Recorder's Court

Monday was almost a day of rest in Recorder's Court, only three cases of minor importance being tried.

Henry Kellum was fined $10.00 and the costs on a charge of reckless driving. Robert Johnson, colored, pleaded guilty to assault with his fist on a female, and judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs.

John Hutchisch was given six months on the roads after he had pleaded guilty to a larceny charge. John had concealed, or attempted to conceal, a pair of shoes under his coat while in a store in Aberdeen. His game was discovered, and he was turned over to officers, who later found that he had also added a shirt to his wardrobe without the owner's knowledge or consent.

Harrison Douglass, charged with embezzlement, was called and failed.

ed mebership in the club and a better percentage of attendance over the previous year. Richard Tufts read his report as trustee, and Robert N. Page, lieutenant governor of this division of the Carolinas district, spoke of the splendid work done by the Aberdeen club.

CORONER'S JURY SAYS HUSSEY WAS MURDERED

the hearing had to be postponed, and was completed on Sunday in the Court House in Carthage.

A large number of witnesses testified and the opinions of Dr. Symington and Dr. McDuffie were given. Dr. McDuffie stated that he had treated the man for heart trouble.

The evidence brought out that Hussey was last seen alive on Thursday afternoon and that he had been drinking. Cassie Brown said that he had seen Hussey at Sheffield's barn on Thursday afternoon and had drunk with him. It was further disclosed that Sheffield and his wife and Reid Brown had gone to High Point on Friday and returned on Sunday, and it was Mrs. Sheffield who found the body when she visited the barn soon after her return on Sunday after. Dossie Brown, Curtis Brown, Joseph Lambret, in addition to those mentioned before, were called upon to testify, and it is said that some conflicting testimony was given.

Dan McDougald Dies In Portland, Oregon

Son of Mrs. Julia McDougald of Cameron Passed Away on Thanksgiving Day

Mrs. Julia McDougald received a message from Portland, Oregon that her son, Dan McDougald died in a hospital there on Thanksgiving day. Dan was born and reared in Cameron and was a boy of a quiet, lovable disposition, always obedient and respectful to his teachers. He received the prize the last year he was in school for being the best all-round pupil.

The funeral was held from the undertaker's parlors, and a prayer service was conducted at the grave by a Presbyterian minister. Mr. McDougald was 45 years of age and was connected for the last 14 years with a big lumber company in Portland. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Julia McDougald; one sister, Mrs. H. D. Tally, both of Cameron, and two brothers, Arch McDougald of Hamlet and Alex McDougald of Venus, Fla. Mrs. H. D. Tally and Arch McDougald will go to Portland in the near future.

NEW COMMISSION TAKES OFFICE IN COUNTY

called on to appropriate during each year the sum of close to half a million dollars of county money taken from the taxpayers. Not one of these men would fall over dead if a delegation of citizens from any section would appear before them and ask that their particular appropriations be made less instead of more, but that is the only way to lessen the expenses of the county. Its folly to say to the commissioners to cut taxes and costs but meanwhile to see that Hoopole township is given some fanciful trimmings on the bridge across the creek or that Punkin Hollow school house gets a new football ground with an iron fence around it to make it look attractive to the strangers who pass that way. The commissioners are going to try to cut the coat according to the cloth and it is wise to realize that if they do not accomplish the job it is the taxpayer who has to buy more cloth.

Making Ends Meet

This new board has that old job that has always characterized public administration—boring a two-inch hole with a one-inch auger, or paying a two dollar account with a one dollar bill. The only way this latter job can be done is by keeping the two dollar debt down to a dollar, and then it is easy. These men are not going to serve themselves. They will try to serve the county, and they will have a job hard enough at the best. But they will succeed much better if we all stand by them as far as we know how, for it is all of us who are concerned in their achievement.

No doubt the new board will be glad to hear from anybody who has any suggestions about county government, but the time to offer the suggestions is before action is taken on any particular thing, not after. Kicking about what has been done gets us no where. Discussion before it is done frequently does something. This is the people's county, and the commissioners are the people's hired men, although the wages are not high. To get results stand by them. They are a square bunch of men, trying to do the best that is possible. Share the responsibility with them, for all of us together can do more than some of us alone can, with the rest chronically kicking.

Hoover: "How's your wife coming on with her driving?"
Coolidge: "She took a turn for the worse yesterday."

"Why were driving so fast this morning?"
"Well, the judge fined me $5.00 for speeding yesterday and he didn't have change for ten, so he told me to go ahead and speed it out."
