THE WEEK IN VASS

At the Churches

A special Thanksgiving offering for the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh was made at the Vass Methodist Sunday School last Sunday morning, and the sum of $76.09 was given for the worthy work.

A Thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian church at 7:00 o'clock Thursday evening, at which time an offering will be made for the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs.

The Rev. C. A. Lawrence will preach at the Vass Presbyterian church at 11:00 o'clock next Sunday morning, this being a fifth Sunday when there will be no other preaching service in town.

Quite a number of Baptists and their friends were present to hear the Rev. J. Ward Buckner of Staley, who preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Temple Hostess to Auxiliary

Mrs. C. J. Temple was hostess to the Methodist Auxiliary at her home on last Wednesday evening and the meeting proved to be a most delightful one. The business session was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. H. A. Borst. Officers for the new year were chosen and Mrs. Borst was re-elected chairman and Mrs. C. L. Tyson was again elected to serve as secretary and treasurer. Work for the coming month was planned and Mrs. Laubscher reported that more than ten dollars had been realized from the "hen sale."

A very interesting study of the life of Joshua was led by Mrs. John Gaddy and Mrs. L. C. Crabtree was appointed to lead in a study of Ruth at the December meeting, which will be held in the home of Mrs. W. C. Leslie.

During the social hour an original contest bringing in the names of nearly everyone who has ever been a member of the Auxiliary was enjoyed, and Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. W. H. Keith made the highest score in finding these hidden names. Mrs. Keith and Mrs. S. R. Smith, and Mrs. Borst and Mrs. John Gaddy tied for honors in a "Chilly Romance," which was followed with a clever announcement of "Our Thanksgiving Luncheon." The hostess served delicious refreshments at the conclusion of the program.
