SOUTHERN PINES TEAMS WIN AT BASKETBALL

The Southern Pines boys' and girls' basketball teams added another victory to their record by defeating Vass High School on the home court last Friday evening. The girls' score was 29 to 27 and the boy's 18 to 10.

Bertha Fowler played a close guarding game and enabled Mary Elizabeth Cameron to shoot the deciding goal in the last ten seconds of the game. The teamwork of the locals was good. The following girls participated: Eleanor Eddy, Eleanor Harloe, Mary Elizabeth Cameron, Betra Fowler, Susan Clarke and Virginia Stevick.

The boys' game, as the score indicates, was not quite so close but was a hard-fought game throughout. A gradual improvement was noticed in the teamwork. The following took part: George Pottle, Bob Beck, Chas. Boney, Bill Winter, Stancill Stroud, Harold Fowler, Ed Newton and Richard Lowell.
