

DR. CHEATHAM TELLS KIWANIS PEOPLE ARE MORE GENEROUS

Dr. T. A. Cheatham and the Rev. A. J. McKelway were the speakers at Wednesday's Kiwanis Club Christmas meeting, the former telling of the work he and Mrs. Cheatham have been doing for several years in providing Christmas cheer for hundreds of children in the county—1,700 this year, and the latter telling something of the spiritual side of Christmas and what it should mean to old as well as young.

"I have found a finer spirit of generosity and response this year than ever before," Dr. Cheatham said in acknowledging the part played by others in his Christmas gift program. "I look upon it as a very encouraging sign of the times, a faith in the future," he said.

At Pinehurst

Moving with the speed of a skyrocket as it sparkles across the heavens, the hilarious new comedy farce, "The Gay Bride," featuring Carole Lombard and Chester Morris, is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, December 24th, matinee and night. The picture speeds along through one madcap situation after another until the audience is left gasping for breath. Miss Lombard surpasses all of her previous efforts in the role of Mary, the blonde with the bank-account mind. Strong male support is contributed by Chester Morris, who is vigorous and convincing as Office Boy, a young man who takes care of a racketeer's clerical work out of bullet range. Entertaining performances distinguish the supporting cast of players that includes Zazu Pitts, as Mirabelle, wardrobe girl who knows too much for her own health and Leo Carrillo, as Mickey, whose trigger is quicker than his brain.

"Little Minister," the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, December 26th, matinee and night, is a beautiful translation of James Barrie's novel and play, depicting the lives of plain folks in a small Scotland village during the period of 1840 when religion dominated. Good judgement was exercised in surrounding Katharine Hepburn with a capable cast such as John Beal, a newcomer; Alan Hale, Donald Crisp, Lumsden Hare, Andy Clyde, Beryl Mercer, Reginald Denny and others. The story tells the trials of the young minister (Beal) who comes to the small, religiously bigoted town with his loving mother (Miss Mercer) and is caught in the web of romance with Miss Hepburn, notoriously suspected of Gypsy lineage. There is sincerity in which Beal and Miss Hepburn command the appreciation of the audience because of the delicate, tense, dramatic tempo carried throughout.

"Bright Eyes," Fox Film's newest and best vehicle for the amazing talents of Shirley Temple, child star extraordinary, is said to be one of the finest, most human, most heart-warming films in a decade, and will be the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, December 28th, matinee and night. No such sensational performance as Shirley's, no such dramatic and persuasive film story has been seen in many months. "Bright Eyes" has universal appeal, in every sense of the word. Swift, human, at times pathetic, at times enormously funny, it is a story which will hold you in its spell from opening sequence to smashing finish. The action of "Bright Eyes" takes place at a large commercial airport near Los Angeles and in a wealthy Pasadena home nearby. James Dunn is once again cast "opposite" Shirley, and delivers one of the ablest performances of his notable Hollywood career.

At Southern Pines

One of the most human, compelling and dramatic screen narratives in years, Jesse L. Lasky's "The White Parade" is playing a return engagement at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, December 24, 25, 26 with a Tuesday matinee. It is a gripping and a poignant drama, and the manner of its presentation—buoyant, easy, skillful—is a distinct contribution to screen history. Loretta Young offers a masterly performance as the young student nurse who is the heroine. The film follows her schooling from the day of her enrollment, until just graduated, she has to make her choice between the man she loves, John Boles, and the service whose true meaning has become every day more clear to her. John Boles contributes a splendid characterization as the rich young suitor.

"The Little Minister" is the attraction at Southern Pines Thursday, Friday, Saturday, December 27, 28, 29, with a Saturday matinee, immediately following its showing at Pinehurst, on December 26th.

FARM CENSUS TO BEGIN IN STATE ON JANUARY 20

cedented destruction of crops and livestock caused by the drought and the many changes which have occurred in farms and ranches and in the utilization of land due to the depression of the past few years made it imperative that the farm statistics be available as soon as possible, if agriculture is to be assisted in going forward with other industries.

The Director desires to call attention to the Section of the Fifteenth Census Act, approved June 18, 1929, which makes it unlawful for any person to refuse to answer questions on the Census schedule:

"Sec. 9. That it shall be the duty of all persons over eighteen years of age when requested by the Director of the Census, or by any supervisor, enumerator, or special agent, or other employee of the Census Office, acting under the instructions of said director, to answer correctly, to the best of their knowledge, all questions on the census schedules applying to themselves and to the families to which they belong or are related, and to the farm or farms of which they or their families are the occupants; and any person over eighteen years of age who, under the conditions hereinbefore stated, shall refuse or willfully neglect to answer any of these questions, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding $100 or be imprisoned not exceeding sixty days, or both, and any such person who shall willfully give answers that are false shall be fined not exceeding $500 or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both. ***"
