Benefit Bridge
 The benefit bridge party given under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association on last Friday night at the home of Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson was very enjoyable, and a pronounced success from every point of view. There was about $35.00 realized from this party, which is to go for the distribution of free hot lunches by the hot lunch committee of the association to the underprivileged children in our grammar school.
 The guests sat down to 14 tables, and after several interesting progressions prizes were awarded to the following: Mrs. Frank Shamburger, E. T. McKeithen, and Mrs. Wrenn playing Contract Bridge; and Miss Mary Leach, Mrs. Jesse Frink, Miss Sarah Weaver, Mrs. M. Schwartzman, Mrs. J. F. Deaton, G. C. Seymour, Mrs. Stewart Weaver, W. W. Maurer, Miss Christine Allred, Miss Elizabeth Thomas and Betsy Jean Johnson as Auction Bridge players. The prizes were many and beautiful, and were donated by friends and members of the association.

Miss Bradshaw Hostess
 Miss Grace Bradshaw was hostess to her bridge club on last Thursday night at her home on Poplar Street, at three tables of bridge. Mrs. George Martin won high score prize, a lovely luncheon cloth, while Mrs. W. L. Bachelor received as second prize, a box of dainty handkerchiefs. The Valentine motif was beautifully carried out in the tables, decorations and the heart shaped refreshments. The special guests invited in were Mrs. Robert Gwyn, Mrs. Grady Burney, and Miss Thelma McFarland.

 The Home and Garden Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Malcolm Pleasants at her home on Main Street on last Saturday afternoon. In the absence of the President, Mrs. H. W. Doub, Mrs. J. F. Deaton, the vice-president, presided over the meeting. During the business period plans were discussed as to beautifying the town and planting shrubbery under the direction of E. Morell, landscape architect of Southern Pines. Mrs. George Martin read an interesting paper on Annual Flowers; followed by another interesting paper by Mrs. J. F. Deaton of The Culture of Gladioli. The George Washington Birthday motif was carried out in the dainty favors, which were given out with the delicious salad course which the hostess served at the close of the meeting.

Miss Eva Johnson Entertains
 Miss Eva Johnson entertained a number of her small friends on last Monday afternoon, at her home on Poplar Street, the occasion being her tenth birthday.
