

James L. Thomas Dies at Broadway

Father of Superintendent of Schools of Moore County Was Prominent Lee Citizen

James L. Thomas, one of the outstanding citizens of Lee county and father of H. Lee Thomas, superintendent of schools in Moore county passed away Tuesday evening at his home near Broadway, after a long illness with heart trouble. Mr. Thomas who was 69 years of age, was born and lived all of his life on the farm where his death occurred. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William O. Thomas and a man of the highest character and strictest integrity. Mr. Thomas was highly esteemed and was justly regarded as a leading citizen. He refused public office but his influence was always for the things that helped the county and State. He was a man of excellent judgment and his counsel was frequently sought by friends and neighbors.

Mr. Thomas was chosen president of the Bank of Broadway when it was organized more than 20 years ago and continued as president until two years ago when because of ill health he declined re-election. He is survived by his wife who before their marriage 46 years ago, was Miss Laura Thomas and nine sons and daughters, W. L. and Gattis Thomas of Broadway, H. Lee Thomas, Carthage, Carl and Hal Thomas, Broadway, Mrs. T. O. Marks, Sanford, Mrs. F. C. Bell, Washington, D. C., Mrs. Ira Weldon Vance county, Mrs. Parish, and several grand children. Surviving also are two brothers, Grissom Thomas, Lillington, and Douglas Thomas, Broadway and two sisters, Mrs. Henderson Thomas and Mrs. J. A. Buchanan both of Broadway.

The funeral services were held at the home at 2 o'clock yesterday with Rev. Ivey L. Poole pastor of Broadway Methodist Church, of which Mr. Thomas was a long and active and faithful member in charge.

PINEBLUFF

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Howard and son, Leonard of Friendship, N. Y., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. DeYoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Litchard have returned to their home in Wellsville, N. Y.

The Excelsior Club will give a Bunco party at Gregory's Saturday night. Admission, 35c.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shaw have gone to White Plains, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gelsler have returned to their home in Filmore, N. Y.

The Boy Scouts will give their last demonstration at the Assembly Hall, Friday night. Everyone is cordially invited. No admission.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Suttentfield, Mrs. J. Carter and Mrs. Barber spent Tuesday in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Laura Crandall and G. H. Giggie, who have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giggie, have returned to their homes, Mrs. Crandall to Bolivar, N. Y., and Mr. Giggie to Friendship, N. Y.

Mrs. H. A. Keith and Mrs. W. B. Carter spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. H. Suttentfield.

Mrs. Frank Sutton and children spent Easter with Mrs. Howie.

Lacy Adcox, student at Davidson college, is at home for the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Fountain is visiting her sister, Mrs. Zoe Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyson, who have been occupying the Ives cottage, have moved to Virginia.

J. R. Mayes has gone to Richmond on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bell of Fayetteville were the Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adcox.

Mrs. J. R. Mayes entertained her Sunday school class with an Easter egg hunt, Monday afternoon.

Bill Miller of Winston-Salem was the guest of Henry Butner Friday. They left Saturday for Winston-Salem to attend Moravian Easter services.

