DURANT THANKS FIREMEN

Chief L. V. O'Callaghan of the Southern Pines Fire Department is in receipt of a letter from R. S. DuRant, manager of the Central Carolina Telephone Company, reading as follows:

"I feel it my duty to convey to you an expression of appreciation and thanks for the unusual promptness in responding to the fire alarm turned in from my residence on Thursday. Due to the splendid work of your organization the fire was confined to the adjacent vacant lot where the grass was burning. Please convey to each member of the department my appreciation of their promptness in reaching the location of the fire."
