

The BEST Quality--- The BEST Service--- The BEST Price!

Before Easter Sale

AT

MRS. HAYES SHOP

Beginning Friday, March 27th

Radical Reduction on All Merchandise

Horse Show with Record Entry Opens at Pinehurst Next Tuesday

Golf's Threat For Sports Supremacy Has Inning Next Week

(Continued from page 1)

12:00 noon until 1:30 p. m., at $1.50 a plate. The entire proceeds from these luncheons will be given to the Moore County Hospital, as all of the expenses have been underwritten. Table reservations may be made from members of the committee in charge, Mrs. A. F. Popham, chairman, Mrs. H. J. Blue, Mrs. W. D. Hyatt, Mrs. V. P. Myers, Mrs. Richard Tufts, Mrs. G. P. Vail and Mrs. W. W. Winkle, all of Pinehurst; Mrs. W. C. Mudgett of Southern Pines, Mrs. H. A. Page, Jr., of Aberdeen and Mrs. F. Remington of Pinebluff.

Prominent Judges

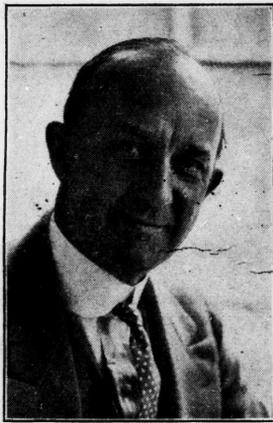

Prominent New York judges have been secured for this year's show, Ernest I. White, an authority on trotters, hunters and jumpers as well as saddle horses, and Warner Baltazzi of New York and Aiken, one of the best judges of polo ponies in the country and also a keen judge of hunters. Assisting Mr. White and Mr. Baltazzi, who are arriving Monday, will be Dr. G. B. Giltner, who has judged harness horses classes in local shows for many years.

The first class will be shown at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, and classes will follow one another in swift order until late Tuesday afternoon, with the same program on Wednesday. Championship classes will be judged Wednesday afternoon.

Leonard Tufts of Pinehurst is president of the horse show, and Charles W. Picquet secretary. Mr. Picquet states that he has a few scattered box seats still available for those desiring them, and also that those desiring parking space should see or telephone him promptly, as the demand for all such reservations has been greater than ever.

Prominent among the horse owners exhibiting this year are Burrell G. White, Verner Z. Reed, Jr., Aldo Balsom, J. D. Callery, The Paddock, Mrs. Lawrence B. Smith of Millbrook, N. Y., Mrs. Landon K. Thorne of New York, the Thorndale Stables of Millbrook, the United States Army, Corbett Alexander, Miss Julia Scott Butterfield and others.

Show Secretary

CHARLES W. PICQUET

TO HOLD COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT CAMERON

The primary grades of the Cameron Graded School will give their part of the Commencement program of the school this Friday evening, March 27, at 8:00 o'clock. The program will consist of a "Tom Thumb Wedding," a Mother Goose play and some musical numbers.

The general public is invited to attend the exercises, which are free. A very interesting evening is promised by these little folks.

The grammar grade part of the Commencement will be given April 10. On Wednesday evening, April 22, the annual Recitation-Declamation contest will be held. On Thursday evening, April 23, the seniors will give their class exercises. The baccalaureate address, followed by the presentation of diplomas, will be given Friday morning, April 24, and that evening the seniors will present their play, "Miss Adventure."

More will be announced about these latter programs at a later date.

The cotton acreage will be decreased and the tobacco acreage increased in Richmond County this season, finds county agent J. L. Dove.

MRS. CHILD TO WED MONDAY IN NEW YORK

Mrs. Maude Parker Child of Southern Pines, well known author and contributor to the Saturday Evening Post, left for New York where on Monday she will wed Edmund William Pavenstedt of New York. Among those from Southern Pines who plan to attend the wedding are Mrs. Nelson C. Hyde and Augustine Healy.

Mrs. Myers Hoyt of Weymouth Heights entertained at dinner at Lovejoy's last Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Child. Among the guests were Mrs. Child, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Page, Jr., Mrs. Ralph W. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Hyde, Mr. Pavenstedt and his brother, the latter coming over from Europe for the wedding; Struthers Burt and Alfred Yeomans.

Mrs. Child recently purchased the Herring House on Weymouth Heights, which is now being remodeled and will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Pavenstedt next winter.

ABERDEEN SENIORS TO PRESENT PLAY APRIL 2

"Miss Topsy Turvey," a comedy in three acts, will be presented on Thursday evening, April 2, at 8 o'clock in the Aberdeen High School auditorium. This play will be given by the Senior class of the Aberdeen High School, the proceeds going to the school. The admission is 20 cents for children and 35 cents for adults. The Senior play is an annual affair, and it is always well-worth attending.

