

The Week in Vass

Christmas programs, to which the public is cordially invited, will be presented by the various churches in town and the schedule is as follows:

At 6:15 o'clock this Sunday evening, the Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. will present a cantata, "The First Christmas," and other short exercises.

On the same evening at 7:15, the regular church service will be held in the Presbyterian church, and in connection with this a tableau, "The Christmas Angel Takes Charge," will be presented. "Joy Gifts" for ministerial relief will be brought in at this service.

On Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock, the little folks of the Presbyterian church school will give a short program.

At 7:45 o'clock Monday evening in the Methodist church a "White Gift" service in the form of a pageant, "As With Gladness Men of Old," will be given by the young people. An offering for the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh will be received.

The Vass Woman's Club met on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Keith with Mrs. G. W. Brooks, Mrs. G. W. Griffin and Miss Nettie Gschwind as associate hostesses. The civics department, of which Mrs. Emma Laubscher is chairman, presented the following program: "What is Civics?" by Mrs. S. R. Smith; "What I Would do with $150," by Miss Nettie Gschwind; "A Pine Tree in Winter," by Mrs. Laubscher and "A Christmas Thought," by Mrs. W. J. Cameron. A special feature was a Christmas reading by Mrs. C. A. Lawrence.

During the business session reports of the Red Cross drive and the lunch room were given. The club voted to buy additional lights for its community Christmas tree. Miss Mary Beasley of Apex and Vass was received into membership.

A social hour of outstanding interest following the meeting and its main feature was a surprise birthday shower honoring the club's second oldest member, Mrs. D. C. McGill. After various contests had been enjoyed, the hostesses brought into the living room a table loaded with attractive packages and announced that the members were to do their Christmas shopping. The packages contained the gifts which had been sent in earlier in the day. Each member visited the table and selected a package and the "price" was the performance of some specified stunt. After the shopping was completed, a shout of "happy birthday" arose and Mrs. McGill was showered with the gifts.

The hostesses served refreshments in keeping with the holiday season. A large crowd greeted the Moore County Orchestra when it made its first appearance in Vass on last Friday evening, and much favorable comment has been heard.

The program consisted of nine selections by the orchestra, which was under the direction of Prof. F. H. Ponish, with Mrs. Ponish at the piano, and a group special numbers, as follows: Trombone solo, Clifton Barnes of Carthage; trumpet solo, Kelly Baker of Carthage; piano solo, Florence Fry of Pinehurst; piano solo,

John Barnes of Carthage; clarinet duet, Francis McLeod and Archie Lee Barnes of Carthage, and a violin solo by six-year-old Janet Rosser of Vass. Janet won loud applause by her rendition of the first movement from Seitz' Concerto in G.

Others playing in the orchestra included Misses LaMar Spencer, Carlton Grier Fry, Lawrence Hinson, Minnie Belle Fry and Carolyn Doub, all of Carthage; Mrs. R. G. Rosser, Mrs. S. R. Smith, Robert Rosser and John Rosser, of Vass; Miss Edna Frye and Lewis Frye of Pinehurst, and Edward Prizer of Southern Pines.

Mrs. F. L. Dees and little daughter, Sara, of Pinehurst visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McMillan and family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor and Miss Louise Leslie spent Saturday and Sunday in Charlotte.

Mrs. A. G. Edwards and Mrs. Kirby were Raleigh visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Powers, Miss Lucille Powers and Mr. and Mrs. Aiken Reece of Hamlet visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Griffin Saturday.

Santa Picks His Helpers!

O-O-OH! Santyettes. Romping down from the North Pole, they've come to help old Santa with modern Christmas presents that are a real problem to handle with his sleigh and reindeer. They'd like one of these Christmas Frigidaires back in their igloo in Hollywood, where they spend their time in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures when not helping Santa. In real life, they're Musiel Evans and Ruth Ch
