Cameron and Community

The Woman's Club met in the club-room last Thursday afternoon, the Art Department being hostess. After repeating the collect and short prayer for the uplift of the community, a brief business session was held. This was followed by a splendid address from the district president, Mrs. T. B. Upchurch of Raeford. Mrs. Upchurch stressed contributions to the Sally Southall Cotton Loan Fund and the General Federation Foundation Fund. Mrs. Upchurch's daughter, Mrs. Cameron, of Raeford, welfare officer of Hoke county, gave an informing talk on welfare work, especially hot lunches for the schools. The club presented Mrs. Upchurch with a dainty hand embroidered guest towel.

The following program was ably presented by the Cameron School, in the Auditorium last Friday evening, and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience.

Indian Drill—fourth grade; Pageant—"The Children of Old Glory"—seventh grade; Song—"We've Had the Flu", fourth grade; Minuet, fourth grade; Rose and Burlesque Drill, fifth grade; Story, James Maples; Minstrel, sixth grade.

This varied program showed diligent work on the part of the students, and infinite patience on the part of the teachers.

Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. N. McFadyen, with Miss Mamie Arnold presiding. There was a full attendance, and a good program prepared by Mrs. J. M. Guthrie, was given. Bible study, from first and second chapters of James, was conducted by Mrs. J. M. Guthrie. The chairman urged members to attend Presbyterian at Pinehurst in May.

Miss Katie Harrington was gracious hostess at a lovely birthday party last Saturday afternoon, complimenting Isabel, Murdoch and L. B., Jr., the three attractive children of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKeithen. Owing to the inclement weather, indoor games were played. The dining room was prettily decorated with spring flowers. A huge white birthday cake, bearing 21 candles, representing the combined ages of the three little McKeithens, centered the table. Easter baskets with fluffy chicks and candy eggs were the dainty favors. Those enjoying this happy occasion were the honorees, and little Misses Evelyn Ann Snow and Margaret McDonald. Quarterly Conference was held in the M. E. Church here last Sunday afternoon, Presiding Elder Cade of Fayetteville being present. Those from Carthage attending this conference were Ed Muse, Will Stuart, C. Stutts, Johnny Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and Misses May and Bess Stuart. There were representatives also from Center Church. Elder Cade filled the pulpit at the evening service.

The Rev. M. D. McNeill filled his regular appointment last Sunday morning. A report of the fiscal year's work was read by the pastor and was very encouraging, showing the church sermon, based on the Resurrection, active in all lines of work. An Easter strengthened the faith and gave needed consolation to many of his hearers who have lost "loved ones" during the past year.

Little Thomas Vester Tilley, aged 13 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pose Tilley of Route 1, died of pneumonia last week. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. M. D. McNeill at Rocky Ford church.

Mrs. Mollie Graham and daughter, Misses Eva and Kate Graham of Route 1, were in town Monday to see Mrs. Janie Muse, who has been suffering with rheumatism for some days.

Mrs. Addie Graham of Sanford, Route 2, is visiting Mrs. Henry Maples of Route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Turnley, J. R. Loving, Franklin Loving and Miss Lucille Loving were supper guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dutton of Niagara.

Miss Sara Gay Godfrey of Jonesboro was week-end guest of Miss Margaret McLean.

Miss Inez Wannamaker and brother, Jefferson, spent the week-end in Candor.

Mr. and Mrs. Flint Loving were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Loving on Route 2 Sunday.

Miss Mary Emma Thomas and Miss Elizabeth Thomas of Greenwood School were at home for the week-end.

Mrs. J. A. Phillips, Jack Phillips, Robert Wooten and Misses Mary Ferguson and Flora Phillips were in Sanford Sunday.

Miss Rachael Gilchrist of Glendon was Sunday guest of Mrs. M. D. McIver.

Tom Smith returned Sunday to his work in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron of Montrose.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally and Mrs. J. D. McLean were shopping in Sanford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neill McLean of Vass were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Guthrie were in Sanford Sunday to see Mrs. J. P. Monroe, who has been quite ill.

