

The Week in Vass

The annual election of officers was the business of outstanding importance at the regular monthly meeting of the Vass Methodist Auxiliary, which was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. D. Matthews with the president, Mrs. H. A. Borst, in the chair. The result of the election was as follows: President, Mrs. C. L. Tyson; vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Leslie; recording secretary, Miss Nettie Gschwind; corresponding secretary - treasurer, Mrs. S. R. Smith; local treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Cameron; superintendents: mission study, Mrs. C. J. Temple; literature and publicity, Mrs. Bertie L. Matthews; local work, Mrs. H. C. Callahan; Christian social relations, Mrs. T. F. Cameron; chairman of program committee, Mrs. H. A. Borst.

Robert, John and Janet Rosser played special violin numbers on last Friday evening in the Jonesboro school auditorium as a part of a program sponsored by the Masons for their orphanage at Oxford. A large crowd was in attendance and the offering amounted to seventy dollars. Others from Vass who attended were Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Rosser, Mrs. W. J. Cameron, Mrs. W. D. Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith.

The Vass-Lakeview schools ended their week's work on Wednesday and the teachers are spending the Thanksgiving holiday away from town. Miss Ruth McNeill went to Banner Elk to visit her sister and brother, Elizabeth and Ernest, who are attending Lees-McRae College.

Mrs. Guy Lennon of Manteo came last week to visit her sister, Mrs. D. A. Smith. They spent the week-end in Fayetteville with a third sister, Mrs. David M. Pearsall, whose husband is critically ill in a hospital there.

Mrs. Marvin Davis and Mrs. W. T. Cox of Route 1 spent Thursday in Raleigh.

Mrs. J. S. Bundy of Raleigh was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Edwards, a part of last week.

Archibald McGill of Route 2 has been ill of pneumonia for the past two weeks, but is now much improved. His brother Alex of Maxton has been at home for several days.

Harry Laubscher of the CCC camp at Palkton is in the Fort Bragg hospital with pleurisy. Mrs. Emma Laubscher, Mrs. Will Klingenschmidt, Miss Nettie Gschwind, Charles Gschwind and son Tommy visited him Sunday afternoon and found him getting along nicely.

Misses Myrtle and Mary Frank McMillan were guests of Mrs. J. Lee Johnson of Raleigh from Friday until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gaddy and family left Monday for Durham where they will make their home. B. M. Corbett of Route 1 is reported to have purchased Mr. Gaddy's barber shop here.

announced the birth of a daughter on November 26, at their home in Vass.

Contributions Asked To Finance Geneva Trip

Fund Needed to Send Carl Thompson, Jr., of Southern Pines To World Parley

As announced in last week's Pilot, a Southern Pines young man, Senior at the University of North Carolina, has been elected delegate from the university to the Students' International Anti-War Conference at Geneva, Switzerland.

The only manner in which the North Carolina conference can finance the delegate to Geneva is by personal contributions and gifts from organizations. There is much enthusiasm for this student movement and unsolicited contributions have already been turned in.

Carl Thompson, Jr., of Southern Pines is the selected delegate, with Phillips Russel of Asheville as alternate. It is hoped that both boys can attend the conference and already citizens of Asheville have subscribed more than $100 for Russell's trip. Contributions for Thompson's expenses may be sent to Arnold Williams, 303 Graduate Club, Chapel Hill, N. C., treasurer of the Finance Committee.

Theatre

At Pinehurst

The attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre on Monday, December 3rd, matinee and night, is none other than the famous musical comedy, "Music In The Air" which has been a success on both continents, running nearly a year in New York and still going strong in Chicago after four months. The story is comedy-romance, moving to the tempo of music written by two of America's foremost modern composers, Jerome Kern, and Oscar Hammerstein, 2nd. In the picture Gloria Swanson makes her first American appearance since "To-night or Never" and John Boles shares the starring honors with her. Featured are Douglas Montgomery, last in "Little Women," and Jane Lang, a protegee whom the studio has kept under cover for two or three years.

Elaborate new spectacles of beauty, rhythm and romance feature the screen's big musical comedy, "The Gay Divorcee," the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, Dec. 5th, matinee and night. "The Gay Divorcee" co-stars Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire of "Carioca" fame features music by five noted melody makers, and develops a joyous plot that tickled New York for 288 performances, and London for six months. The plot itself, is not of super-entertaining comedy situations, a hilarious sort of romance boasting a ceaseless flow of complications as Astaire madly pursues the lovely Miss Rogers across many dancing floors and through the maze of a swank futuristic hotel. The settings are the most lavish ever constructed on the RKO Radio lot in Hollywood.

Bringing with it the enchantment of Hawaiian nights, the spirit of the United States Army, the thrill of West Point and the romance of glorious youth, "Flirtation Walk," first military musical ever screened and First National's mammoth new spectacle will be the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, December 7th, matinee and night. Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler, the nation's most popular screen lovers and Pat O'Brien head an all star cast, which includes, in addition to a score of Hollywood's best actors, the entire cadet corps of the United States Military Academy at West Point, a portion of the Pacific Fleet, and a detachment of the regular army at Honolulu.

CHRISTMAS GIFT SALE AND TURKEY DINNER DEC. 6TH

A Christmas Gift Sale will be held in the assembly room of the Church of Wide Fellowship on Thursday, December 6th from 10:00 a. m. until 6 p. m. A delicious turkey dinner will be served from noon until 2 p. m. A special entertainment for children will be given in the church parlor at 3:30 p. m. Admission ten cents.
