North Carolina's Debt Situation

In his talk before the Kiwanis Club last week Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., of Carthage brought out some important facts and figures about North Carolina finances. Among them we quote the following:

North Carolina and its sub-divisions owe $89 million dollars in addition to what we will have to pay on the national debt.

In 1920 the State debt was 7 million dollars; today it is over 180 million dollars and is greater than that of any state in the Union except New York and on a basis of valuation exceeds that of New York.

This debt is 4 1-2 times the average of all other states in the Union.

From 1921 to 1928 we borrowed money in this state at the rate of 50 million dollars per year.

Ninety per cent of our State debt has been incurred since 1918 and our tax bill has multiplied itself four times in ten years.

Interest alone on the public debt is over 53 million dollars per year, 144 thousand dollars a day, six thousand dollars an hour, one hundred dollars a minute.

If a special treasury or depository had been built and one thousand dollars deposited in it each and every day from the day that the Good Master walking by the Sea of Galilee called Simon Peter to take up his cross and follow Him, it would still lack 159 million dollars of being enough money to pay the public debt of this State.

We have been operating the State government at about one million dollars more per month than the tax payers have been able to pay in for that purpose.

We have been funding our deficits and calling our budgets balanced.

The annual tax bill of the State is over 102 million dollars and is greater than the entire annual income of all the corporations in this state, domestic and foreign.

Every man, woman and child in North Carolina, white, black, yellow and red owe over $183.00 each.

Every family of five owe $916 tax debt.

Out of 67 industries that moved South last year, only four came to North Carolina. As far as climate and locality are concerned we should have had at least 50 per cent of them, maybe more.

President Roosevelt speaking in Pittsburgh in 1932 said this: "This nation earns forty-five billion dollars per year. Fifteen billion dollars of this amount is spent for governmental purposes. This means that one third of the entire annual income of the nation is spent just for the luxury of being governed. This is an impossible economic condition.

Whether a man ever sees a tax bill or not he pays the tax just the same, either in increased cost of what he buys, decreased wages, increased rent of cessation of employment."

McIver and two sons, Thomas McIver of Broadway and Frank McIver of Reidsville, two sisters, Mrs. F. E. Barnes of Goldsboro, and Mrs. Lizzie Thomas of Broadway.

Theatre

Cecil DeMille's great production, "Cleopatra," will grace the screen of the Southern Pines Theatre Monday to Wednesday, October 8, 9, 10, with a matinee Tuesday afternoon. This is a typical DeMille production, lavishly gorgeous in every respect and with every one connected deserving high honors for his or her particular job.

Claudette Colbert is cast as Cleopatra, with William Warren as Julius Caesar and the famous English screen star, Henry Wilcoxon as Marc Antony.

Mr. DeMille spent $1,000,000 on this picture and has more than $1,000,000 worth of entertainment, superb beauty, lavish settings and stirring encounters to show for it. With a fine sense of balance, DeMille brings to the screen the beauty and glory of ancient Egypt and the selfish plans of Rome to dominate the world. Very craftily and with a cunning unknown to the screen in the past he has woven in the story of the downfall of Caesar and Marc Antony through Cleopatra.

Plenty of entertainment, with comedy and romance, is promised in "Hide Out," the attraction for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 11, 12, 13, with a Saturday matinee.

The premise is novel and is full of human interest as well as good comedy. One of the Sandhills favorites, Robert Montgomery, is starred as the regenerated gangster, with Maureen O'Sullivan, so lately seen in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," as the girl. As the detective nemesis, Edwin Arnold provides a line that gives the story a big wallop, while as the farmer father and mother, Whitford Kane and Elizabeth Patterson are delightful. Mickey Rooney is also ideal as a little brother. "Hide Out" will prove good entertainment for the entire family.

SERVICE HOURS CHANGED AT WIDE FELLOWSHIP CHURCH

The Church of Wide Fellowship announces a change in the hour of service and a marked change in the order of service for next Sunday morning. The Sunday School will meet at 10:10 a. m. and its closing service will be merged into the opening service of worship in the church. Church worship will be at 11 a. m., instead of 10:30 as formerly and will begin with a processional hymn in which the Sunday School, led by the church choir, will march into the church. During the early part of the church service there will be a brief address to the children who will then be given the opportunity to retire. A half-hour story telling period in the Primary room will be given for the children who wish to attend. Children too young to go home alone will thus be cared for until the close of the services in the church.