Dr. John D. Muse and N. Pierce of Henderson, and R. C. Muse of Hamlet were guests of Mrs. Loula Muse Monday and Tuesday.

Cameron is to be congratulated on the commencement speaker secured by Supt. Temple, Senator Murdoch M. Johnson of Aberdeen, who will make the literary address on Friday morning, April 24.

"Miss Adventure" is anxious to meet you all—every man, woman and child in our community—next Friday evening in the school auditorium. Do not disappoint her, but come!

THE WEEK IN VASS

Vass-Lakeview Announces Commencement Program

The Vass-Lakeview school, which has enjoyed a most successful year, has announced its commencement program, as follows:

Thursday evening, April 23, at 8:00 o'clock, recital by piano and public school music pupils of Miss Ruth McFarland; Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock, annual recitation and declamation contests; Sunday morning, April 26, at 11:00 o'clock, the baccalaureate sermon in the school auditorium; Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock, Class Day exercises; Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, graduating exercises with Judge George H. Humber of Carthage delivering the address to the graduates; Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, the high school play, "Oh, Kay!"

Home Demonstration Club Meets

The Vass home demonstration club held an interesting meeting in the woman's club room on Wednesday afternoon with the vice-president, Mrs. H. A. Borst, presiding in the absence of the president. Routine business was attended to, and the club voted to make a pledge to the Jane S. McKimmon student loan fund. Mrs. Ryals gave a most interesting talk on salads and desserts, and distributed recipe books. Mrs. C. L. Tyson, social chairman, then presented a fruit contest in keeping with the program, and fruit prizes were awarded the winners, Mrs. S. R. Smith, first and Mrs. W. L. Ryals, second.

Vass-Lakeview Seniors Visit Capital

The Vass-Lakeview seniors spent a day of last week visiting places of interest in Raleigh, and they came back with a better knowledge of their capital and the workings of the government. They were so fortunate as to listen in on a joint session of the legislature, and visited the museum, hall of history, State Prison, State Asylum, News and Observer, and other points of which they had read much and seen little.

Seniors in the party were Magdalen Bass, Katie Cameron, Rachel Garner, Mabel Lawrence, Myrtle McMillan, Tom Brewer, Cornel Cameron, Douglas Gardner, Bill Goodman, Vick Keith, Joseph Matthews, Herman Parker, Clary Thompson and David Wilson, Jr. Miss Albera Monroe of the high school faculty and W. B. Graham and D. A. McLaughlin accompanied them.

Epworth League Elects Officers

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church, at the close of an interesting program on "The Pearl of Great Price" given on Sunday evening, elected officers for the coming year. They are Miss Louise Leslie, president; Joseph Matthews, vice-president; Miss Eva Callahan, secretary, and Miss Marjorie Leslie, treasurer.

Miss Brewer Is Hostess to Girls' Circle

Miss Faye Brewer was hostess to the Girls' Circle of the Presbyterian church at its April meeting, and a very helpful program was given under the direction of Mrs. D. A. Smith. Plans for the year were discussed.

Methodist Auxiliary Meets

The regular meeting of the Methodist Auxiliary was held on Sunday afternoon with the president, Mrs. T. F. Cameron, presiding. A program on spiritual cultivation was given, consisting of readings by Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. John Gaddy and Mrs. C. L. Tyson.

Personals

Miss Agnes Cameron returned on Sunday to Washington, D. C., after a visit of several days with her father, D. A. Cameron, and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Laubscher and children visited relatives in Glendon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Muse and family of Southern Pines were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gschwind.

Miss Lois Buchanan attended the funeral of her uncle, James L. Thomas who passed away last week at his home in Broadway.

Ernest Rivenbark, Harold Gobble and James Stogner of Hamlet were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Griffin. Mr. Griffin's many friends will be glad to know that his health is much improved. He is now able to walk around outside the house some and enjoy the spring sunshine.
