

The Week in Vass

Miss Elizabeth Sneed, head of the relief work in Moore county, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Vass Woman's Club which was held on Friday evening in the Beasley Apartments with Miss Mary Beasley, Mrs. C. J. Temple and Mrs. Bertie L. Matthews as hostesses.

Miss Sneed, who came upon the invitation of the Public Welfare department which had charge of the program, gave an instructive talk about the new set up in the county, and suggested ways in which the club women could be of service to the families in the community that are on relief. Following her talk, group singing was enjoyed for a few minutes with Mrs. C. A. Lawrence, welfare chairman, accompanying at the piano.

The outstanding business of the evening was the annual election of officers, which resulted in the reelection of the following: President, Mrs. S. R. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. H. A. Borst; secretary, Mrs. C. L. Tyson; treasurer, Mrs. Ben H. Wood; heads of departments: Civics, Mrs. Emma Laubscher; American Home, Mrs. G. W. Brooks; Public Welfare, Mrs. C. A. Lawrence, and Literature, Mrs. D. C. McGill.

The club voted to hold a plant exchange at the home of Mrs. Laubscher at 3 o'clock this Friday afternoon; to further urge our representatives to support Supt. Erwin's school proposal in full, and to join with the Lakeview club in procuring a cot and bedding for the Vass-Lakeview school to be used by children becoming indisposed during school hours.

A delightful social hour followed the business meeting, and the hostesses served delectable refreshments. Four guests in addition to Miss Sneed were present, Miss Flora McDonald of Carthage, Miss Emma Gorham of Falkland, and Misses Exie Beasley and Lois Buchanan of the local school faculty.

On next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour at the Methodist church the Holy Communion will be observed following the sermon. This will be the first communion service of the new church year, and a full attendance is desired. Little Miss Janet Rosser will play a violin solo.

Two sermons of unusual interest were preached here last Sunday. In the morning the Rev. C. A. Lawrence of the Presbyterian church spoke especially to the young people, his general theme being the call of the Christ to the youth of today. At the evening hour the Rev. Leon M. Hall of the Methodist church brought a strong message on World Brotherhood.

Mrs. C. A. Lawrence was hostess to the Presbyterian Girls' Circle an evening last week, at which time an interesting program on Mexico was given with Miss Agnes Smith as leader. The circle members, for the past few months, have been reciting psalms, and a check-up revealed that a total of 69 had been recited. Miss Myrtle McMillan led in the memory work, she having recited a total of fourteen psalms.

The election of officers was held and the following were elected: Miss Myrtle McMillan, president; Miss Mary Frank McMillan, secretary, and Miss Agnes Smith, treasurer.

Harry Laubscher of the CCC camp at Palkton spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Emma Laubscher. Miss Eunice Setzer visited relatives in Maiden from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Bundy of Raleigh visited Mrs. A. G. Edwards last week. Mrs. Mamie Dixon of Raleigh is spending some time with her brother, J. M. Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Keith and children of Pinehurst and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Keith and little son of Raeford visited Mrs. Jane Keith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wilson of Mooresville and D. C. McGill of Halifax spent the week-end with Mrs. D. C. McGill.

O. D. McBane of Pittsboro has been in the drug store here for several days while Williamson Beasley was away on a vacation.

Miss Elizabeth Keith was at home from ECTC in Greenville from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. C. S. Williams of Franklin, Mrs. J. L. Reid of Wake Forest, Mrs. Plummer Jones of Raleigh, Mrs. B. N. Williamson of Lenoir and Jim Coghill of Henderson spent Wednesday of last week as guests of Miss Mary Beasley and during the afternoon visited places of interest in Southern Pines and Pinehurst. The guests were delighted with these resort towns and were greatly impressed by the beauty of the Village Chapel in Pinehurst. Miss Mary Beasley, R. P. Beasley and Mrs. S. R. Smith accompanied them on the sight-seeing tour.

Miss Beulah McLean spent last week-end in Charlotte visiting her sister.

Mrs. W. H. Keith, Mrs. G. W. Griffin, Mrs. G. W. Brooks and Miss Elizabeth Keith spent Saturday afternoon in Sanford.

The Rev. Charles A. Lawrence attended a meeting of the Ministerial Union at West End a day last week.

Mrs. Bertie L. Matthews spent a part of last week in Raleigh.

THIS ON-YOUR-JOB TEST GETS YOU FACTS Instead of Opinions

TODAY truck operators want results—not claims. Facts—not opinions. And the way to get facts is to make this on-your-job test with your own loads, over your regular routes, with your own driver at the wheel.

We are so confident of the outstanding performance and economy of the new Ford V-8 truck for 1935 that we will gladly place a Ford V-8 truck at the disposal of any responsible truck operator for an on-your-job test without obligation.

The time-proved V-8 engine gives you 80 full horsepower with the economy of a "four." It gives you speed for fast delivery, power to pull the heavy loads.

New weight distribution, obtained by mounting the front springs ahead of the axle and moving the V-8 engine forward, improves operation throughout.

Ford offers you the exclusive low cost engine exchange plan and other exchange features that materially reduce maintenance cost.

On any road with any load, the Ford V-8 truck lives up to its reputation for hauling more tons, more miles with more satisfaction and at less cost.

But let your own judgement decide—call us for an on-your-job test and then check the results.

THE FORD V-8 PICK UP
This unit finds a place in almost every business from farming to manufacturing. It has a load space which measures 69 inches in length, 46 inches in width and sides 14 inches high. The body is of welded steel construction. P. O. B. Detroit $480
