Sixteen State Prison Sentences Passed Out in Superior Court

Burglary, Car Thefts and Assault Cases Feature Docket
 Before Judge Alley

In last week's term of Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases which closed on Thursday afternoon, sixteen State Prison sentences and five county jail sentences were handed out by Judge Felix Alley. Four prisoners have been sent to the prison in Raleigh, twelve to the prison camp located in Moore, and five to jail to work on the county roads.

Breaking and entering, larceny and receiving cases led the docket with assault with deadly weapon cases coming second.

George Hill, colored boy who did an extensive breaking and entering business in Southern Pines during the summer and early fall, gathering together a nice collection of jewelry, blankets and other articles, was tried in five cases. In two of the cases he drew a total of from six to ten years in State's Prison to work under the supervision of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, and in the other cases, judgment was suspended upon condition of good behavior.

Charlie Thomas and John Williams, defendants along with Hill in one of the cases, were given from 18 months to two years in prison, and it was specified that all are to wear felon stripes. Clarence Willis, another colored man who is thought to have been associated with Hill, drew from two to three years in prison for breaking and entering, larceny and receiving, and he, too, is to wear stripes.

Stole Biddle Car
 Carl Story, white man who stole an automobile owned by L. L. Biddle, II, from its parking place in Pinehurst, turned it over near the Moore County Hospital and was captured in record time, was given a twelve months' prison sentence with stripes specified as his garb.

Gardner Rose, colored, who was found guilty of the larceny of Mr. Butner's car at Pinebluff, was sent to the county roads for nine months. George McKinnon, colored, who broke the breaking record when he broke into the County Home, had his twelve months' jail sentence suspended upon payment of the costs.

Rowland Hayes, colored, who entered Len Field's house near Carthage and stole some articles, was given a State Prison sentence of from two to three years on the breaking and entering count and a suspended sentence of from three to five years on the larceny and receiving count.

Willie Arnold, colored boy of Vass, was sentenced to serve from eighteen months to two years in prison for breaking and entering, and for larceny was given two years in jail to work on the roads, this sentence suspended for five years.

Gladys George, colored of Pinehurst, was given from one to two years in prison. She and two colored boys are said to have gone to the home of an elderly colored man in Pinehurst and requested a drink of water. Later, the man found that a jar containing $37 and 100 pennies which he had hidden in his stove was missing, and Gladys was found to be at the root of the jar's disappearance.

James Day, colored, who, after an unsuccessful attempt to play a flim-flam game to the detriment of a man from Hoke county who had just sold tobacco on the Aberdeen market, snatched his wallet and made off with $78 was given from two to three years in State Prison to wear stripes.

986 Killed

Over Hundred More Deaths Than in 1933 in Automobile Accidents in State

While Senate and House roads committees, jointly, were completing at Raleigh a very stringent drivers' license bill to curb automobile accidents, the Motor Vehicle Bureau is issuing a report showing 986 persons had been killed in auto accidents in the state in 1934, as compared with 853 deaths in 1933. Injured last year were 6,273, as compared with 4,975 the year before. In December 1934 were killed, 11 charged to drunk drivers, 23 to speeding, while seven death cars went on without stopping to aid their victims.

deed section, who relieved W. J. Allen of Vass of $81 after getting him intoxicated, were given prison sentences. Williams is to serve from 18 months to two years, Reeves from one to two years, and Minnie from 18 months to two years.

Joe Thomas Dowdy, who shot a colored man named Patterson causing him to become almost blind, was given 18 months to two years in prison on one count and three to five years suspended on another.

Ben Monroe, colored, of West End, who shot a colored boy, drew from 30 months to four years in prison, with stripes.

Ollie Lewis, colored, who shot a boy from the West End Community, was sent to the Moore county jail to work for twelve months under the supervision of the State Highway Commission. George Clark, colored, of West End drew a jail sentence of 12 months to work on the roads for shooting a colored boy.

Would Bond Attorneys Who Collect Taxes

Grand Jury Report Mainly Favorable; County Home Self Supporting

Favorable findings concerning the county offices and institutions and few recommendations marked the report of the grand jury submitted to the judge of the Superior Court last week. The county home, according to the keeper's statement to the committee, is practically self-supporting.

Among the recommendations made by the grand jury were these: That all attorneys authorized to collect delinquent taxes for the county be required to post a surety bond of sufficient size to protect the county; that a more adequate system of maps be installed in the court house; and that the insufficient water supply at the prison camp be corrected. It was suggested that the pastors of Carthage be requested to hold religious services for the inmates of the county institutions.

floor at Taylortown, had her 12 months' jail sentence suspended upon condition that she pay the costs of the case, $40 for the use of Pearl McLean, the injured girl, and $27.50 to the Moore County Hospital.

