

Crazy Prices?

SURE!

It would take a person well on in years and with a good memory to remember prices as low as these . . .

They take you back to the days of horse cars---when people laughed at an automobile. When a man who earned $100 a month was the "big shot" of the town and an evening's entertainment consisted of looking through the family album.

Auxiliary Meets

The October meeting of the Vass Methodist Auxiliary was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. A. Borst. After short devotional exercises a business session was held, presided over by the chairman, Mrs. Borst. Reports were given, and plans for raising funds and for mission study were discussed. A delightful social hour followed, during which two interesting contests were enjoyed. The hostess served a salad course.

Tillman, Printer and Farmer

E. J. Tillman is not only an expert performer on the keys of a linotype, but a real up-to-the-minute dirt farmer as well. During the summer many of his local friends feasted on delicious cantaloupes and watermelons which he grew, and now come tales of his achievements in the sweet potato field. 'Tis said that he grew four potatoes that totaled more than twelve pounds, and that his entire crop was around a hundred bushels, which isn't bad for a man living in town.

Horse, Mule Perish in Flames

A horse and a mule perished in the flames which late Sunday evening destroyed a barn on the farm of N. H. Arnette in the Eureka section out from Vass. The Arnette family had gone to church and shortly afterwards the fire was discovered by a passerby who gave the alarm. The pastor and congregation hurried to the scene, and by heroic efforts saved the dwelling from being consumed, but were unable to prevent the destruction of the livestock and contents of the barn.

Unique Service To Be Held

Unique will be the service which is to be held at Old Union Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, if the plans of the leaders succeed. The Sunday School superintendent asks that everyone, whatever his or her age may be, who has ever recited the Child's Catechism or the Shorter Catechism while attending Union, be present at Sunday School there next Sunday with his testament or Bible, ready to tell who his teacher was and who was superintendent when he recited the catechism. The program will doubtless awaken much interest.

COURT HOUSE DAMAGED BY HEAT FROM CARTHAGE FIRE

The intensive heat from the fire which destroyed a wooden building in the business district of Carthage Sunday afternoon did considerable damage to the court house. The plate glass doors in the side next to the fire were cracked, as were dozens of window panes. In the office of County Superintendent Thomas, eleven of the twelve panes in one window were cracked, and the shrubbery outside was badly scorched.

ABERDEEN H. S. LIBRARY ASKS BOOK DONATIONS

Mrs. Frank Page has very kindly donated a number of valuable books to the Aberdeen High School Library. The library is not as well equipped as it should be and donations will be much appreciated.

Citizens are asked to look through their library and see if they can find books they can do without. The prosperity of the High School Library is an asset to Aberdeen and donations are asked to make the Library the equal of any High School Library in the county.

The Aberdeen Baptist Church choir visited the home of the Misses Ray near Carthage, last Sunday and held services for these ladies who are unable to get about.
