

Year 1934 Slightly Colder and Much Wetter Than Year Before

Range of Temperature From Top of 103 to Low of Six Above Zero Recorded

By Charles Macauley
The year 1934 was slightly colder and much wetter than 1933, the local records showing 55.41 inches of rain as against the normal of 49.65 inches, an increase of 5.76 inches for the year, and an increase over the preceding year of nearly eight inches. Temperature averages for the year recorded a mean of 61-8, one degree less than 1933, but exactly the same as the long time mean. Our hottest days registered 103, June 28th and July 9th. The coldest January 30th and February 8th, both with a low of 6 above zero, while February showed the astounding average of 34.6, 9-7 degrees lower than the long time record.

The greatest rainfall for any one day came on the 9th of April with 3.20 inches, with June giving us the greatest precipitation for any one month of the year, 8.23 inches, 3-16 inches above the normal for the month. Following the low temperatures for early December, and a spatter of snow on the evening of the 10th winter came in on the 22nd with a moderate temperature of 54, Christmas day being fair with a temperature of 66, the warmest day, the 1st showing a high of 69, and the coldest, the 12th, a low of 12 above. Maximum temperature, 54.8; minimum, 30-2; average, 42.5.

Following is a table showing rainfall during 1934, the first figures being rainfall in inches, and the second the excess, or deficiency in inches for each month of the year.

January	1.76	-1.66
February	2.78	-1.25

Emma Jane's Corns

They Start Trouble Which Ends in Foot Mashing, Hair Pulling and Superior Court.

Perhaps Emma Jane has corns, perhaps she hasn't; anyway, she didn't like to have Pearl McLean stepping on her feet in a dance hall at Pinehurst, and the foot mashing developed into hair pulling which later, if the court testimony is to be credited, resulted in Emma Jane slipping up behind Pearl and stabbing her with a knife. Emma Jane, whose last name is McLean, says she didn't do it, but the court found probable cause and bound her to Superior Court under bond of $300.

Sherrerd and King Win Tennis Event

Come Off Victors in Round Robin Tournament at Country Club Sunday Afternoon

Donald Sherrerd and Edward King paired to win the men's doubles round robin tennis tournament Sunday at the Country Club.

Playing four-game sets against each of the other three teams entered, King and Sherrerd won each by scores of 3-1, for a total of nine games won.

E. S. Blodgett and Everett Allen won seven games, lost five, to finish second. Ernest Gamache and George Wallace won five and lost seven to finish third, and Don Parson, Jr., and Larry Seeman won three and lost nine to wind up last.

This is the first tourney of its kind ever held in Pinehurst, and as the result of its success, more are planned later in the season.

CIVIC CLUB'S LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Whenever Highland Lodge opens its hospitable doors for a Civic Club function, the affair is sure to be popular and pleasant, and the luncheon and bridge on Friday last was one of those successful occasions. The spacious dining-room of the Lodge was a scene of festive beauty, with its decorations of ivy and poinsettia, arranged by Mrs. F. M. Gardner, poinsettias enough for centerpiece for all of the twelve tables having been donated by Mrs. I. F. Chandler. Other generous donations of food and money, given by members and friends of the club, contributed to the financial success of the affair. Sixty persons attended.

Following the luncheon, bridge was enjoyed by about a dozen tables.

Prizes were given for each table. The "Door Prize," a beautiful frosted cake made at the Hollywood, was taken by Mrs. McKeithen of Aberdeen. The committee in charge of the bridge were Mrs. Frank Pottle and Mrs. H. A. Gould. The committee in charge of the luncheon were Mrs. Grearson, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Schwarburg, Mrs. Smiley and Miss Alice Holmes.

The regular monthly business meeting of the club will be held this Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to be followed by a discussion of the matter of an educational department. All women interested in this matter are invited to be present.

MRS. SEAWELL, MRS. BROWN HOSTESSES AT D. A. R. MEETING

The January meeting of the Alfred Moore Chapter, D. A. R., was held at the home of Mrs. Herbert Seawell in Carthage, Mrs. Seawell and Mrs. Gilliam Brown acting as hostesses. They were assisted by Miss Meade Seawell and Mrs. Worth Miller. Mrs. P. P. McCain, the chapter regent, presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Harmon Landon, of the Major Benjamin Bandon Chapter, Silver Creek, N. Y., was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Landon brought some excellent new ideas from her chapter.
