Rev. W. E. McCord, Army Chaplain, Dies

Winter Resident of Southern Pines Was Born in Illinois 77 Years Ago

Funeral services for the Rev. William Edgar McCord, who died on Friday, were held Monday at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Southern Pines. The Rev. F. Craighill Brown, rector of the church officiated, interment in Bethesda cemetery following with a detachment from Fort Bragg firing a salute and sounding taps as the flag-draped casket was lowered to its resting place.

Mr. McCord, a seasonal resident of Southern Pines for several years, purchased the dwelling at Indiana avenue and Country Club Drive last fall, and though in failing health enjoyed motoring until quite recently.

Born in Vandale, Ill., 77 years ago, he attended Black College, graduated from Union Seminary, was later ordained as a Presbyterian clergyman, and did noteworthy service in settlement work among the residents of New York's East side. Ordained an Episcopal minister by Bishop Vincent of Cincinnati he served as an assistant to Dr. Rainsford in New York, and later had parishes in Bayside and Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., Winsdor, Vt., and Rock Hill, S. C.

Chaplain of the 7th Regiment of New York for 20 years the deceased served with that regiment in the World War, and also as service chaplain of the 27th Division of the A. E. F., retiring with the rank of Major. Pallbearers were E. C. Stevens, E. T. Chapman, John Howarth, Howard Burns, Norman Day, Benjamin Bradin, John Barron and Elmer Davis. L. V. O'Callaghan, representing the Sandhills Post of the American Legion, surviving is his wife, the former Zella Isabel Hicks.

Trotting Matinee To Benefit M. C. Hospital

Fine Program of Races at Pinehurst Track on Saturday Afternoon

Pinehurst and the Sandhills are unusually fortunate this season in having the opportunity of seeing a variety of horse events. Last Saturday some of the best steeplechase horses in the country ran in the successful inaugural meet of the Sandhills Steeplechase & Racing Association, and this Saturday H. Stacy Smith is putting on harness races on the Pinehurst track under the auspices of the Pinehurst women's auxiliary for the benefit of the Moore County Hospital.

There will be three harness races and one running race, in addition to gymkhana events. Among the well known horses in the trotting races will be two candidates for this year's $40,000 Hambletonian stake for three-year-olds, Pedro Tipton and Black Knight, both owned by Mr. Smith. In other trotting events will be colts owned by the famous Hanover Shoe Farm of Hanover, Pa., and the Port Royal Farm of Port Royal. As an added feature to Saturday's program, there will be an exhibition by a number of the finest five-gaited saddle horses ever seen here.

A large crowd is expected to see these famous horses in action.

Fresh fruits and vegetables Saturday at the Southern Pines Curb Market.

Bibles, Testaments, Prayer Books and Hymnals at Hayes.