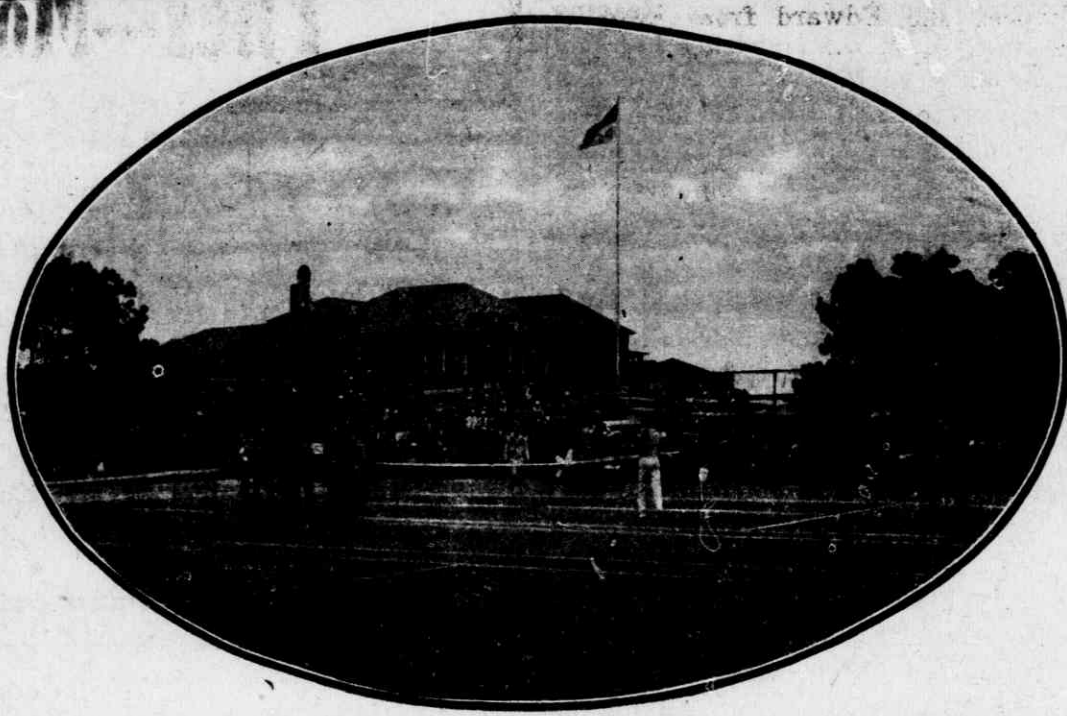

Miss Isabel McMullin has returned to school at Smith's College.

Lawrence Smith Writes Book on Trapshooting

Lawrence B. Smith of Millbrook, N. Y., who spent some time in Pinehurst this winter participating in trap shooting events at the Pinehurst Gun Club, is the author of a book, "Better Trapshooting," just published by E. P. Dutton & Co. Mr. Smith is New York State champion and looked upon as one of the country's leading authorities on modern trapshooting and skeet. He is well known in the Sandhills.

During a late winter storm Dr. C. B. Batson of McLean, Tex., travelled on horseback to visit a patient, as in pioneer days.

Scene of Tennis Battles Next Week

Cut shows courts of the Pinehurst Country Club where Annual North & South tournament will be held all next week.

Pinehurst Paragraphs

One of the outstanding social events of the spring was the bridge party given jointly on Tuesday afternoon at the Club Skyline by Mrs. E. B. Keith and Mrs. W. R. Viall. Eight tables were arranged for auction, and after scores were added beautiful prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. N. P. Ray, Mrs. Eric Nelson, Mrs. True P. Cheney, Mrs. I. C. Sledge, Mrs. W. H. Coffey, Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Mrs. F. L. Dupont, with low score prize to Mrs. L. L. Yost.

Guests included Mrs. F. W. Van Camp, Mrs. Chas. Gray, Mrs. Thomas Black, Mrs. Max Gray, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Southern Pines, Mrs. Carey Durham, Jackson Springs, Mrs. W. H. Coffey and Mrs. Nick Gibbon, Lakeview, Mrs. Alec Innes, Mrs. W. L. Dunlop, Mrs. Chas. Picquet, Mrs. I. C. Sledge, Mrs. R. K. Footman, Mrs. Herman Campbell, Mrs. Tom Cole, Mrs. Eric Nelson, Mrs. Gordon Cameron, Mrs. A. P. Thompson, Mrs. T. A. Cheatham, Mrs. Hugh Carter, Mrs. Alex Stewart, Mrs. S. R. Jellison, Mrs. O. H. Stutts, Mrs. W. P. Hardin, Mrs. J. A. Mills, Mrs. True Cheney, Mrs. N. P. Ray, Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Mrs. Bert Nicoll, Mrs. L. L. Yost, Mrs. F. L. Dupont. Guests for tea were Mrs. Murdoch McLeod and Mrs. James Quale.

The rainy Easter weather completely rained out the egg hunts planned for the children of the village, but some believe "it's better late than never." Accordingly, Mrs. F. L. Dupont, grade mother for the second grade of the public school, with Miss Lula Loving, teacher, gave their grade an egg hunt Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Dupont. The primary and beginners departments of the Community Church school are enjoying theirs this (Friday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wicker with Miss Fannie B. Gray and Mrs. E. B. Keith assisting.

The April meeting of the Womans Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening in the Ladies Parlor of the Community Church Mrs. James Quale, president, presided over the business meeting at which time definite plans for entertaining the Fayetteville Presbyterial were announced. After the business meeting Mrs. True P. Cheney, program leader, presented an inspiring program on the topic: Beacon Lights—Over Schools and Colleges. Mrs. Herman Campbell was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. A. McN. Blue of Carthage entered the Moore County Hospital on Tuesday where she will undergo an operation within a few days.

The Rev. T. A. Cheatham is spending several days in Greensboro this week.

