Aberdeen Social Events

NOTICE
 Dr. R. P. Gibson of Pinebluff, will preach at the Aberdeen Baptist Church on next Sunday evening, February 15th, taking the place of the regular pastor, C. L. Jackson, who is away. It is hoped that a large congregation will come out to hear him.

To Organize Hospital Auxiliary
 The women of Aberdeen will meet at the home of Mrs. J. R. Page this afternoon (Friday) at 3:30 for the purpose of forming a Moore County Hospital Auxiliary. A good attendance of the women of the town is urged.

Home and Garden Club Meets
 The Home and Garden club, which is the new name given the Stay-A-While Sewing club, met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Pleasants, Jr., at her attractive home on the Raeford road in Aberdeen.

During the business hour it was voted to ask Struthers Burt of Southern Pines to come to Aberdeen some time in the near future to make the women of the town a talk on "How to Beautify Our Town;" and plans were discussed as to the Flower Contest this club hopes to have before long.

Mrs. Charles B. Thomas read an interesting paper on "How to Grow Poppies, their History and Use," and Mrs. James Foy an equally interesting paper on "Soup Suppers."

Two new members, Mrs. Ralph Caldwell and Mrs. W. A. Blue were welcomed into the club at this meeting.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Circle No. 3 of the Aberdeen Methodist Church will give a Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. J. K. Melvin in Lakeside Heights in Aberdeen on next Friday afternoon, February 13th, 1931, from 3 to 5 o'clock. George Arnold, Jr., radio pianist, will furnish the music. The offering is to be used for Orphanage work and to help in the improvements at the Methodist Parsonage. All denominations are invited, and cordially welcomed.

MRS. WORSHAM INSTALLS MAMMOTH INCUBATOR

Mrs. W. T. Worsham, who lives on the Pinebluff Road 1 1-2 miles from Aberdeen, has installed a Mammoth Buckeye Incubator to take care of the baby chick business, and the hatching of eggs for this end of Moore county. Mrs. Worsham started in the chick business year before last with one 250 egg incubator. Last year she had to install two more 250 egg incubators, and then could not supply the demand, so this year she has put in a 2,640 egg incubator. She sets only the Rhode Island Reds from her own hens, that are to be sold as day old chicks. She also does custom hatching. Her birds won Blue Ribbons at both the Moore County Fair and the Sandhills Poultry Show. Her place is known as Bird-Haven Poultry Farm and Hatchery. She also sells hatching eggs. Her friends are wishing her much success in this enterprise.

MIDLAND FARMS ACREAGE
Between Pinehurst and Knollwood

Here is the location to keep your eye on.

The improvements planned and in progress, the systematic scheme of development that is unfolding and the location of this strictly rural type of ground tells you what is ahead for it.

State highway, two way road, one thousand feet from the property connected with crosscut roads that are to be improved in the most scientific manner that engineers and landscape men can plan.

Convenient to everything in all parts of the Sandhills. Clay roads in all directions to please the feet of the horses, bridle paths, all the community modern conveniences.

Tracts of sizes to suit, on pine-covered summits, picturesque, in good neighborhood, and surrounded by lands owned by progressive people and the best of neighbors.
