

SEABACK RUNS 106 BALLS IN BILLIARDS EXHIBITION

Nearly 100 pocket billiards enthusiasts watched an exhibition of how the game should be played at the Straka billiard parlors in Southern Pines on Tuesday night. Charles Seaback, Canadian pocket billiard champion, was the attraction, the first of a series of stars who will appear here this winter season. Pitted against Seaback for the exhibition was Alexander Cooper of the Elks' Club in Atlantic City, champion of that city in 1931.

Seaback made a high run of 106 in a 150-point game. His record run is 210 and, strongly, it was an easy shot on Tuesday night that ended his 106 run.

After the first of the year some of America's most famous cueists are to appear in exhibitions here, among them G. Kelly, world's champion; Spears, Ponzi, Rudolph, Morningstar and Sutton, the armless wonder. There was keen enthusiasm at the match this week.

Christmas Program

At the regular class meeting of the sixth grade Wednesday, December 12th, the grade had as its guests several mothers, Mrs. R. C. Zimmerman and Miss Mary Sikes. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Charlotte Miller, and the minutes read by the secretary, Miss Louise Martin. An interesting program followed under the direction of Miss Virginia Adcox. Thomas Lampley recited the poem, "Just Before Christmas," and the class gave a pantomime called the "Manger Scene" with Miss Kathryn Page playing the part of "Mary," J. D. Bullard that of "Joseph," and Emily Green and Ernestine Marks as "Angels." "The Three Wise Men" were Lawrence Johnson, Belk Troutman and Tom Britt. "Shepherds" were Hyman Carter, Hubert Brooks and Arthur Lucas. During the pantomime the other members of the class sang "O, Come all Ye Faithful," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Away in Manger" and "Silent Night."

At the conclusion of the program, the refreshment committee, Frances Hearn, Charlotte Miller, Emma Jane Melvin, Patricia Berg and Gayle Meanor, served cakes and candy to the guests and members of the class.

P. T. A. Meeting

The Parent-Teachers Association held its December meeting at the grammar school last Wednesday afternoon with an unusually large number of guests and members present.

The outstanding feature of the afternoon's program was a Christmas pageant by the first grade given under the direction of its teacher, Miss Herring, in which many Mother Goose Nursery characters took part. After this two of Miss Sikes' music pupils, Misses Mae Rhyne and Rebecca Doub, gave instrumental solos. Mrs. Charles as chairman of the program committee announced that at the January meeting a doctor from the State Board of Health would address the association, and at this meeting there will be a book shower for the schools. After Prof. Zimmerman's able talk on the Emergency Education Plan a mass meeting of all those interested in the school was called at the High School this Friday evening. The prize given to the grade having the most mothers present was again won by the eighth grade but they voted to give it to the first grade as being the next highest in the contest.

Book Club

Mrs. E. T. McKeithen was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Book Club last week at the Community House. Mrs. C. M. Wilson was selected as a member of the club to take the place of Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, and Mrs. L. M. Hall to take the place of Mrs. W. C. Ball. Miss Helen Clarke Capps entertained the club with a piano selection, "The Christmas Chimes."

An enjoyable social hour followed the meeting during which the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Russell Clegg of Carthage, served refreshments.

THEY ALL GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

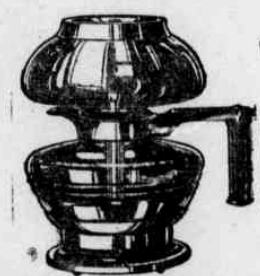

TRANSPORT PILOT. Maurice Marrs, United Air Lines pilot, says: "When I notice that 'all in' feeling, I pull out a Camel and light up. My natural energy flows back. Tiredness is quickly relieved. I smoke steadily. Camels never upset my nerves."

HOUSEWIFE: "I never knew how much a cigarette could mean until I smoked Camels," says Mrs. Robert Sayles. "I was attracted to Camels because they have such a mild flavor. And I find that when I smoke a Camel, I have more energy."

FOOTBALL REFEREE. Tom Thrip says: "The 'lift' that you get from a Camel sure is a mighty valuable thing to anyone whose job requires fast action. And I know I can smoke them any time I like...and they will never make me 'edgy' or nervous."
