ANNIVERSARY WEEK

Cameron and Community

Miss Marie Parker entertained the evening of February 14, at a beautifully appointed Valentine-bridge party, complimenting her teachers, Prof. and Mrs. R. F. Lowry, Mrs. H. O. Averitte, Bruce Tharrington of Cameron and Mrs. Lacy Smith of Lemon Springs. Eight tables were in play; Mrs. Loula Muse and Prof. Lowry won high scores. Miss Parker also presented each honoree with gifts. Mrs. W. G. Parker and Miss Annie Borst served refreshments. Mrs. Lacy Smith rendered several violin numbers. Miss Parker then sang a group of beautiful selections.

Tuesday evening the Senior Y. P. C. of the Presbyterian church held their February social at the home of their leader, Mrs. H. D. Tally. Many attractive games were played, numerous contests given and wholesome fun and merriment prevailed throughout the evening. The Valentine note was in evidence both in the decorations and refreshments.

Mrs. Jewell Hemphill, adult adviser of the John McNeill Y. P. C. of the Presbyterian church, complimented them with a Valentine-Heart party on Tuesday evening of last week. Amid a setting of green boughs laden with red, white and blue hearts, six tables of Hearts were in play. Misses Willie May Boggs and Janet McDonald tied for high score, the prize going to Janet in the draw. Low score fell to Neill McDonald, while John McDonald as oldest member and Edith McDonald as youngest member were each given prizes. Remember were each given prizes.

Circle No. 3 of the Woman's Presbyterian Auxiliary held its February meeting with Miss Jeanette Wooten on Wednesday afternoon. Ten members were present, a nice program was intelligently rendered and delicate refreshments, with Valentine appointments, were served.

Misses Mamie, Minnie and Jacksie Muse were charming hostesses to the Merry-Makers on Friday evening. The living room bore testimony to the famous February facts and in the unique Washington contest given Mrs. J. D. McLean was winner.

Invited guests were Mrs. Guthrie of Brookneal, Va., Mrs. H. C. Gibson of Rockingham, Mrs. J. M. Guthrie and Misses Annie Borst and Kate Harrington.

Instead of the regular preaching the 3rd Sunday evening, the Senior service at the Presbyterian church on Y. P. C. gave a public program. Pete Phillips conducted the devotional, after which songs and sentence prayers, in which all took part, were given.

Their motto for the week was: "Let all things be done decently and in order." This verse was explained by Miss Virginia Cameron. Only the boys took part in the principal program, each telling the value of Christian training both in the home and the church. We wish to commend the young president, who is also pianist, for her perseverance and efficiency in presenting this excellent program.

Mrs. J. E. Snow entertained at a three course, six o'clock dinner Monday evening, honoring Misses Minnie Muse, Katie Harrington and Kate Hunter.

Miss Annie Jones, who teaches in the Morrisville school, accompanied by three of the teachers in the same school, Misses Currin of Henderson and Green of Wake county, spent the week end with her father, C. C. Jones of route 1.

Miss Meta Stewart and nephews of Laurinburg, spent Saturday with Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen.

Mrs. G. M. McDermott underwent a minor operation in Fayetteville at the Highsmith Hospital last week and the report comes that she is doing nicely, but will have to remain in hospital for several weeks perhaps.

Mesdames H. D. Tally, R. F. Lowry, Jewell Hemphill and J. D. McLean were shopping in Sanford Monday.

The following are on the sick list this week: Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Jimmy Rogers and Mrs. Alton Cole of route 1.

The offertory of the Baptist church last Sunday morning was "I Am Satisfied with Jesus," which was beautifully rendered by the Misses Currin of Henderson.

Misses Effie, Margaret and Ada Gilchrist, Minnie Muse, Mary Ellen Felverton, Frances Matthews and Mrs. Flint Loving were shopping in Sanford Saturday.

County Basketball Tourney On Next Week

School Teams To Meet on Court of Pinehurst School for Championship

On Tuesday afternoon, February 27, basketball teams representing nine high schools in the county will swing into action in the annual Moore County basketball tournament, all games of which will be played on the Pinehurst High School court. The girls of Farm Life Academy and Cameron High School meet at 4 o'clock on this date to open the event.

The Elise Academy boys and the West End girls are the defending champions. Elise plays Vass at 9 Tuesday night in their opening encounter, while at 8 on the same night the Vass and West End girls teams clash.

