PINEHURST LUMBER YARDS

Pinehurst, N. C.

As far as the development and progress of the Sandhills are concerned all observers say the financial depression has no great effect. Probably the contrary is the case, for there seems to be an opinion that with investments in other things an uncertain process the investment in a Sandhills home and Sandhills property is safe and promising.

At any rate things are doing in this section, and all the signs say a big wave of expansion is ahead, and moving this way this winter and spring. The Pinehurst Lumber Yards are ready for anything that comes.

Stocks of material for the home builder, for the man who has extensions or repairs to make, for anybody who expects to build on big or little scale.

Spring is just ahead now, and it is time to complete your plans and get into action. Prices are low now. Let us make you figures on anything.

Book Club Studies "Persia"

Mrs. Stewart Weaver delightedly entertained the Aberdeen Book Club at her home on the Raeford Road on last Thursday afternoon.

Following the course of study laid down for the year the subject for the afternoon's program was "Persia," and several interesting papers were prepared and read at this meeting as follows: "Persia, as She Is Today" by Mrs. P. P. McCain; "Remains of Old Persia," by Robert N. Page; "The Bakhtirai Tribesman and Grass" by Mrs. E. L. Barber. Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Jesse Frink; Mrs. J. D. McLean and Miss Hazel Cobb. It was announced that the next meeting of the Book Club will be held with Mrs. H. W. Doub. An enjoyable social hour followed the meeting during which the hostess served refreshments.

A most delightful occasion was that of the surprise shower given by Miss Alma DuMeer at her home on Rush Street in Aberdeen on last Saturday night honoring Mrs. Purvis Ferree, nee Miss Katharine Butner, a recent bride.

Several contests were enjoyed by the guests, the first of which was an advertisement contest, the second a cut out letter contest, forming the words "Butner-Ferree," and the third a floral contest, the prizes for which were all given to the honoree. Miss Alma DuMeer then read an entertaining paper on "Husbands."

Lovely and useful gifts suitable for a bed-room were showered on Mrs. Ferree by the guests, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all those present. Guests at this shower were Mrs. Purvis Ferree, Mrs. J. V. Ferree, Mrs. M. F. Butner, Mrs. J. D. Frink, Mrs. G. B. Paterson and Misses Alma DuMeer, Annie Belle Thompson, Janette Ferree, Sarah Weaver, Polly Butner and LaNita Wimberly.

Sewing Club to Sponsor Garden Contest

The Stay-A-While Sewing Club met with Mrs. George Martin on last Thursday afternoon. During the business hour plans were made for the club to get out a cook book, and it was voted to sponsor a Flower Garden Contest, in which everyone in the community is entitled to enter as a contestant. Judges will be chosen and prizes awarded from the club members. The program for the next few months will center around gardening projects.

Mrs. John D. McLean read an interesting paper on Perennials and Mrs. LeRoy Harrington on Hints for removing stains. The special guests invited in were Mrs. G. C. Seymour and Mrs. W. A. Blue.

An enjoyable social hour followed the meeting during which the hostess served delicious refreshments.
