

Dr. Ida Scudder To Talk Here on India

Will Tell of Great Need For Medical Women in Combating Terrible Conditions

Dr. Ida Scudder, on furlough from the Missionary Medical College for Women at Vellore, South India, will address a Union Missionary Rally at the Church of Wide Fellowship in Southern Pines on Friday, March 1st at 7:30 o'clock. She will tell about the enterprise in which she has had so large a part, and about conditions in India. All will be welcome to attend.

Dr. Ida Scudder is known throughout India and the world for her devoted and successful service, culminating in the Woman's Medical College. There Dr. Scudder and her associates from Great Britain and America are training a corps of Indian women and nurses who can minister to the suffering women of India. Child marriage and superstition, with utter ignorance of medicine, have created a terrible condition. A very few American women doctors have gone to the 150,000,000 women of India. "We can never send enough to meet the need," says Dr. Scudder. "The only hope is training medical women. We have seven nationalities of Indian women in this college. They are in demand, not only in our missions, but in Government as well." Dr. Scudder is in the United States, covering the Chain of Missions in Florida, January 26th to February 28th; in Southern Pines and Pinehurst March 1st and 2nd; then, beginning with Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, she will go on to the West.