Southern Pines opens with Carthage Wednesday at 4 o'clock, while the local girls tackle the winner of the Carthage-Aberdeen game, scheduled for 8 on Tuesday, on Wednesday night at 8. The Aberdeen boys meet West hurt boys take on the winner of the End at 9 this same evening. Pinehurst boys take on the winner of the Farm Life-Cameron tiff at 7 on Wednesday, while the girls open with Elise at 5 on that day.

Last year large crowds attended this event and the same condition is expected to hold true this year. The admission prices are: Afternoon games, 15c and 25c; night games, 25c and 35c.

In the tightest, most thrilling basketball game the local girls have engaged in this season, the Southern Pines team nosed out their Carthage opponents Wednesday night by a 22-21 score. The local boys couldn't get going and were defeated by 17-11. Both contests were played at Carthage.

Last Friday night the locals were hosts to the West End outfits and dropped a pair of contests.

OLDSMOBILE DEALERSHIP TO BE ESTABLISHED HERE

One of the best indications of the improvement being shown in business conditions throughout the country is the increase in automobile sales. Increasingly optimistic reports are coming in from all sections, including rural districts, small towns and metropolitan centers.

Substantiating this fact is a visit paid to Aberdeen by J. M. Cox, Oldsmobile factory representative in this territory. Mr. Cox came here for the purpose of making an analysis of market possibilities for low and medium priced cars in this community.

Mr. Cox pointed out that the Oldsmobile All-Feature Six at a base price of $640 and the Oldsmobile Eight held at last year's price of $845, cover 96 percent of the total automobile market. "This means," says Mr. Cox "that 9-out-of-every-10 automobile buyers in 1934 are prospects for an Oldsmobile car. In addition to this it is generally conceded by authorities that the total 1934 automobile market will be approximately 50 percent bigger than it was in 1933."

"These facts" says Mr. Cox "have brought about the decision to expand the Oldsmobile operations in this territory by establishing a dealership in Aberdeen."

Mr. Cox said that he was taking away a very optimistic report on Oldsmobile sales possibilities here and felt that an Oldsmobile franchise offered an excellent opportunity to some local business man.

Theatre

The week of February 26th is anniversary week for both the Pinehurst and Southern Pines Theatres, it being the eleventh anniversary of the opening of the Pinehurst theatre, and the tenth anniversary of the re-opening, after alterations of the Southern Pines Theatre. As it has been our custom in the past, we have endeavored to make this Anniversary one to be remembered by our patrons, because of the superior entertainment offered during this week. We believe this year, we have been unusually successful, as will be noted by the following pre-views of attractions, and we invite our patrons to make this sort of special theatre week and enjoy the unusual attractions.

Telling the intimate story of the life of a world famous dancer, George Raft's latest starring picture for Paramount, "Bolero" comes to the Pinehurst Theatre, Monday, February 26th, matinee and night, as the first features Carole Lombard, Sally Rand, the fan dancer, and Frances Drake.

It reveals the long struggle for success by an ambitious youth, denying his emotions, by tramping on the hearts of the beautiful women who help him on his way to the top. In the supporting cast are, the blonde beauty of Carole Lombard, Sally Rand, whose startling fan-dance is recorded in the picture, Frances Drake, as one of his partners, and William Frawley, who plays the role of his brother-manager. The dance numbers are woven about Maurice Ravel's world-famous "Bolero."

On Wednesday, February 28th, matinee and night, we are pleased to announce the special imported production from the London Film Company, "Catherine the Great" starring England's most famous stage and screen star, Elizabeth Bergner, supported by one of our own American stars, Douglass Fairbanks, Jr. To those who were privileged to see that delightful comedy, "The Private Life of Henry the 8th," produced by the same concern, we have but to state that "Catherine the Great" far surpasses it in its gorgeous mountings, superb photography and brilliant acting. Catherine may indeed be considered the finest picture that has yet come out of a British studio. Elizabeth Bergner in her performance as "Catherine," portrayed as a lovable empress who was so misunderstood, and unjustly treated by her swaggering, over-ambitious, and mentally deranged mate, played by Douglass Fairbanks, Jr., will get the bulk of the praise accorded this London film's production.