Curtis McLaughlin and Hendron Person, colored of Carthage, must show at the May term that they have helped build a tobacco barn in the place of one which they burned a few weeks ago.

Hobart Fry, white of Pinehurst, was sentenced to serve four months in jail to work on the roads for possessing liquor, and for possessing for sale he was given two years, suspended for five years.

Belk Funderburk, colored, charged with breaking and entering larceny and receiving, and Bud Phillips, charged with violating the prohibition law, were found not guilty.

The Week in Vass

Methodist Auxiliary Meets

The Methodist Auxiliary met on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. J. Temple, with the new president, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, presiding. The topic for the evening was "Children of God." Mrs. Borst made an inspirational talk on "Making 1935 the Best Year of Our Lives," after which the main program, in three divisions, was presented. "Prayer and Promise" was given by Mrs. Emma Laubscher, Mrs. Alex Smith and Mrs. H. C. Callaghan; "Prayer and Partnership" by Mrs. T. F. Cameron and Mrs. W. D. Matthews; "Pledge and Participation" by Mrs. C. L. Tyson and Mrs. S. R. Smith, and this part was made more impressive by a candle-lighting ceremony. Mrs. W. H. Keith conducted the Bible Study.

Mrs. W. J. Cameron offered to donate a patchwork top for a quilt if the auxiliary would get the other material necessary and help with the quilting, so Mrs. Florence Thomas volunteered to furnish the lining and Mrs. H. C. Callahan the cotton, and Wednesday of this week was set as the day to meet and make the quilt for the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh. An enjoyable social hour followed the business meeting.

The auxiliary was delighted to have Mrs. Thomas, a former member who has resided in Greensboro for the past few years, present as a guest.

Miss Margaret Smith of Cameron is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Keith and little son of Raeford visited Mrs. Jane Keith Sunday.

Mrs. Alton Chappell and little Elizabeth Ann of Sanford spent last week visiting relatives in and near Vass.

Miss Katharine Graham, Mrs. C. L. Tyson and Marie Tyson were Raleigh visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McLean of Leola were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Miss Ruth McNeill and Miss Elizabeth Wood spent Friday night in Carthage with Miss Ollie Seagroves. Miss Jewell Edwards and Miss Alice Hackett of the Lucama school district spent last week-end with Mrs. Mary E. Edwards.

S. D. Lewis of Lexington visited friends here during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith attended the funeral of J. V. McFayden in Fayetteville Sunday.

T. J. Keith of Fort Bragg visited his mother, Mrs. Jane Keith Thursday night.

Mrs. T. J. Smith and little daughter, Margaret Bettina, visited relatives in Durham Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pendergraf, Mrs. Chalmers Carr and Jack Alexander, all of Durham, were here to attend the funeral of their brother, Quentin Alexander.

Mrs. Mary E. Edwards returned last week from a visit with her daughters, Miss Ollie Edwards of Garner and Mrs. Seth W. Lassater of near Smithfield.

Henry A. Borst, Jr., student at Campbell College, Buie's Creek, spent last week-end here with his parents. Warren Cox is ill of pneumonia at his home on Route 1.

Mrs. Lizzie Borst, Mrs. W. G. Parker and Miss Helen Parker of Cameron visited Mrs. H. A. Borst Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Richardson of Hamlet were here Monday to attend the funeral of Quentin "T. T." Alexander.

MISS MOORE TO WED
 Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moore of Southern Pines have announced the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor Coburn to Buster Clayton Devoye of Raleigh. The wedding will take place this month.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
 Marriage license was issued from the office of the Register of Deeds of Moore county to Edward Swagerty of Knoxville, Tenn., and Estelle Thomas of Carthage route 2.

the New Pontiac
STANDARD SIX

An Additional line of cars whose quality and beauty make the price phenomenal

Today Pontiac presents an addition to the Pontiac family—the Standard Six line—even lower in price and offering many of the features that the 1935 De Luxe Six and Improved Eight introduced with such sensational success. All models have the same speedlined styling that gained Pontiac the name of the most beautiful thing on wheels. The bodies are the same solid steel "Turret-Top" Bodies by Fisher. The brakes are the same—big, positive hydraulics, triple-sealed against dirt and moisture. The new ride, the happy result of stabilized, synchronized springing, is every bit as gentle and comfortable as you could ask for. The engine, with its silver-alloy bearings, provides dependable performance so smooth and lively that you will doubt it is a six. And, best of all, it operates with an economy of gasoline and oil that will literally amaze anyone who has had experience with other low-priced cars! A look, a ride and you'll decide you simply can't do better.
