THE WEEK IN VASS

At the Churches

The Rev. W. C. Ball will fill his regular appointments at the Vass Methodist Church on next Sunday at eleven o'clock in the morning and eight o'clock in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The Rev. A. H. Porter of Bonlee preached an interesting sermon on flowers at the Vass Baptist church on last Sunday morning. He was accompanied by Mrs. Porter and they were dinner guests of Mrs. George W. Brooks.

"Music" was the topic chosen by the Rev. Charles A. Lawrence for his service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening for his service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, and a number of the old favorite hymns were sung. Music by the community young people's choir was an attractive feature of the service.

Missionary Society

The June business and social meeting of the Vass Methodist Auxiliary was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Graham with almost perfect attendance, only one member being absent. The business session was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. H. A. Borst. Mrs. C. L. Tyson called the roll and Bible verses were given in response. A financial report was made and it was decided to hold a variety sale on the following Saturday. An interesting study of the first chapter of John was led by Mrs. G. W. Griffin.

Several delightful contests were presented during the social hour and the winners were Mrs. C. L. Tyson, Mrs. W. J. Cameron, Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. S. R. Smith. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter, Miss Catharine Graham, and her nieces, Misses Louise and Marjorie Leslie.

Mrs. W. H. Keith invited the auxiliary to her home for the July meeting.
