Why assume the risk?

Numerous Burglaries and Robberies that have occurred recently accounts of which are in the press daily make us realize more fully the importance of providing for indemnity for losses arising from those causes.

Residence Burglary; Personal Hold-Up; Safe Burglary and Office and Store Burglary and Robbery are some of the forms of insurance offered you.

Cost compared to protection afforded is almost negligible.

Aberdeen Social Events

Book Club Entertained

The Aberdeen Book Club was charmingly entertained on last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bowman on Poplar street.

The subject for the afternoon was "Pacific Islands," and the following interesting papers were read: "Hawaii and the Philippines" by Mrs. H. L. Boggs; "Samoa, Tonga and the Fiji Islands" by Mrs. S. E. Sloan and "Australia and New Zealand" by Mrs. W. A. Blue.

At the close of the regular program an enjoyable social hour followed. The special guests invited in for this meeting were Mrs. N. A. Courtway, Mrs. J. F. Deaton, Mrs. Will Carter, Mrs. W. W. Norris, Mrs. C. B. Thomas, Mrs. W. T. Batchelor, Mrs. Louis McBrayer and Miss Mary Wilder and her house guest, Mrs. Landis.

Bible Class Meets

The Wesley Bible Class of young ladies of the Aberdeen Methodist Church held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Thomas on Poplar street on Tuesday night of this week, with Mrs. C. B. Thomas, Mrs. Sidney Windham, Mrs. Marvin McFarland, Mrs. Clay Kirk and Miss Lillian Brown acting as joint hostesses.

During the regular business hour the clothing for the orphan which class supports was displayed, and plans laid for sending it to her.

An interesting Armistice Day contest was enjoyed by the members during the social hour which followed the meeting.

Notice

The November meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association will be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 19th, at 3:30 o'clock at the High School auditorium. It is hoped that a full attendance of members will be present.

Notice

The young ladies composing Mrs. R. G. Farrell's and Mrs. C. T. Johnson's Sunday School classes will give a Silver Tea at the Aberdeen Baptist Church on Friday night, November 14th, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a special musical program in which the Sandhill Sixteen will take part, and which is sure to prove enjoyable. This Tea is given to pay off the final indebtedness on the church pews, and it is earnestly urged that it be well attended.