The third Anniversary week attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, on Friday, March 2nd, matinee and night, is nothing less than a laugh fest. In the language of the New York Herald "It is a howling success, and you can take that literally, for at the Trade Showing at the Astor Theatre, it had hard boiled gents laughing long, loud and whole-heartedly." The laugh lines come along with the regularity of surf breaking on the beach, and they have you floundering, gurgling and gasping, trying to get your breath for the next submersion of hilarity. It must have taken a half-dozen comedy writers to turn out those lines, as no one or two writers could possibly be that good. The above pertains to "Palooka," starring Jimmy Durant, Stuart Erwin and Lupe Valez.

SOUTHERN PINES

After almost half a year of production, "The Cat and the Fiddle" comes to the screen of the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, February 26, 27, 28, with a Tuesday matinee, as one of the most pretentious offerings of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio for the current show season. Ramon Navarro and Jeanette MacDonald are the co-stars. Each is not only a romantic favorite, but an accomplished singer. They are teamed for the first time in this production, but their success has been so instantaneous and outstanding that M. G. M. is now reported to be seeking a new vehicle in which they may appear together. "The Cat and the Fiddle" was adapted to the screen from the successful stage play by Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach.

The second Anniversary attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 1, 2, 3, with a Saturday matinee, is none other than that much heralded Samuel Goldwyn special production, "Nana" starring the now famous Russian actress, Anna Sten, about whom has appeared so much publicity. We could fill this paper with "traves from all the New York papers, but suffice to quote from the Evening Journal, which says, "A glamorous, dazzling beauty, brilliantly launched by a master-showman, and now after almost two years of intense study and work, "Nana" is here and it looks as though Samuel Goldwyn's faith in his star and in his picture is about to be royally justified at the box office. Anna Sten is lovely to look at. She has talent, charm and grace. She has been exquisitely photographed and costumed."

VISITING ROTARIANS ASKED TO INTER-CITY MEETING

One of the most delightful entertainments of the season is the yearly inter-city meeting of the Rotary Clubs at Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs. The spacious dining-room with its splendid collection of paintings and even more splendid collection of young women make an ideal setting.

Rotarians who may be visiting in and around Pinehurst and Southern Pines are invited to this meeting. The place is Red Springs, Friday, February 23; the hour, seven p. m.

County's CWA Quota
Ordered Cut to 553

More Than One Hundred Jobs
Cut Off, With More Soon
To Follow

Effective today, February 23, the number of employees on CWA pay-rolls in Moore county must be reduced to 553, according to instructions issued by Mrs. Thomas O'Berry to Miss Elizabeth Head, local administrator. The quota for the county was 678. Further reductions will be made each week until the program is discontinued.

In order to complete CWA projects before May 1, it will be necessary to discontinue projects that can be terminated without loss, and concentrate on the most important projects now in operation. Miss Head called a meeting of the county relief advisory board and other city and county officials for Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock for the purpose of considering the various projects and discussing which projects it would be most advisable to continue.

The responsibility for dropping people from the pay rolls in the county is entirely up to the local administrator, and she has been advised to concentrate all of her case workers on making an investigation of the list of workers to see just where the needs are greatest. In general the workers will be laid off in the following order:

1. Workers in whose families one or more other members are gainfully employed either on CWA or CWS projects or in other public or private work.
2. Workers with resources sufficient to live without suffering.
3. Workers who are known to be able to get other work.
4. Farm owners and tenant farmers who should be preparing for a crop.
5. In retaining workers preference will be given ex-service men who have dependents who are in need of relief.

Judge the new FORD V8 on what it will do

Thousands of people who can afford to spend two or three times as much for a car, are today choosing the Ford V-8 for 1934, instead. Here are some of the reasons.

POWER. The Ford V-8 for 1934 gives you better than 80 miles per hour with the quicker acceleration and greater smoothness of an 8-cylinder motor. Power has actually been increased by 12 per cent over last year's model.

COMFORT. The Ford V-8 for 1934 offers more actual body room than many other cars that cost considerably more. It offers you new Clear-Vision Ventilation, with the window in one piece. It offers you free action for all four wheels—plus the comfort of Ford Cantilever Springs and the proved safety of a front axle.

SAFETY. With the new Ford V-8 you get an all-steel body, safety glass, welded steel-spoke wheels, exceptionally low center of gravity and more braking surface per pound of weight than any other American-made car we know of.

ECONOMY. Gasoline economy is increased by two or three miles per gallon with the new Ford V-8. Test runs show that the new engine will give 20 miles per gallon at 45 miles per hour.
