PINEHURST INCORPORATED MANAGEMENT

THE WEEK IN VASS

Return From White Lake
 These young people, after a week's stay at White Lake, returned on Saturday: Misses Anna and Emily Laubscher, Bessie and Helen Klingschmidt, Elizabeth McCraney, Elizabeth McNeill, Elizabeth Keith, Mary Frank McMillan, Mabel Lawrence, Pauline Thompson and Eva Doss; Ray Griffin, Franklin Matthews, Bernice Graham, A. G. Edwards, Jr., Harry Laubscher, Vick Keith, and Ernest McNeill. Edwin Causey, Alton Matthews, George Dyer and Herbert Eastwood of Lakeview were members of the party, also. The boys spent the week at the Young Tar Heel Farmers' camp house and were under the care of R. L. Mayfield, agriculture teacher in the local school. The girls were chaperoned by Miss Ruth McNeill.

Birth Announcement
 This is to announce the arrival on Wednesday, July 8, of William Robert McGill, who is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McGill and Duncan, Jr. William Robert has a very dignified sounding name, but for all that he is going to be a "regular fellow," and he prefers that his intimate pals call him "Billy Bob." Junior is spending a good part of his time with "Papa" McCraney, evidently preferring his companionship to that of a kid brother. If "Billy Bob" proves to be as fine as Junior, they'll make an attractive pair.
