

McKeithen Honored at Winston-Salem

Former Aberdeenian Elected President of Junior Chamber of Commerce

Harold McKeithen, formerly of Aberdeen and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch McKeithen, was recently elected president of the Winston-Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce. Young Mr. McKeithen has been practicing law in Winston-Salem for the past two years. An editorial in the Twin City Sentinel says:

"The Winston-Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce has elected an able roster of officers for the ensuing year and promises under this leadership to continue the splendid work it has been doing since its organization. Harold McKeithen is the president, and associated with him are a number of other enthusiastic and experienced officers. The new chief executive has had several offices in the local organization and is a member of the by-laws committee of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce."

ASKS MARKER SHOWING ROUTE TO PAGE GRAVE

Mrs. John H. Anderson of Raleigh, chairman of the North Carolina division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, appeals to The Pilot for a suitable marker on Route 50 in Aberdeen pointing the route to the grave of Walter Hines Page. In a letter to the paper she says:

"Won't you endeavor to get a wooden marker placed, before your celebration (Bethesda Home Coming) on the Jefferson Davis Highway, No. 50, to show that the side road leads to old Bethesda Church where Walter H. Page lies buried?"

REVIVAL SERVICES AT YATES-THAGARD CHURCH

A series of evangelistic meetings will begin at Yates-Thagard Church next Sunday night, October 18, at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. O. A. Kellar, of Jonesboro will do the preaching and an experienced song leader is expected to be present to conduct the singing. The public is cordially invited.

Aberdeen Social Events

Carpenter-Graham

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carpenter announce their marriage on Wednesday, October 7th at Raeford. Mrs. Carpenter is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Graham of Raeford, while Mr. Carpenter is associated with the Red Star Service Station in Aberdeen. After a trip to the western part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will be at home to their friends in Lakeside Heights, Aberdeen.

Book Club Meeting

Mrs. H. W. Doub was a delightful hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Book Club at her attractive home on Montford street last Thursday afternoon.

An interesting program on the life and works of Beethoven was carried out. Mrs. Charlie E. Pleasants, Jr., had a paper on the "Early Life of Beethoven," Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson a paper on "The Latter Life of Beethoven," while Mrs. C. V. Miller read "His Music—An Appreciation."

The Music committee had also arranged a charming musical program, and Mrs. D. I. McKeithen gave a delightful rendering of his "Moonlight Sonata," as a piano solo, which was followed by a duet, "Minuet in G," by Mrs. E. T. McKeithen and Mrs. E. L. Pleasants.

Plans were discussed for a large representation from this club to the District meeting in Hamlet on October 15th. The next meeting will be held at the Community house in Aberdeen, with Mrs. W. T. Huntley presiding as hostess, and the subject of study, "American Etchers."

D. A. R. Meeting

The Alfred Moore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its October meeting, last Tuesday afternoon, October 6th, at the home of Mrs. Jesse Page in Eagle Springs, with Mrs. Page and Mrs. W. E. Pell presiding as joint hostesses. A goodly number of members from Aberdeen, Southern Pines, Sanford and Carthage were present.

Following out the program of the chapter for the year, which is a study of "Old Towns in North Carolina," unusually interesting papers were read by Mrs. P. P. McCain of Sanatorium and Mrs. A. G. Carter of Sanford on "Halifax" and "New Bern."

Three new members were voted into the chapter, their names to be announced later, showing the chapter to be growing in every respect. The visiting Daughters at this meeting were Mrs. Graves from the Miami, Florida chapter, and Mrs. Barrow from the Williamsburg, Virginia chapter.

Home and Garden Club

Mrs. C. E. Pleasants, Jr., was a charming hostess to the Home and Garden Club on last Saturday afternoon at her home on Main street. The members brought in the quilt squares they had been making, and plans were made for the putting together of the two quilts and their sale at the Woman's Exchange in Pinehurst. Mrs. Charles B. Thomas was awarded the silver vase for the prettiest flowers brought in, which were beautiful and vari-colored dahlias. Mrs. Stewart Weaver received 2nd prize for the lovely roses she brought. An enjoyable social hour followed the meeting.

Birthday Party

Little Miss Anna Clarke Capps was a delightful hostess to a number of her small friends on last Tuesday afternoon when she celebrated her fifth birthday. Many lovely gifts were brought by her guests. Refreshments were served at the close of an hour of games.

Miss Thompson Hostess

Miss Annie Belle Thompson entertained her Bridge Club of Young Ladies at her home on Main street last Thursday evening with two tables. At the conclusion of an enjoyable game Miss Edna Maurer was given first prize for high score. Misses Ruth Wooten and Bessie Gunter were the special guests at this meeting.

Personals

Mrs. Glennie Muse and James Pleasants of Carthage were guests of Mrs. Elvyn Capps and Miss Lillian Pleasants last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod and family attended the birthday celebration of Mr. McLeod's father, John K. McLeod at Eureka last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norwood are moving this week from Lakeside Heights to the Lundy bungalow on Poplar street.

Mrs. Emma Stephens of Jonesboro visited friends in town on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis spent last week-end with friends at Oxford.

Mrs. Dwight Troutman, Mrs. E. R.

Creel and Misses Naomi Melvin and Edythe Creel were shopping visitors in Fayetteville last Wednesday.

LAKEVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas L. Gibbon left Monday for a week's trip to Richmond and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Rassic H. Cox and family of Troy spent Sunday with their brother, A. C. Cox.

