E. C. Stevens Demands Reasons For Discharge of Mr. Huntley

Says County Commission Owe
It to Tax Collector and Public To Explain Action

In an open letter sent this week to Wilbur H. Currie, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Moore county, Eugene C. Stevens of Southern Pines calls upon the commission "to give the reasons, publicly, why Mr. Huntley was discharged." Mr. Stevens' letter reads:

"Dear Mr. Currie:

"I have read in the press with great astonishment that the Board of Commissioners has fired Mr. Huntley from the position of Tax Collector, and have appointed a member of the Board of Commissioners to take the job.

"This announcement was made without any explanation at all, but of course I presume you have had just cause for your action. Therefore, I call upon you to give the reasons, publicly, why Mr. Huntley was discharged. As a tax payer and voter and being deeply interested in the good government of our County, I feel it is only my right to ask, this and your duty to explain it to us all. Lacking all explanation for your action, any number of guesses may be made, but in justice to Mr. Huntley himself, you owe it to him and the people at large to say why he was discharged.

I do not know Mr. Huntley very well, but I have always found him most obliging, courteous and ready to help any time I go into his office. I understand that he has made a good collector and has run his office efficiently. In these disquieting days, I believe we should keep an honest, pleasant and efficient man in such an important office. I have no fault to find with the gentleman who is proposed to take over the job, but I must point out he was elected by the people of Moore County to be a Commissioner and not a Tax Collector, and therefore I hope he continues in his present position, as elected. Without explanation from you, many of us here cannot see why such a capable man should be fired and replaced by anyone who has had no experience at all in this difficult and important position.

"Trusting you will give the people of the County, who elected you to office, the full explanation of your recent action, and with my best regards for good County Government, I am

Sincerely yours,
EUGENE C. STEVENS."

SUPREME COURT RULES AGAINST CAPE FEAR R. R.

Washington, Jan. 21.—(P)—The Supreme Court today sustained an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission fixing a division of rates between the Cape Fear Railways, Inc., and the Atlantic Coast Line.

The order covered a division of joint interstate rates on shipments to and from Fort Bragg, N. C., interchanged at Fort Bragg junction.

Cape Fear Railways contended its proportion of the division gave it less than the cost of transportation and amounted to confiscation in violation of its constitutional rights.

Theatre

At Pinehurst

"The Right to Live," Warner Brothers dynamic drama of triangular love under the most unusual circumstances, will be the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Monday, January 28th, matinee and night. "The Right to Live," a powerfully emotional story based on the stirring drama, "The Sacred Flame" by Somerset Maugham, the author of "The Painted Veil" and "Of Human Bondage," deals with an unusual romance in which two brothers love the same woman. Josephine Hutchinson, noted for her work with Eva La Galliene in the Civic Repertory Theatre, and who recently made her screen bow in "Happiness Ahead," proves that she is a master of screen craft as well as of the stage. She is sure and direct, sincere and convincing at all times, and shows great emotional talent. George Brent's quiet, unassuming manner and finished acting wins the sympathy of the audience. Colin Clive, the distinguished English actor, displays his unusual talent in a most difficult role.

"David Copperfield," the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Wednesday, January 30th, matinee and night. No finer performance has been done on the screen than that of Freddie Bartholomew as the young David—tender, sensitive and curious. W. C. Fields' Macawber is a picture broadly painted, but withal lovable and laughable. Edna May Oliver's cantankerous Aunt Betsy tops all her previous achievements. Roland Young's Uriah Heep is superbly shaded and perfectly projected. Lennax Pawle's Mr. Dick combines lunacy and wisdom with truly Dickensian versatility. Other outstanding members of the cast are Lionel Barrymore, Madge Evans, Lewis Stone.

"Wings in the Dark," tenderly unfolding a romance between Myrna Loy, stunt flyer, and Cary Grant, aviator, punching it with sympathy and climaxing it with tense excitement for a big thrill, will be the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Friday, February 1st, matinee and night.

Taking a somewhat incredible central situation and making that situation convincing, human, even inspiring, is a dramatic feat achieved in this picture. Sympathies are aroused, interest sustained and heart strings pulled. Cary Grant, by an intelligent, persuasive performance, rises above anything he has ever done, and Miss Loy adds to the laurels she garnered in "The Thin Man" and "Evelyn Prentice." They are supported by an excellent cast.

At Southern Pines

"Maybe It's Love," will be the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, January 28, 29, 30, with a Tuesday matinee. The story is an unusual romance of young love and lovers torn by doubts and jealousies, as well as financial difficulties and family interference. There is an all star cast, headed by the beautiful Gloria Stuart and Ross Alexander, who has recently come to films from a series of Broadway successes.

As an added attraction, Laurel and

Hardy will be seen in their new comedy, "The Live Ghosts."

"Broadway Bill," will be the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, January 31st, February 1, 2 with a Saturday matinee. No little of the film's superb qualities can be attributed to the splendid performances registered by Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy in the two starring roles. Baxter's "Dan Brooks" is his finest screen characterization since the Cisco Kid in "In Old Arizona," and Miss Loy is a delightful revelation, a new and greater screen personality. Together, as a romantic team, both Baxter and Loy are near perfect. The picture is full of drama, pathos and comedy. One of the thrilling sequences of the story is a horse race which, it may be honestly said, has not been equalled on the screen. The stars, are supported by a notable aggregation of players.

An added attraction will be the latest Mickey Mouse "Two Gun Mickey."
