where You Can Help

But any enterprise of this sort needs some explanation, so here's the idea in a nut-shell. This paper wants to further increase its circulation. Who can better assist in this than its friends and readers who know and appreciate it for what it is. Each new or renewal will count a certain number of votes and these votes are to be obtained through The Pilot, so the campaign is launched today and through it the people in this community are given an opportunity to develop their selling abilities and at the same time reap a harvest that would never come to them in any other way.

Grand Capital Prizes

The man or woman who secures the highest number of votes during the campaign which lasts only a few short weeks will be presented with a new Ford Tudor Sedan, value, $599. You have dreamed of, longed for and wished for an automobile of your own, but it is not likely that your fendest expectations ever allowed you to even wish for one without spending your own money, but its here for Messrs. Dan Carter, M. G. Dalrym- you and The Pilot is ready to pay the bill in exchange for some of your spare time. There are seven other valuable and worthwhile prizes.

If you are blessed with just enough ambition to dictate your entry into this campaign, then you are more than half way to success, which in this case can mean the possession of a fine motor car as you would care to own and once you get into this affair the exhilarations and zest of the work will carry you through the victory. There is a decided advantage that the
