THE WEEK IN VASS

Young People Hold Union Meeting

An inspiring service was held at the Vass Presbyterian church at the evening when a large number of the Christian Endeavor hour on Sunday young people of Vass and a group of Endeavorers from Aberdeen held a union meeting.

The devotionals were conducted by Alton Lawrence of the Vass society, after which the local young people's choir, which is composed of boys and I'm the man that got shot." The meeting was then turned over to the Aberdeen group, and an interesting program which included reports from the young people's conference held at Flora McDonald College was given, the reports being interspersed with musical selections. The service closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The Aberdeen young people were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sutfenfield and Mrs. Worsham.

Woman's Club Meets

The July meeting of the Vass Woman's Club was held on Wednesday evening of last week on Mrs. S. R. Smith's lawn, with Mrs. Smith and Miss Nettie Gschwind as joint hostesses. All business was laid aside for the evening, the affair being an informal social meeting.

Upon their arrival, the members were given paper and pencils and asked to write some free advice suitable for club women. These papers were collected and again distributed, and were read in response to roll call, some of them causing much merriment. Ringing the Liberty Bell was next in order, and three of the ladies, Mrs. A. K. Thompson, Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. Bertie Matthews, proved equally skillful in bell ringing, so they had to work off the tie, Mrs. Matthews finally being declared the winner.

The club was then divided into three groups, the "Reds," the "Whites" and the "Blues," and as groups competed in several contests. Finally, attention was called to three arrows of the national colors near the doorway, and the groups were told to follow the arrows of their respective colors. These led in various directions, eventually pointing the way to three "chests" which had been placed, one for each group. These were found to contain refreshments and drinking cups, so a member of each group was hastily dispatched to look for "the fountain of youth" and when this was found, the others were notified and promptly went to help themselves from the fountain.

Regular club work will be resumed in August, when the meeting will be held in the club room.
