WHAT

does it cost to operate?

That's the most important question to be answered for the buyer of an oil burner

And the answer should come from oil burner owners. Electrol owners are enthusiastic in their praise for this finer burner. They agree that Electrol pays for itself in fuel economy, labor-saving convenience and cleanliness.

Electrol's ten-year record of satisfactory performance in thousands of homes has established it as an outstanding oil burner value. Yet, it is priced within reach of all.

Aberdeen Social Events

Miss Harrington Hostess

Miss Mary Harrington was a charming hostess to her Bridge Club of young ladies last Thursday night at her home on Main street, entertaining at two tables. After an interesting hour of the game the high score prize was awarded to Mrs. C. E. Pleasants, Jr. A delightful social hour followed the game. The special guests were Mrs. C. E. Pleasants, Jr., and Mrs. John G. Sloan.

Sunday School Class Party

Mrs. J. R. Page delightfully entertained her Sunday School Class of Young Ladies at a dinner party last Thursday night at her home on Page Hill.

Book Club Meeting

Mrs. Robert N. Page, Sr., was a charming hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Book Club at her attractive home on Page Hill last Thursday afternoon.

The main feature of the afternoon's program was an interesting talk by Miss Nellie Sanborn of Southern Pines, a well-known portrait painter of the Sandhills, on the subject of portrait painting. This was followed by an instructive reading by Mrs. G. A. Charles on "Richard E. Miller." Mrs. Page made an urgent plea to all the members of this club for their support and cooperation in the Red Cross drive soon to be put on.

A delightful social hour followed the meeting during which the hostess served refreshments. The guests invited to this meeting were the honor guest, Miss Nellie Sanborn, and Mrs. Livingston Biddle, II, Mrs. R. N. Page, Jr., and Mrs. Reid A. Page.

Birthday Party

Dorothy Doub was a delightful hostess to a number of her small friends last Saturday afternoon when she entertained at her home on Montford avenue to celebrate her eleventh birthday.

The Thanksgiving season was delightfully carried out in an amusing turkey contest, followed by a bean contest, and prizes were given for the winners in these, which were Misses Mary Margaret Burney and Lanie Ruth Gunter.

Weinie Roast

The weinie roast given by Mrs. J. H. Suttentfield's class of young matrons from the Aberdeen Presbyterian Sunday School for the Dan McKeithen Bible Class of Young Men last Friday night at the Mossziel Log Cabin was a very enjoyable occasion. About 50 or 60 guests gathered around the large old-fashioned fire-place and roasted weinies and potatoes.

Matinee Party

TO CANVASS ABERDEEN FOR RED CROSS DONATIONS

The chairman of the Aberdeen Red Cross Roll, Mrs. Hardin Gunter, has decided to have a number of helpers make a canvas of the town on Friday, November 20th. Residents are asked to stay at home, or, if necessary to be away, to leave their Red Cross contributions. Last year, half of the dollars you gave were used here, making possible hot lunches for needy children, and two very needy operations. If your gift is more than a dollar, say five, all excepting fifty cents is used in your own county or town. Remember the cyclone not many years ago, not many miles from Aberdeen, Red Cross relief representatives were on the job in less than twelve hours, bringing comfort and relief.
