CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RECEIVES MANY INQUIRIES

Shields Cameron, secretary of the Southern Pines Chamber of Commerce, reports that he has been receiving quite a number of general inquiries from prospective visitors to Southern Pines this season. The number of these averages up pretty well with those received during 1931 at this time. Most of the inquiries so far have come from the New England states, but there have been quite a few from upper New York and the Middle West.

The secretary has just received a very encouraging letter from B. J.
Simonds, popular fruit and vegetable dealer. Mr. Simonds sent a check for his membership in the Chamber of Commerce, and informed the secretary that he had handled a carload of Southern Pines peaches during the summer. He expects to come South about the middle of October.

FINE PROGRAM BROADCAST BY SOUTHERN PINES TALENT

A clear night on the air added to the enjoyment of the program broadcast from the Charlotte station by local talent of Southern Pines last Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Madie Lee Wade, with Miss Helen Thompson as accompanist, sang delightfully, and the solos of J. B. Gifford and Stuart Cameron scored big hits. Dr. George G. Herr, president of the Chamber of Commerce, made a splendid talk on Southern Pines as a winter resort and an ideal place to live.

RICHARDSON REQUISITIONS 1,200 BARRELS OF FLOUR

S. B. Richardson of Southern Pines has sent in to the American Red Cross a requisition for 1,200 barrels of flour for the county's poor and needy. If the requisition is honored, as it is expected to be, the flour will be distributed from Southern Pines, Carthage and Pinehurst to approved families in distress.
