MIDLAND FARMS ACREAGEOn the Main Street of Central North Carolina

Not long ago the Midland Farms area was a peach orchard, and a number of pear trees yet line the road between Pinehurst and Knollwood.

The transformation in a brief period has been remarkable, but what a transformation is indicated by the expansion of the home-making influences in this Sandhill neighborhood.

Look backward on what has been done.

Then look forward and imagine what similar growth will do in the coming similar period.

THE MIDLAND FARMS ACREAGE

Lies on both sides of the double road from Pinehurst to Southern Pines, back a thousand feet or so from the road, on the rise of the hills, back far enough to afford ample room for building sites big enough to suit.

Remember—In establishing a new home the cost of the location is only a fraction of the cost of the house.

Pick a good location like Midland Farms, for the ground around your house is a big factor in making a delightful home.

Real Estate Section, General Offices, PinehurstAberdeen Social Events*A Santa Claus Play

On Thursday night, December 18th, at 8 o'clock at the Aberdeen High School, the children of the Grammar School will give a Christmas Cantata entitled "Santa Saves The Day." This is an attractive two-act cantata in which Santa is taken ill with flu, and is unable to make his yearly rounds. The children are all distressed because they cannot have any Christmas; but with the aid of nurses, doctors, fairies, moonbeams, stars, snowflakes, Sandman, Jack Frost and neighbors Santa is made well and they all have a happy Christmas after all. Admission will be 10c and 15c.

Book Club

The Aberdeen Book Club held its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Blue in Aberdeen. No business was transacted but the Community House which this club together with other clubs in this section are hoping to buy was discussed.

The subject for the afternoon was "China," and several interesting papers were read as follows: "Chinese Cities, Shanghai, Soochow, Peking and Hangchow," by Mrs. E. L. Barber; "Housekeeping in Peking" by Mrs. M. M. Johnson, and "Chinese Temples and Religions" by Mrs. G. C. Seymour.

A most enjoyable social hour followed the meeting during which the hostess served a salad course.

The Christmas meeting will be held with Mrs. E. T. McKeithen on December 16th. It was voted that on account of the depressing times no gifts would be exchanged by members of the club, but an especially interesting Christmas program is planned.

Those invited in for the meeting at Mrs. Blue's were Mrs. Ralph Leach, Mrs. Nelson Courtway, Mrs. Landis, Mrs. Rosser Jones, Mrs. Reid Pleasants and Misses Mary Wilder, Mary Leach, Jeannette Leach, Mary McKeithen, Mildred Osborne, Annie Grady, Maud Maness, Nancy Beddingfield and Elizabeth Carawaen.

Bryan-Poole

A wedding of interest to many friends took place at the residence of Dr. Harry E. Brooks in Clayton on Tuesday morning, December 2, when Miss Bessie Lee Poole and George Clement Bryan were quietly married. Dr. Ira E. D. Andrews, pastor of the Clayton Baptist church, performed the ceremony, the impressive ring service being used. Only the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry E. Brooks, the groom's mother, Mrs. G. C. Bryan and brother, J. Norville Bryan, Dr. Brooks and intimate friends were present.

Miss Poole was a popular first grade teacher in Aberdeen the past two years and has many friends here.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Coy Poole. She attended Meredith College and was a member of the Clayton city schools for two years.

The bridegroom is the second son of Mrs. George Clement Bryan and the late Mr. Bryan. A graduate of Wake Forest College, he now represents the Equitable Life Insurance Society. He is also a prosperous planter.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bryan left for Florida and points South. This popular couple will be at home in Clayton after December 15.

Parent-Teachers' Meeting

The Parent-Teachers Association will hold their December meeting next Wednesday afternoon, December 17th at 3:00 o'clock at the Grammar School building in Aberdeen. It is hoped that a full attendance of the members will be present.
