THE WEEK IN VASS

Young People Enjoy Hay Ride
Members of the Community Young People's Choir enjoyed a delightful outing on Tuesday evening of last week when they went on a hay ride to Morris' pond near Swann Station. The young people assembled on the Methodist church lawn and the fun began when they were loaded onto a big truck at 6.30 o'clock. A swim in the pond was the first number on the program, then a delicious picnic supper which was followed by boating and "harmonizing."

Members of the organization who enjoyed the trip were Misses Anna and Emily Laubscher, Bessie and Helen Klingenschmidt, Catharine Graham, Louise and Marjorie Leslie, Elizabeth McCraney, Pauline Thompson, Elizabeth Keith, Faye Brewer, Eva Callahan, Rose Honeycutt, Catharine McMillan, Mary Frank McMillan and Elizabeth McNeill; Herman Parker, Robert Laubscher, Russell Thompson, Remond McCraney, Bernice Graham, Henry Borst, Joseph Matthews, Roy Furr, Franklin Matthews, A. G. Edwards, Ernest McNeill, and Vick Keith, with Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. S. R. Smith as chaperones. Harry Laubscher, Linwood Furr and Bill Jones joined the party later in the evening.

Evans-Thompson

Miss Elizabeth Thompson and Thurlow Evans motored to Bennettsville, S. C., Sunday and were united in marriage. They were accompanied by Miss Bessie Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Mason.

Mrs. Evans is the second daughter of J. M. Thompson of Vass and the bridegroom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans. At present they are at home with the bride's father.

Church Services

As the pastor, Rev. W. C. Ball, will be away assisting in a series of revival services, there will be no preaching service in the Vass Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Rev. C. A. Lawrence has announced a service for the eight o'clock hour next Sunday evening in the Vass Presbyterian church. Mr. Lawrence hopes to have a guest speaker, and all are invited to attend the service.

Methodist Auxiliary Meets

The Vass Methodist Auxiliary held its July meeting on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. T. Frank Cameron, president of the auxiliary. An interesting program was given by Mesdames W. D. Matthews, W. H. Keith, G. W. Griffin and C. L. Tyson. Two new members were gladly received, Mrs. L. H. Furr and Miss Nettie Gschwind.

During the business session it was decided to pay the pledge immediately and action on some needed local work was taken.

During the social hour three interesting contests were enjoyed, a bird contest, a "Do you know your Bible?" contest and an alphabet quiz. An iced course was served. Miss Jennie Cameron and Mrs. Edge were guests at the meeting.
