HALLOWE'EN PARTY

On Saturday night at her home on Weymouth Heights Miss Helena Kelley entertained more than thirty guests at a gay Hallowe'en party. The house and grounds were lighted by orange and black lanterns in odd shape and sizes with here and there mysterious faces peering out. The large living room was gaily festooned with streamers and other appropriate decorations, all in the same color scheme.

The costumes were unusually attractive and it required much deliberation for the judges to award the prizes. The girls prize went to Peggy Elliott and the boy's to Ralph Chandler, Jr., Edith Poate as a Chinese Mandarin coming in for honorable mention. An interesting guessing game drew more prizes for the lucky winners. Dancing followed, during which a delicious punch was served. Then came more games and a bountiful supper.
