Tobacco Growers to Vote on Crop Control

Decision Reached in Raleigh To Hold Referendum in State in November

Five hundred tobacco growers enthusiastically endorsed the AAA tobacco control plan at a meeting in Raleigh Wednesday, and unanimously asked that it be extended.

A referendum on continuance of the plan under the provisions of the Kerr-Smith act will be conducted next month, Dean I. O. Schaub of State College announced following the meeting.

The referendum is required by the provisions of the Kerr-Smith act, and in it the producers will decide whether a tax will be levied again in 1935 on sales of tobacco grown by producers not operating under the acreage reduction contracts, and if so, what its rate will be.

Five states were represented in the gathering at State College at which J. B. Hutson, Chief of the Tobacco Section of the AAA, and I. O. Schaub of the college led the discussions.

The referendum may be conducted by mail or county agents may make personal contacts with each signer of the Kerr-Smith act. E. Y. Floyd of State College is chairman of the executive committee, which functions in an advisory capacity for North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and Georgia.

Theatre

One of the most brilliant screen productions seen here in some time comes to the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, October 22, 23, 24, with a Tuesday matinee. This is the unique and lavish musical spectacle, "Caravan," produced by the celebrated continental director, Erik Charell. Outstanding as Charell's first film effort in Hollywood, "Caravan" should insure a long and distinguished career for this gifted producer-director in America. His initial production combines splendor of settings and a lavishness unusual in sound films with subtle comedy and sparkling dialogue. The sweeping exteriors of "Caravan" are matched in effectiveness only by the delightful interludes of intimate comedy.

Perhaps topping all other features of this production are the amazing new technique and the unique use of music that stirs you with its rhythmic swing. A brilliant cast performs this romantic love story of the Tokay wine harvest. Charles Boyer, continental star, appears as the dashing Gypsy musician and Loretta Young as the gay Countess. Other principals are Jean Parker, Phillips Holmes, Louise Fazenda, Eugene Pallette, C. Aubry Smith, Charley Grapewin and Noah Beery.

Shirley Temple, the sensation of "Little Miss Marker," and "Baby Take A Bow," returns in another production which afford even more scope for her ample talents. It is "Now And Forever," which comes to Southern Pines Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 25, 26, 27, with a Saturday matinee, and in which the five-year-old is starred with Gary Cooper and Carole Lombard. "Now And Forever" not only permits Shirley Temple to exhibit her talents as an actress, but also gives her opportunity to display her unusual gifts for singing and dancing. Shirley plays the role of the daughter of the light-hearted, reckless adventuring confidence man, Gary Cooper. Since Cooper, in the film, has not seen the child since birth, he decides to relinquish his rights in her to his brother-in-law for a cash consideration. But he has not reckoned with the child's appeal, and after his first sight of her he changes his mind and takes her off to Paris to live with Carole Lombard and himself. Here a gradual but perceptible change comes over Cooper and Miss Lombard due to the influence and the love of the child.

Sir Guy Standing, Charlotte Granville and Henry Kolker are seen in featured roles.

Fresh fruits and vegetables at the Southern Pines Curb Market every Saturday morning.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE

HERBERT F. SEAWELL, JR.

He Is Worthy and Well Qualified

"With 3,000 homes ordered foreclosed for taxes in Moore County it is time we opened our eyes to the truth; readjustment of our tax problem is imperative. I am not bound to win but I am bound to remain true; I am not bound to succeed but I am bound to live up to what light I have. No man can serve two masters. I have no allegiance to any political ring or faction, and I have room but for one soul loyalty and that is loyalty to the people of my County and State."—H. F. S., Jr.

The right and benefit of the vote is an important privilege. The voters of Moore County ought to extend to this young man an overwhelming vote of confidence which he so rightfully deserves.
