Raleigh Golfer Low In Senior Tourney

Mid-South Senior Golf Association Event Attracts Crowd to Pinehurst

Bryson Biggs, of Raleigh showed the way to the veterans of the Mid-Southern Seniors' Golf association in their June meet at the Pinehurst Country Club Wednesday, the Raleigh entrant poking a youthful and invincible ball over the Pinehurst number 1 course to carry off the low gross score for the field with a card of 77.

But one stroke behind Biggs in the race for the low mark was T. R. Brem, of Charlotte, who breezed around the circuit in 78. Biggs was playing in the so-called youngster's class of the senior meet, being among the players 45 to 49 years of age. Brem, who in addition to being runner-up to the low mark of the meet, won the low gross in his class, played in the division for participants 50 to 54 years of age.

With a large field in attendance and with the states of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina all well represented in the meet, which was one of the preliminary battles to the annual championship this fall at the Sedgefield Country Club, Greensboro, there were a number of trophies carried home by the various veterans.

The low net for the entire tournament went to Dr. M. W. Marr, Pinehurst, playing in the 45 to 50 years class with a net card of 66. The low gross of this division was won by Sam Diggle, Charlotte, with an 83, and the low net of the division went to Dr. A. T. Smith, Sedgefield, with a net 74.

In the class for players 50 to 54 years, with Brem, of Charlotte, claiming low gross, J. S. Braswell, Rockingham, took the low net, with a net 73.

In the class for players 55 to 59 years, John Ingles, Richmond, Va., won the gross honor with a 90, and H. G. Waring, Pinehurst, took low net with a 73.

In the "Old Timer's" class, over 60 years of age, Col. C. M. Bunker, Sedgefield, won low gross with a card of 90, and Lot H. Brown, Winston-Salem, took low net with a 72. The trophy for the high score of the entire field went to L. W. Clark, Spray, with a gross card of 106.

Pastor Elmer Willis Serl of the Church of Wide Fellowship, accompanied by Mrs. Serl, departed for the north Wednesday evening. Mr. Serl will visit his farm in Delevan, Wis., while Mrs. Serl will resume her duties in a girls' camp on Cape Cod.

OAKLAND—PONTIAC DEALER

It is a pleasure to announce our appointment as Oakland-Pontiac Dealer in this community, not only because it gives us the opportunity to sell and service these two fine cars but because it reflects Oakland's confidence in our organization.

"MAKING NEW FRIENDS AND KEEPING THE OLD"

We look upon Oakland-Pontiac's principle, "Making New Friends and Keeping the Old" as one of the most constructive steps in the motor car business. The guiding spirit of Oakland-Pontiac—to make every car so well that it will inevitably make a friend—will guide us in selling and servicing these two fine cars.

TWO FINE CARS—Delivered Prices