Misses Margaret McQueen and Rebecca Bacon made a trip to High Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ballard spent the week-end with relatives near Lillington. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Ballard's brother, Silas Salmon, who will spend some time in Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Pugh of New York city are expected Saturday for a short stay in the village.

Mrs. John W. Cameron and children of Cameron were guests Saturday of Mrs. Thomas J. Coore and family.

Miss Elizabeth Fry of Red Springs spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Eastwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNeill made a business trip to Mocksville Tuesday.

Alton Matthews and Leon Westcott spent Sunday with friends in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and family of Fuquay Springs spent the week-end with Mrs. Dunc Morrison.

Mrs. Leighton Gilmore and daughter of Broadway are spending some time with relatives in town.

Mrs. Worth Miller and Mrs. Henry Graves spent Monday with Mrs. George Graves of Carthage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson left Tuesday for their home in Fayetteville after an extended visit with Mrs. Gibson's people here.

J. B. Eastwood, who has been suffering from a very painful carbuncle for some time, was carried to the Lee County Hospital at Sanford Tuesday for treatment.

Melvin Gardner is champion truck grower of the Lakeview section. He has a beautiful crop of late tomatoes, egg plant, turnip greens, etc., which he is busy marketing.

The Woman's Auxiliary held its regular meeting Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. W. C. Smith will be hostess to the two circles of the auxiliary at a business and social meeting at her home Monday afternoon, October 19th, at three o'clock.

Mrs. Leighton McKeithen of Cameron was a visitor in town on Wednesday.

The Rev. Charles A. Lawrence will fill his regular appointment at the Lakeview church Sunday night, October 18th, at 7:30.

RICHARDSON HANDLES NEW AUTO LIGHTING DEVICE

S. B. Richardson, Inc., of Southern Pines has taken the agency for ten North Carolina counties for a new and improved lighting device for automobiles called "Perfect-O-Lite." A new style bulb which fits on any car eliminates the usual glare of headlights at night, throwing a concentrated beam on the road without blinding motorists. Mr. Richardson will maintain a distributing center for the bulbs at his Patch Building office, establishing retail connections with garages and filling stations in the counties in his district.

COMMITTEE SEEKS $500 TO FINANCE BOY SCOUTS

A committee comprising George C. Moore, P. Frank Buchan and R. L. Chandler is soliciting funds for the reorganization of the Boy Scout Troop in Southern Pines. It is hoped to raise a sum of $500 to aid in financing the troop for the next twelve months. With the general appreciation on the part of the public of the value of boy scout troops to a community the committee is not expected to meet with any difficulty in raising the desired amount.

Oysters

Standard—60c Qt.
Select—70c Qt.

FISH
Fresh from the Coast

VEGETABLES
FRUITS
MEATS

Sanitary Cash Market

E. B. Maynard, Prop.
SOUTH ST. ABERDEEN

Work Clothes

A complete line of Overalls for men and boys. Work and riding pants reasonably priced.

Star Brand and Hamilton Brown Shoes for men and boys. Leather and composition soles$1.50 to $4.50
Boots, high top, solid leather$4.00 to $7.50

Bradley Sweaters for work or dress.

O. B. FLINCHUM AND SON
ABERDEEN CARTHAGE

It Wouldn't Be Fall Without a NEW DRESS

It's always fun to change from summer to fall clothes, but it's doubly exciting this year with so many alluring new fashions. We have the smartest of them all!

Silk Dresses, flat and canton crepe, only$5.95
Sweater Suits, 2 and 3 piece piece$6.00 and $9.50
Sweaters, light and heavy weight, all colors$3.00, $5.50
Kid gloves, new shades and fine quality$3.50 to $4.50
Gordon Hose, all fall shades $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00

GROCERIES :: MARKET
MEN'S FURNISHINGS

PINEHURST DEPARTMENT STORE
PINEHURST

Directors

I. C. Sledge Walker Taylor, Jr.
O. H. Stutts H. D. Vail
R. S. Tufts Walker Taylor
A. P. Thompson J. F. Taylor

LOSS OF PROFITS AND EXPENSE

Incidents to having your place of business damaged or destroyed by fire and during the period of reconstruction may be avoided by providing USE AND OCCUPANCY INSURANCE. Frequently such losses have been sufficient to embarrass reconstruction and restocking. There is no need your taking this risk when for a slight increase in your insurance costs the same Company carrying the Fire Insurance will assume that risk also.

Rates quoted on request.

MID-SOUTH INSURANCE AGENCY

L. L. Gardner, Manager
Pinehurst, N. C.

BOXING EXHIBITION

Three Exciting Bouts with the Pick of Fort Bragg Boxers

| | | |
|---------------------------------|------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Cliff Wellons Fort Bragg | 10 ROUNDS vs. | Mickey Cummings Air Corps |
| Don King 5th Field Artillery | 6 ROUNDS vs. | Speed Webb 16th Field Artillery |
| Al. Shaw 5th Field Artillery | 4 ROUNDS vs. | Soldier Kimery 5th Field Artillery |

This Exhibition will be preceded by Guard Mount by a detachment of the U. S. Army from Fort Bragg and the U. S. Army Band

Pinehurst Race Track Thursday, October 22

4:00 P. M.

Admission to the Grounds $1.00
Ringside Box Seats (Reserved) $1.50. Bleacher Seats $1.00

Reserved Seats on sale at Broad Street Pharmacy, Southern Pines, Charles Drug Company, Aberdeen, Shields Drug Company, Carthage and Carolina Pharmacy, Pinehurst.

Net Proceeds to be Given to the Kiwanis Club Unemployment Relief Fund