D. L. Scotten visited his parents in Ramsour over the week-end.

Mrs. O. H. Blackburn left Monday for a stay of several weeks in Atlanta, Ga., where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James McGouldrich.

The Misses Laivora Sally and Elizabeth McDonald returned to N. C. C. W. this week after spending their spring holidays at home.

Mrs. W. B. Brooks of Bostic, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dalton Wicker.

Miss Ophelia Snow of Reidsville was a week-end guest of Mrs. Bertha Freeman at the Teacherage.

Miss Dorothy Jump and Miss Clara Fascue spent the Easter holidays with Miss Louise Lanier in Petersburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. True P. Cheney have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hall and little daughter, Joane of Bar Harbor, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wicker motored to Forest City on Saturday where they were week-end guests of Mrs. Wicker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Carpenter.

Mrs. Fred Tuck left on Thursday for the north.

Miss Thelma Bliss and Miss Peggy Brawley returned to Salem College on Thursday, having spent the spring holidays with homefolks here.

Mrs. Minnie Oldham, who has been undergoing treatment in the Moore County hospital, expects to be able to return to her home this week.

Mrs. Robert Suggs and Miss Anne Rice spent Easter with relatives in Charlotte.

Miss Minnie Turnbull and Miss Mae Harner spent the week-end in Winston-Salem, going up for the Moravian Easter service.

Miss Kate Matthews and Miss Lula Loving visited the Magnolia gardens in Charleston during the week-end. They were thrilled, as many are, by the beauty of these gardens.

After a short vacation at home Roderick Innes resumed his studies at Oak Ridge Institute on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. Thomson of New York and Pinehurst have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Armstrong of Halifax, N. S., and Miss William Garty and L. M. Hinds of Concord, Mass., who are motoring through to their homes after having spent the winter at Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. George Porges and Mrs. Edward Porges of Maplewood, N. J., and Mrs. Marion Phillips of East Orange, N. J., were tea guests of Mrs. Charles W. Picquet of Toledo, O., at the Pinehurst Country Club Wednesday afternoon.

Quail fly at the rate of about 40 miles an hour, a game warden has found by using a speedometer.

Statistics indicate that 33.4 persons left rural for urban areas in North Carolina between 1920 and 1930.

THE SOUTHERN PINES COUNTRY CLUB

Invites visiting golfers to play the two most interesting courses in the Sandhills.

Thirty-six holes of sporty ups and downs natural hazards, pleasant scenic surroundings, The Southern Pines Country Club offers a world of sunshine, exercise and health

EMMETT FRENCH, Professional

Club House Dining Rooms in charge of Mrs. Grover

Delicious home cooked lunches

Ask your Real Estate Agency to take you through the Country Club property consisting of 500 acres with the most charming home sites in the Sandhills. Located either on fairways or winding roads

A Mill per Person---

A mill is one-tenth of a cent.

Your sales story in a quarter page advertisement in The Pilot is read by some 10,000 persons.

It reaches them for approximately one-tenth of a cent per each.

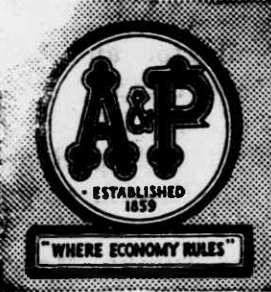

There is no more direct—no more less expensive way—of carrying your message to the buying public of this section.

The Pilot Covers the Sandhills Like the Sand.

THE PILOT

First in News :: First in Advertising

First in Paid Circulation

		Grandmother's
		BREAD	PAN ROLLS
FULL POUND		5c	doz. 8c
WRAPPED LOAF		5c
PEANUT BUTTER		Fancy	lb. 12 1/2c
SPAGHETTI		Encore Brand In Cans	3 cans 20c
PINTO BEANS		6 lbs. 25c
MACARONI OR SPAGHETTI		pkg. 5c
STRING BEANS		3 No. 2 Cans	25c
CHEESE		Fine Flavor Aged	lb. 19c
SUGAR		Finest Granulated	10 lbs. 47c
QUAKER MAID BEANS		4 cans 25c
RAJAH BRAND SALAD DRESSING		8-oz. Jar 15c	Pint Jar 19c
CLICQUOT CLUB GINGER ALE		bottle 14c
SANDWICH SPREAD		Rajah Brand	9-oz. Jar 15c
N. B. C. Assortment DeLuxe			lb. 29c
Wesson Oil		Pint Can 23c
Waldorf Tissue		roll 5c
2-in-1 Polish		can 10c
NUTLEY			lb. 14c
THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.			