Aberdeen Social Events

Mrs. Bowman Hostess

Mrs. Wimberly Bowman was a delightful hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Book Club last Thursday afternoon, when she entertained at the new Community House in Aberdeen, which was attractively decorated with a profusion of white syringas and iris.

During the business hour it was voted that the club ask Mrs. T. B. Upchurch of Raeford, the district president of Women's Federated Clubs, to speak to the women of Aberdeen on club work at some future date convenient to Mrs. Upchurch.

The subject for the afternoon's program was "Landscape Painters," and the following interesting papers were read: "The Works of Winslow Homer," by Mr. R. N. Page; "The Works of Dwight W. Tryon," by Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson, and "Other Landscape Painters," by Mrs. John W. Graham. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Jones Macon on May 21st.

The specially invited guests for this occasion were Mrs. J. F. Deaton, and her sister and guest, Mrs. E. F. Warner of Raleigh, Mrs. H. A. Keith, Mrs. A. L. Burney, Mrs. J. V. Ferree, Mrs. Purvis Ferree, and Misses Annie Grady, Mildred Osborne, Maud Maness, Jeannette Ferree and Polly Butner.

Seniors "Kids" Again

Honoring the Senior Class of the Aberdeen High School, of whose number her son, Harry DuMeer, is a member, Mrs. B. G. Peterson delightfully entertained at a "Kid Party" on last Thursday night at the Community House. The class colors of lavender and white were charmingly carried out in the flowers and refreshments. The guests all came attired as small children in rompers and small boy suits, and some very unique costumes were shown. Miss Georgia Wicker, dressed in rompers was voted the winner of the first prize as wearing the costume carrying out the "Kid" idea best. A series of childish games and contests were enjoyed, and ice cream cones, with candy and punch, completed a happy evening.

Besides the Senior class as a whole, the high school faculty, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Keith were guests enjoying this party. Music was furnished by Dickie Johnson and Donald Maurer.

Celebrates 9th Birthday

Little Miss Marguerite Osborne charmingly entertained a number of her small friends on last Friday afternoon at her attractive home on the occasion of her ninth birthday. A donkey contest was very amusing at the close of which the prize was awarded to Miss Carol Bowman. Guests were Miss Eva Johnson, Mary Ella Bethune, Marshall Page, Jesse Windham, Charlotte Miller, Carol Bowman, Mae Rhyne, Louise Martin, Marcella Folley and Gene Folley, Clayton Brasington.

Mrs. Gwyn Entertains

Mrs. Robert Gwyn was hostess to the Neighborhood Bridge Club when she entertained the members at her attractive home on Rush street last Saturday. Mrs. B. G. Peterson was the winner of high score prize, Mrs. Forrest Lockey of the second prize, and Mrs. George Martin guest prize. The special guests invited in were Mrs. George Martin, Miss Nancy Beddingfield and Miss Jeannette Leach.

Since December 1st, 1930, when the Parent-Teachers Association voted to serve hot lunches during the noon hour at the Grammar School, owing to the great need as shown in the school by the attendance of undernourished and underweight children, 3,658 free lunches have been served and almost as many paid lunches in the Aberdeen School, and 376 free lunches served in the Pinebluff School, with about the same number of paid lunches. Donations made by the stores of Aberdeen, the different clubs, individuals and the Red Cross made possible this good work, so badly needed for the underprivileged children of this school district.

The Parent-Teachers Association wishes to thank most heartily all those who helped make this work a success by their untiring efforts in giving soup mixture, and giving of their time so generously. Several women did not ask for a substitute, nor did they miss a single week in giving their time and aid in other ways. The women of this district are urged, when putting up their soup mixture this summer, to remember the undernourished school children, and put up a few quarts for this purpose next winter, when it is earnestly hoped this work can be continued.
