

THE WEEK IN VASS

Mrs. Wade Smith Passes

Mrs. Wade Smith, for several months a resident of Vass, passed away in the Moore County Hospital on last Friday after a long illness of pella. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon in the "Horse-shoe" section of the county. Surviving are the husband and four children, Weldon, Harvey, Eugene and Mollie, the baby being two years of age.

Dr. Branch Speaks In Vass

Dr. E. A. Branch, Director of Oral Hygiene of the State Health Department, spoke before the student body of the Vass-Lakeview schools and a number of the patrons on Wednesday afternoon of last week, and his lecture was the best of its kind that has ever been heard here. Dr. Branch spent last week in the county putting on a mouth health education program, sponsored by the Moore County Health and Welfare Association in connection with the dental clinic being held in the schools of the county. Dr. Branch is an accomplished story teller and he held the undivided attention of the school children, putting across his health teachings in a way that they will be remembered.

Delightful Party

Misses Margaret McLeod and Lois Buchanan of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty entertained at a delightful bridge party on Tuesday evening of last week in their apartment in the Beasley building, honoring Miss Ollie Seagraves of Carthage, their guest for the night. The ladies' high score prize was won by Miss Crumpler and J. R. Auman came off with first honors among the men. The guest of honor was presented an attractive gift. At the conclusion of the game the hostess served delicious refreshments. The guests included Miss Seagraves, Carthage; Miss Mae Crumpler, Broadway; Misses Jessie Mae Sugg and Ruth McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Auman, John McCrummen and Ben Wood, Vass; Carl Buchanan, Glenn Buchanan, and Malcolm McLeod, Broadway; R. G. Payne, W. B. Graham and George Graham, Olivia, and Jesse Gardner, Lakeview.

"The Old Oaken Bucket" Pleases

"The Old Oaken Bucket," the play presented in the Vass-Lakeview school auditorium on Friday evening, was a decided success. The attendance was good and the large audience was highly pleased with the performance. The proceeds, around sixty dollars, will be used for the athletic association of the school. J. R. Auman of the school faculty directed the play. The cast included the following: J. R. Auman, C. L. Tyson, John McCrummen, Miss Marjorie Leslie, Mrs. S. R. Smith, Joseph Matthews, A. G. Edwards, Jr., Herman Parker, Claire Thompson, Misses Elizabeth Keith, Eva Callahan, Louise Leslie and Anna Laubscher.

If you failed to read "Cheap Schools a Waste Of Money," an article by H. Lee Thomas, county superintendent of schools, hunt up your last week's Pilot and read it. Mr. Thomas gives out some eye-opening information in his interesting article and some facts that the thinking citizens of the county should read and consider thoughtfully.

Miss Ruth MacFarland will present her piano and part of her public school music pupils in a recital Friday evening, January 23, in the school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock.

Personals

Dunk McCrimmon and W. B. Graham of Vass are serving as jurors this week.

The Rev. W. C. Ball of Aberdeen filled his regular appointments at the Vass Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. Communion was observed at the morning service, and in the evening Mr. Ball preached the first of a series of four sermons to the young people. Special music by Miss Ruth McFarland and Miss Alberta Monroe, assisted by the young people's community choir, was a pleasing feature of the evening service. Mr. Ball was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leslie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Graham were Raleigh visitors a day last week.

N. M. Smith, farm demonstration agent of Onslow county, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith.

Misses Lois Buchanan, Jessie Mae Sugg, Margaret McLeod and Vera Newton were week-end guests of Miss Buchanan's sister, Mrs. Thomas, of Jonesboro.

O. J. Martin of Yadkin Co., is farming for M. Autrey, route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Hartsell and daughter and T. J. Thomas of Morven were week-end guests of the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hartsell.

Mrs. Loula Muse, after spending two weeks in Henderson, with her son, Dr. J. D. Muse, returned home Sunday. While away Mrs. Muse visited the devastated area around Norlina and Wise—the path of the fearful tornado. Only by viewing the scene, can one realize the terror and panic and suffering of the people of this section. On the Sunday following the cyclone, 4,000 cars visited the scene.

Mrs. Joe Harrington, of route 2, who is a patient at the Central Carolina Hospital in Sanford, underwent a major operation last week, and we are glad to report she is doing nicely and very much improved.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made
To half pint of water add one ounce bayrum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.