The cast of characters is as follows: Topsy Turvy—Elizabeth Ferreer, May Golden—Jessie McCaskill, Mrs. Clarendon—Ruth Wallace, Miss Spriggs—Katherine Melvin, Lord Clarence—Harry DuMeer, Frank Golden—Alvin Folley, Deacon Jones—Marvin Rhyne, Ned—Margaret Miller.

REVIVAL SERVICES BEGIN SUNDAY NIGHT AT VASS

A series of revival services will be held in the Vass Methodist Church, beginning next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. W. C. Ball, will do the preaching, and J. M. Tyson will assist with the singing. The community young people's choir is expected to be a great help in the services. All are cordially invited to attend.

In Land of Cotton

4-H Club Members Have a New Song to the Tune of Dixie

In accordance with the resolution of the 4-H Club Council to advocate the use of cotton the club members are learning the following song, to the tune of Dixie:
Our dresses come from the land of cotton,
Good styles there are not forgotten,
Look at us, Beauteous,
Health in view, Comfort too!
Our hats and hose are made of cotton,
Dresses, too, and all we've got on—
Fine array, Aren't we gay!
Cottons pay, Buy today.

O, I love my clothes of cotton!
Hooray, Hooray,
These fabrics gay have come to stay,
They Launder well, they wear well.
Every day, Every way,
We'll wear good clothes of cotton.

Dame Fashion has decreed this season

Cotton clothes, and there's a reason—
Look away! What you say?
Aren't our styles good alway?
All costumes for night and daytime,
Church and business and our play-time,
Every way! Cottons pay!
Let us say "All Wear Cotton!"

F. H. Jeter, agricultural editor from State College, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the District Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs which will meet in Carthage on April 9th. There will be other interesting features but this address will be the high light of the program as Mr. Jeter is a speaker of power and enthusiasm and has a message that will interest everyone.

The 4-H Club Health Champions from the various communities are being selected by Dr. Symington and Miss Seagrove. After these have been selected they will compete in a county contest, and the winner will be given a trip to a district contest.

Nearly 7,000 pounds of lespedeza and grass seed has been ordered by Cumberland County farmers this season in starting new pasture: and for hay and soil improvement.

VASS

Personals

Mrs. R. G. Copeland spent the week-end in Burlington with her husband, who is proprietor of the Alhambra Hotel there.

Mrs. Florence Thomas of Winston-Salem and R. G. Thomas of Raleigh spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cameron.

Miss Nettie Gschwind, who has been teaching at Marietta, returned home on Saturday evening. Mrs. Gschwind, Charlie Gschwind and Master Tommy Gschwind met her in Hamlet.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pearce and children Janey and Roy, Jr., of Durham, were in Vass a short while Saturday speaking to old friends. Mr. Pearce was with the tobacco warehouse here several years ago.

The Rev. Mr. Porter of Bonlee filled his regular appointment at the Vass Baptist Church Sunday morning and he and Mrs. Porter were dinner guests in the home of Miss Florence Leslie.

Miss Rosa B. Giles spent a part of last week in Roseboro.

Horton Keith returned to State College on Monday after spending his spring vacation at home.

Miss Jennie Cameron is visiting friends in Rockingham.

Mrs. Redga Thomas and baby, Redin McLeod, of near Cameron spent a part of last week with her mother, Mrs. R. L. Oldham.

Miss Lizzie Jones, Mrs. Helen Jessup, Frances Jessup and Miss Mary Savage of Carthage attended services at the Baptist church Sunday morning and were dinner guests of Mrs. Colin McRae.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Snead of Sanford were recent guests of Mrs. R. G. Copeland at Hotel Charmella.

Miss Neolia McCrummen and Alberta Monroe and John McCrummen spent last week-end with relatives in the West End community.

Mrs. T. Frank Cameron and Miss Jennie Cameron were Fayetteville visitors Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth W. Lassater and children and Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Smithfield visited Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Byrd and little daughter, Mary Lou, of Albemarle are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keith.

Mrs. Arthur Newcomb and Mrs. Mary Downie spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

VAN WIE LEADS WOMEN, TURNESA MEN AT GOLF

This is golf week in the Sandhills, with two leading tournaments of the year in progress. At time of going to press, Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago held a commanding lead in the women's Mid-South tournament at the Southern Pines Country Club, scoring a remarkable 73 for her first 18 holes. At Pinehurst Joe Turnesa was out in front in the annual North & South Open, with 142, made up of rounds of 30 and 72 on Thursday. Both tournaments wind up this afternoon.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Gov. O. Max Gardner of North Carolina yesterday telegraphed an appeal to the governors of Virginia, South Carolina and Georgia to join him in an effort to effect a reduction in the acreage to be planted to bright tobacco this year.

Unless the reduction is effected "A common disaster threatens us" the Governor told the governors.

PUNCTUALITY
PROMPTNESS
PRECISION