THEATRE

"Sweet Music," starring Rudy Vallee and Ann Dvorak, and based on Jerry Wald's story which is said to be stronger in plot, more romantic and more hilariously funny even than "Twenty Million Sweethearts," is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Monday, February 25th, matinee and night. "Sweet Music" parallels Vallee's own career insofar as the professional angle is concerned, and brings to the screen, not only his own famous Connecticut Yankees, but the Frank and Milt Britton band of instrument wreckers. A new Ann Dvorak is discovered in the picture. Since she made a distinct hit in "Scarface," with Paul Muni, she has been cast only in dramatic roles, Hollywood seemingly having forgotten that she first achieved success as a dancer and singer.

Others in the large cast are Helen Morgan, greatest of torch singers, Ned Sparks, Robert Admstrong, Allen Jenkins, Alice White, Joe Cawthorn, Al Shean, Philp Reed and William B. Davidson.

"All The Kings Horses," another brilliant unit in the recent Paramount success parade and a sparkling concoction of mirth and melody, is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Wednesday, February 27th, matinee and night. Lavishly mounted and dressed, the production reveals a surprisingly accomplished Carl Brisson and a positive new box-office personality in Mary Ellis, the Metropolitan Grand Opera Star. The story, adapted from the musical stag play of the same title, is located in a mythical kingdom and has Brisson in the dual role of an American movie star on a vacation.

The entire cast, particularly Edward Everett Horton, Eugene Pallette, Katharine DeMille, Rosita, Arnold Koroff and Mariana Schubert, contributes class performances.

Clark Gable and Constance Bennett are co-starred for the first time in "After Office Hours," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production which is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Friday, March 1st, matinee and night. Both ranking stars, and both equally adept at dramatic and light comedy characterizations, the team's initial appearance is being launched with great enthusiasm. In a lusty comedy-drama of New York Society and the Press, Gable is cast as Branch, managing editor who always gets his story through though it may mean resorting to the methods of the Northwest Mounted. The co-stars enjoy the support of a brilliant featured cast, which includes Stuart Erwin, Billie Burke, Harvey Stephens, Katharine Alexander, Charles Richmond and Hale Hamilton.

The "Best" of the man who produced such superlative screen entertainment as "The Private Life of Henry The Eighth," and "Catherine The Great" implies high praise, indeed. Yet, "The Scarlet Pimpernel," the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Feb. 25, 26, 27 with a Tuesday matinee, has been so judged. One of the best known and widest read stories of the English language, this thrilling tale of adventure in Regency England during the French Revolution, makes superb screen material. Leslie Howard and Merle Oberon bring to a vibrant and colorful life

WARREN OLMSTED ADMITTED TO BAR BY JUDGE SHAW

Warren F. Olmsted of Southern Pines and Edgar Davis Kuykendall, Jr., of Sanford were admitted to the bar during the term of Superior Court in Carthage last week. Judge Thomas J. Shaw was presiding and the oath was administered to Mr. Olmsted by W. Duncan Matthews, and to Mr. Kuykendall by J. C. Pittman.

The final report of Gurney P. Hood on the Bank of Vass was submitted to the court and the same was approved by the court and the commissioner and his agents were relieved from all liability by virtue of the liquidation.

Shirley Temple, sensational baby star, endears herself again in a vehicle especially tailored to her extraordinary talents in "The Little Colonel," which plays a return engagement at the Southern Pines Theatre, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, February 28th, March 7, 2, with a Saturday matinee. Charming, lovable, without the slightest trace of precociousness, Shirley captures the audiences affections with her amazing versatility. With Bill Robinson, she tap-danced to the salvos of a preview audience. She sings, weeps and is adorable in hoop skirts and poke bonnet.

There will be a slight change in our policy during the engagement of "The Little Colonel," in that there will be two matinees on Saturday. The first one at 1:00 p. m. and the second one at 3:00 p. m. the children's admission will be 15c. This change is necessary because so many adults from out of town were turned away from the matinee of "Bright Eyes."
